Meeting Planned For Republicans

Jackson County Republican Women will hold the April meeting Monday, April 18, at the YMCA. Luncheon will be served at 12 noon with a business meeting and program to follow.

Mrs. Paul Geddes, Roseburg, will be speaker. Mrs. Geddes is at present serving as secretary for her husband, a state senator, during the 1955 session of the Oregon legislature.

Reservations for the luncheon are to be made with the president, Mrs. Stephen G. Nye, at 2-7217. All Republicans are invited to attend.

Mothers' Plan Style Show On Saturday

Mrs. Dean Mickelwait, Eugene, president of the University of Oregon Mothers' association, will be a guest at the luncheon and style show which the southern Oregon unit of the association is planning this week end. The event will be at Rogue Valley Country club Saturday, April 16, at 12:30 p. m. and will benefit the scholarship fund of the state association.

Reservations are to be made by calling the club, 2-5965. Mrs. J. W. Barnard, Medford, district vice-president of Oregon Mothers, is in charge of the style show and assisting her are Mrs. L. G. Frink, president of the Medford group, and Mrs. John Pond, Medford, secretary-treasurer.

The style show is being planned around the theme of Mothers' week end at the university. Student models are to be Misses Dallas Mae Barnard, Barbara Pree, Dorothy McGraw, Flori Sloniger, Carolyn Fichtner and Beverly Hogue, and Jerry Gatlin, Lyle Dague and Warren Deakins. Mothers modeling will be Mrs. Frank Perl, Mrs. James Town, Mrs. F. M. Rhodes and Mrs. L. W. Bates.

Shops cooperating for the event are Bert Pree's, Jean Hart's, Burrellson's and Barker's Mens' store.

Mrs. Allen F. Perry will be commentator and Mrs. George Sloniger will provide music.

It is stated that last year 500 students made applications for the scholarships provided by the mothers, and that about 600 are expected to apply this year.

"It is important that each mother's group of the state support the scholarship project," Mrs. Frink, Medford president, states.

Shady Cove Group Holds Initiation

Shady Cove — Shady Cove-Trail Lady Lions held initiation ceremonies April 6 for Mrs. Everett Elrod, Mrs. Harry Goode, Mrs. Al Andre, Mrs. William Croucher, Mrs. Thomas Quail, Mrs. Earl Sheppard and Mrs. B. Molnar. Mrs. O. L. Williams conducted the candlelight ceremony, assisted by Mrs. Ray Mullen. Corsages were presented to the new members.

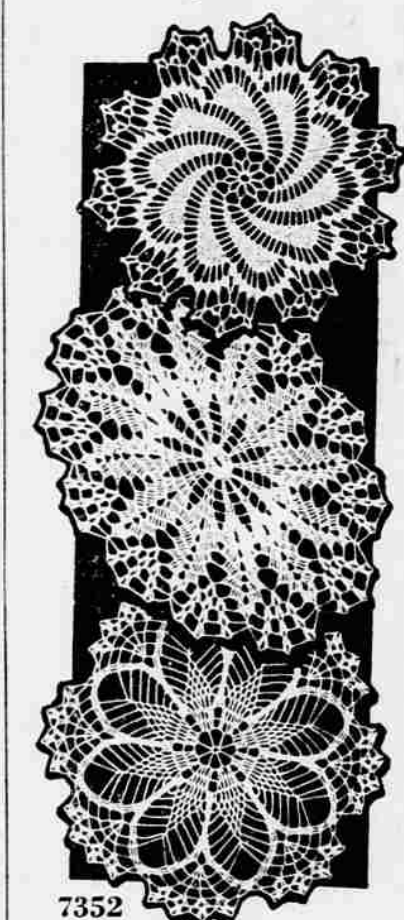

An eight o'clock buffet dinner, served by the hostesses, Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Ray Chubb, and Mrs. Delbert Spain, preceded the initiation rites.

During the social hour, game prizes were won by Mrs. Harry Goode and Mrs. O. L. Williams. Fifteen of the 21 members attended this meeting. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Donald Harmon April 20, at 7:30 p. m.

Egg cooking rule: Use low to moderate, even heat, whether you are cooking eggs in water, frying pan or oven. Like other protein foods, eggs cooked at high temperature get tough and leathery.

Officers Named By Phoenix Club For Coming Year

Phoenix — Phoenix Garden club held election of officers at a meeting April 8. Mrs. A. C. Lewis was elected president; Mrs. Chris Wolff, first vice-president; Mrs. W. I. House, second vice-president; Mrs. W. A. Grochoki, secretary and Mrs. S. E. Cox, treasurer.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. George Bourne, Mrs. H. R. Glasscock and Mrs. Guy Cobleigh.

Before the business meeting the members visited Rosehill nursery at Ashland. Glen Brown, owner of the nursery, raises a great many unusual and rare plants and shrubs, including the dawn redwood, a purple rose from Mexico, and the lost Franklin shrub which was first discovered on a river in Georgia and was never located after that. It has been propagated from slips taken when first discovered.

Members then visited Arcady gardens on Calhoun road, Phoenix. Mrs. Leo Thomas, proprietor, showed members her rock gardens and then her greenhouses where she raises many rare pelargoniums.

Plans were completed for the flower show which will be held Sunday, April 17, at the Community club in Phoenix.

