'Honor Burial' for Battleship Requested

Washington — (U.P.) — Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.) today urged that the battleship Oregon, veteran of the Spanish-American war, be given a proper military burial "with all possible honors."

The ship, stripped of all fittings, was used as a breakwater at Guam during the war and is still at the Pacific island. Norblad said the cost of towing the hull to Portland had been explored and found prohibitive, and its value for scrap was "questionable."

The Oregon Republican, in a letter to Rear Admiral W. D. Lett, Chief of the Navy's Bureau of Ships in Washington, urged that the Admiral take appropriate action and arrange for the Oregon's burial, "with appropriate patriotic ceremonies."

Sale Planned—A rummage and cooked food sale will be conducted by the Women of the Moose in the Feh building at 106 North Ivy st., Friday, April 22. Mrs. Harvey Wyatt, Hospital committee chairman, will be in charge of the rummage sale and the Friendship group in charge of the cooked food sale.

Assume Names—Quintin B. and E. Pearl Jordan of Jacksonville have assumed the business name "Jordan's Service" according to records in the Jackson County Recorder's office. Ancil R., Phoebe, Percy A. and June Lee of Central Point have assumed the business name "La-Casita," and Sam and Irene C. Mallon have assumed the business name "Sam's Tractor Service."

Two Accidents—Vehicles operated by Mayme G. Centers, 1018 Maple Park dr., Medford, and Nelson E. Case, 522 South Holly st., Medford, collided at the intersection of Third and Front sts. yesterday, according to city police. Hollis Edward Kieff, 829 West 11th st., Medford, and Joseph Francis Sheridan, 1116 Winchester ave., Medford, were drivers of vehicles which collided at West Main and Orange sts., police added.

Daughter Born—News of the birth of a daughter April 15 to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Coghill, Whidbey Island, Wash., has been received here. The child weighed 7 pounds 8 ounces and has been named Theresa Lynn. The Coghills have an older daughter, Ann Marie. Coghill is an air controller in the Navy Air wing at Whidbey Island. Mrs. Coghill is the former Beverly Sorenson of Portland, and her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Coghill, 415 J st., Medford.

Surgery Patients—Those reported today as surgery patients at Sacred Heart hospital are: Walter Alexander, McCloud, Calif.; Jackie Thomas, 3, of 412 Western ave.; Mrs. Frank Herick, Klamath Falls; Patricia Crofoot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crofoot, route 2, Christine Dillingham, 2 1/2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Dillingham, Grants Pass; Earl Jackson, Happy Camp, Calif.; Jerry Synens, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dickinson, Shady Cove; Eugene Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Davis, 3781 Hill-singer rd.; Miss Mary Dennis, Weed, Calif.; and Mrs. Mary Stuart, Central Point.

Funeral Arranged Thursday Afternoon For James P. Wells

Ashland — Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday for James Percy Wells, 81, member of a pioneer Ashland family, who died Monday evening after more than a week of hospitalization. He suffered a heart attack.

He was born just north of Ashland on Nov. 23, 1873, the son of James and Emily McKern Wells, and grandson of Giles and Martha Wells, who came here from Iowa in 1853, and took up a land claim in the Dead Indian area.

He was superintendent of Jackson county public schools for six or seven years, later becoming superintendent of Klamath county schools, a post he held for 29 years.

He retired from the school job in 1948, returning to Ashland to live. He was a member of the Southern Oregon Historical society and the Ashland Rotary club.

Survivors include his widow, the former Maye Brady, whom he married in Holtville, Calif., in 1911; and two sisters, Mrs. Katherine Cole, San Francisco, and Mrs. Emily Maize, Willits, Calif. Other relatives include Mrs. Ann Jordan, Mrs. Mable Eliason, Mrs. Ida Tucker and Clark Payne, all Ashland.

The Rev. James Jondrow, minister of the Ashland Presbyterian church, will officiate at the services, which will be at Mountain View chapel, followed by entombment at Resthaven mausoleum.

Applegate Man Hurt

In Sunday Accident

Grants Pass — William Davis, 70, Applegate, is hospitalized here from injuries suffered Sunday when a car driven by his son Harvey, 21, Jacksonville, overturned south of Murphy on the Missouri Flat rd. Davis is listed as in fair condition.

Ralph and Melvin Guches, Applegate, also were passengers in the car, but their hurts were minor, according to reports of the accident.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday; 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

Andy's Jewelry Store Planning Remodeling

A remodeling and expansion program at Andy's Jewelry store, 15 North Central ave., is planned and will be started soon, store officials announced this week. About 50 per cent more floor space will be added and a new mezzanine will be added for office space, according to Ben H. Todd, the architect.

An air conditioning system will be installed and new lighting and other fixtures added. One of the main additions will be a room used exclusively for the showing of diamonds.

Guidance Clinic Group Member Drive Slow

About one quarter of the invitations to membership in the Southern Oregon Child Guidance Clinic association, which were mailed out last week, have been returned with the $2 annual dues. Mrs. Earl Lawson and Mrs. E. L. Lanox, co-chairman of the Medford membership drive, announced today.

It is hoped that this week will bring an increased response, for the funds derived will aid the clinic in needed expansion during the coming year, they said.

It was also announced that Mrs. Allan Perry, Mrs. Dwight Houghton and Mrs. Wilber Arnold were members of the committee responsible for the mailing of the membership invitations.
