News About Servicemen

ROGUE VALLEY MEN JOIN IN MANEUVERS

Two more Rogue valley Army men who will participate in "Exercise Apple Jack" maneuvers for some 26,000 servicemen set during May at the Yakima firing center near Ft. Lewis, Wash., were listed today by the Army.

They are Sgt. George R. Long, 23, son of Mrs. Arthur Long, route 1, Ashland, and Sgt. Philip L. Lausten, son of Mrs. Ethel Geyer, Central Point.

Lausten, who attended Central Point High school, is a Korean veteran and joined the Army in 1948. He is communications chief in Battery C, 37th field artillery battalion, 2nd Infantry division.

MEDFORD MAN JOINS NAVY

Harold Eugene Tye, route 1, box 432, Medford, has enlisted in the Navy, according to E. D. Houdesheld, QM1, Navy recruiting chief here. He will be assigned to Naval aviation after basic training and a year leave.

AT ATLANTIC CITY

Miss Nancy A. Busch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Busch, Trail, has reported to the Naval air station at Atlantic City, N. J., where she has been assigned as an air controller in the operations department, according to a Navy release. Before entering the Navy, she was graduated from Eagle Point High school.

Irish Setter Poisoned

Mrs. Betty Ann Severson, 924 South Ivy st., reported to police her iris setter, valued at about $100, had been poisoned. A veterinarian told police the dog apparently died as a result of eating what appeared to be small pieces of chicken which probably contained poison. Mrs. Severson found the dog lying on the living room floor when she returned home Wednesday.

Injures Mouth

Edward Daniel Denman, aged 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Denman, 507 Mae st., injured his mouth yesterday when he ran into the side of a pickup truck driven by Loyal M. Bates, box 155, Talent, at the intersection of Saling and Mary sts. Police said the boy was playing on Saling st. and was taken to a physician for a checkup. No citations were issued, police said.

Lawn Mower Service—Leland D. Goff has assumed the business name Lee's Lawn Mower Service and Tool Sharpening, according to county clerk's records.

Firemen Stand By

City firemen were called to stand by about 1 p. m. yesterday when an Air Force T29B (bomber) refueled at the municipal airport and took off. The stand-by request was made by the Air Force.

Marshal Orders—Two orders for correction of hazardous conditions were issued by City Fire Marshal Truman Nelson yesterday. He inspected two warehouses, three business occupancies and a place of public assembly.

Crayons Smoke—Firemen said that heavy smoke in the house at the Ivan S. Flannery residence, 132 Almond st., about 3:15 p. m. yesterday was caused by wax crayons placed by children on top of a heating stove. Two pumps were sent to the reported house fire. There was no damage, according to firemen. One pump was sent to a flue fire at the William Chapin residence, 229 Laurel st., about 5:25 p. m. yesterday.

HERE SATURDAY—Ann Jones, western recording artist, will appear here Saturday, April 16, with her Queens of Western Swing. They will be at the Rogue Valley Ballroom from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m.

Business Name—E. D. Dameron has retired from the business name Dameron Tire Company, according to records filed in the office of the Jackson county clerk. Dameron and Lona M. Dameron have assumed the business name Try - R - Wood. Their address is listed as 724 Oak st., Medford.