Program Numbers Are Announced

Stephen Kemalyan, who sings in Medford Friday, April 15, for Jackson County Civic Music association, will open his program with numbers by Thomas Arne, Beethoven and Handel. The three opening numbers are "Preach not me your must rules" Arne; "In questa tomba oscura" by Beethoven and the Handel recitative, "I feel the Deity within."

The second groups of numbers are by Robert Schuman, Grieg, Franz Schubert and Richard Strauss and these will be followed by Leoncavallo's prologue to the Opera, "I Pagliacci."

A group of light numbers will close the program.

Accompanist will be Arthur Wilson and he will play two numbers, "Impromptu in G flat" by Schubert and "Etude A Minor" by Paganini-Liszt.

Easter Monday Event Attracts Large Numbers

One of the largest of the spring benefit parties was the annual Easter Monday luncheon of St. Anne's Altar society held April 11 in the gymnasium of St. Mary's school. Eighty-five tables of members and guests were served luncheon, and cards followed.

Arrangements of yellow daffodils, white stock and flowering quince, with rose colored tapers, centered the three buffet tables. Screens covered with blossoms and greenery and large bouquets of flowering fruit branches decorated the room.

Among the guests were women from many parts of the valley and also from northern California. Mrs. Dennis Mulloy, Mrs. Frank Bryan, Mrs. Roy Mason and Mrs. Bernard Davidson, Ft. Jones, and Mrs. M. A. Lewis, Yreka, attended. Mrs. Lewis was a guest of Mrs. R. L. Lewis, Medford.

Mrs. John Laden was general chairman for the party, and she was assisted by about 60 members of the society.

Prizes for the party were donated by Medford merchants, and the society expresses its thanks to those who assisted with the annual project in this manner.

Annual Luncheon Of Wenonah Club Planned April 28

The annual May day public card party and smorgsboard sponsored by Wenonah club will be held Thursday, April 28 at 1 p. m. in Redman hall. Bridge, pinochle and canasta will be played.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Richard Singler, 2-6575, and Mrs. Charles Dooks, 3-5005 of Medford, or Mrs. Donald Ivie, 7687, Ashland.

Pocahontas lodge will meet Friday, April 15, at 8 p. m. in Redman hall. Members are asked to take "white elephants" for games to be played during the social hour.

Next time you mix a cake or biscuits, and are interrupted by telephone, doorbell, or the youngsters, you can tell at a glance where you stopped mixing if you follow this hint. Before you begin, place all ingredients to the right of the mixing bowl. Then, each time you add one, place the container to the left of the bowl. This way, you will never forget the salt or add the sugar twice.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday; 1 a. m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

Junior Club Members Hold Easter Party At Director's Home

Members of the Junior Degree of Honor club held an Easter egg hunt at the home of the club leader, Mrs. H. G. Wilson, 7 Chestnut street, Saturday afternoon. Doyle Martin won a prize for finding the most eggs.

Guests were Judith and Carolyn Randolph, Sacramento, Calif. Guests from Medford were Judith Booth, Victoria Breen, Doyle Martin, Carol and Randy Towne and William Breedlove.

The president, Sharon Forde, conducted the meeting, Kathleen Smith assisted with serving and William Breedlove retired the flag. Carol Krause led the sunshine march and Mrs. Wilson read a poem.

Next meeting of the club will be May 21 at Lincoln gymnasium.

Group Invited For Play Day

Members of the Junior posse have been invited to take part in a play day sponsored by the newly organized Rogue Rangers. It will be held Sunday, April 17, at 1 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Gibson, 2380 Barnett road.

It is stated that an entry charge of 10 cents will be made for each event.

It is announced that the drill date for Junior posse has been changed to April 24 at 2 p. m.

Announce Meeting For Scout Leaders

A training meeting for Girl Scout day camp leaders will be held at the home of Mrs. Maurice Ritchey, 412 Oak street, Thursday, April 14. Hours are from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Anyone interested in assisting at day camp, either on a full or part time basis, is welcome to attend. Those attending are asked to take a sack lunch for herself and child, if accompanied by one. Child care will be provided at a small charge per child.

Crater Auxiliary Announces Party At Country Club

Final plans have been made for the annual benefit card party of Crater Lions' auxiliary which will be given Monday, April 25, at Rogue Valley Country club. Dessert will be served at 12:30 p. m. followed by bridge, canasta or pinochle. Prizes will be awarded.

The public is invited to attend and tickets may be purchased from Mrs. Clayton George, 1011 Murray street, telephone 2-9918.

Proceeds from the party will help support the state blind institute, the school for parents of visually handicapped children which the Lady Lions of Oregon sponsor each summer.

Mrs. Joe Whipple Named Chairman Reese Creek Unit

Reese Creek—Mrs. Joe Whipple was elected chairman of Reese Creek Extension unit at a meeting of the unit held April 5 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Dufour.

Other new officers are Mrs. Robert Fleming, vice-chairman; Mrs. Paul Johnston, secretary and Mrs. Christ Nelsen, treasurer.

Installation will be May 3.

Mrs. Tom Vestal was appointed chairman of registration for the annual Homemakers' festival to be held May 5 in Central Point Grange hall.

Mrs. Donald Clark and Mrs. L. W. Howell were guests for the meeting.

Try removing wrinkles from woollens by giving them a spin in the automatic dryer. Place the wrinkled garments in the dryer with two large turkish towels which have been spun damp dry in the automatic washer or run through a wringer. After 5 to 10 minutes at low heat, remove the woollens from the dryer and dry on a hanger.
