Carnival Set For Friday

Final arrangements have been made for the annual Jackson Parent-Teacher association carnival to be held Friday, April 15, at 7 p.m. at the school. According to the committee, there will be "fun and food for young and old."

Three big fish ponds with hundreds of prizes will be in operation during the evening. Games of skill such as darts, bean bag throw, shooting gallery, penny throw, basketball throw, and the baseball throw will be available.

A big "country store" booth will have a wide and varied selection of articles for sale, and a plant booth and an apron booth are planned. A variety of food and drink will be on sale.

A TV room is planned for the Friday night fight fans, and a movie will be shown after the fights.

Jackson PTA cordially invites all parents, children and friends of Jackson school to attend this one big money-making event of the year, the proceeds of which are used to maintain the budget and carry on worth-while projects for the school.

Lake Creek Unit Holds Session at Wills Home

Lake Creek—Lake Creek Extension unit held the April meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Wills, Lake Creek. Mrs. J. D. Arens presided, and 21 members and a visitor were present.

Mrs. Leland Charley read a letter on Azalea house, and Mrs. J. Davidson reported on Associated Country Women of the World. Mrs. Carl Webb gave a health and safety report. The finance committee, Mrs. Ed Meyers and Mrs. Davidson, conducted a white elephant sale.

The lesson on "Simple Home Repairs" was given by Mrs. Ed Meyers and Mrs. Ernest Burrall.

An Easter luncheon was served by the hostess, with Mrs. H. Meyer assisting. Easter songs were sung.

The May meeting will be held at the Burrall home, Lake Creek, and the county home demonstration agent, Miss Eula Wintermole, will give the lesson on "Living Within Twenty-Four Hours a Day." Roll call will be on a one-week calorie chart.

Dance Planned In Shady Cove

Shady Cove—Shady Cove post and auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, have planned a dance Saturday, April 16, in VFW hall. The committee states that good music will be provided, and the auxiliary will serve refreshments.

Everyone is invited to attend.

School Official To Give Talk for Washington PTA

Washington Parent-Teacher association will meet Friday, April 15, at 2:15 p.m. in the school gymnasium. Following a short business meeting to be conducted by Mrs. Harold Hubler, club president, Leonard Mayfield, assistant superintendent of Medford public schools, will speak on "The Duties and Responsibilities of School Officials." The topic deals with the administration of the schools.

Child care will be provided in Room 2, and refreshments will be served by mothers of students in the second grade.
