Rosalie Johnson Named to Office In Grand Bethel

Miss Rosalie Johnson, senior princess of Medford Bethel 14, Order of Job's Daughters, was elected grand marshal of the Oregon Bethel for the coming year at the annual convention held last week end in Portland.

Also attending the grand session were Miss Alexa Hibbard, queen; Miss Barbara Roach, past queen; Miss Emily Masterson, junior princess; Miss Anne Garner, marshal; and the Misses Bernice Skoog, Carol Dyke and Sue Donna Doolen, delegates, and Miss Judy Brill.

Mrs. Wallace Brill, guardian of the Bethel, and Mrs. Gene Dyke accompanied the girls as chaperones.

Bethel 14 will hold initiation at a meeting set for tonight at 7:30 p. m. in Medford Masonic temple. Members are to wear formal dress.

Brighten dingy marble this way. Wash thoroughly. Then make a thick paste of a detergent and warm water. Pat the paste on the surface, cover with a damp cloth, and let set for about 24 hours, keeping the cloth damp all the time. Remove the cloth, let the paste dry another 24 hours. Remove paste, rinse and dry.

Phoenix Church Groups to Meet Thursday Friday

Phoenix — Members of Phoenix Presbyterian church have planned several group meetings this week.

Women's association will meet at the church Thursday at 10 a. m. for the monthly session. The business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Roscoe Owens and devotions will be led by Mrs. Rex Nicodemus. The program chairman, Mrs. Al Morin, will take charge of the program.

Hostesses for the day are Mrs. Morin, Mrs. Merle Simmonds, Mrs. Vincent Clafin and Mrs. Ray Clafin. They will prepare luncheon, for which a nominal charge will be made.

A nursery is provided for small children.

All women of the church and community are invited to attend. Family night will be observed Friday with a potluck supper at 6:30 p. m. Mrs. John Kesler, chairman, states that because of a change in plans, the entire menu is to be contributed by the families attending. A program will follow dinner.

The boys' handicraft class and choir practice are both set for tonight at 7 o'clock.

The church discussion group will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hale Loofburrow Sunday, April 24, at 7 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gardner will be leaders.

Tuesday, May 3, has been set as the date of an open house to be held by members of the handicraft classes held in the church for the past six months.

Plan Dinner

Rogue River — The annual Mariners Smorgasbord dinner will be held at 5:30 p. m. Saturday, April 30, at the Presbyterian church community hall.

Here's a dish-in-demand on cool spring mornings. Remove crusts from 8 slices of stale bread — cut each slice in half. Combine one cup pancake ready-mix, one cup milk, one egg slightly beaten, and one tablespoon melted shortening. Dip slices in batter and pan-fry on the top burner of your gas range until golden brown. To put this batter taste way outside the commonplace, serve it piping hot with maple-blended syrup and Canadian bacon.

U.S. Foreign Policy UnChristian Methodist Missionary Declares

Christian women of this nation should work towards Christianizing the foreign policy of the United States and improvement of the conduct of Americans who live abroad, Miss Laura Heist told Methodist women at an annual luncheon yesterday noon at First Methodist church here. Miss Heist, who spent more than 30 years in India as a missionary for the Methodist church, spoke to women from Medford, Ashland, Gold Hill and Grants Pass.

Miss Heist declared that the United States does not now have a Christian foreign policy. She pointed out that if this nation is to convince the people of other nations that we are truly Christians, we "must use every opportunity to show what Christian democracy and Christian homes are really like."

The speaker urged that American parents prepare their sons and daughters to be good representatives of this country when they go abroad and pointed out that because of the armed services and for other reasons, thousands of young people are now spending a great deal of time in foreign countries.

She quoted from a recent radio speaker who said that the unseemly conduct of certain types of Americans is undoing most of the work of missionaries and diplomats in the foreign countries.

"Many young people will be missionaries and ambassadors, whether they mean to or not," said Miss Heist. "We are supposed to be a Christian country and have a Christian conduct. This is a fine avenue of service, (the armed forces) though not of our choosing. We must reinforce the Christian character of our youth so they will do the nation credit when they go abroad."

Miss Heist urged her listeners to keep up an unceasing program of Christian aid to foreign countries, such as India, and said this should include prayer as well as financial support.

Miss Heist was introduced by Mrs. Vern Wilson, who presided. Among those introduced were Mrs. J. M. Bestul, Grants Pass, district president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service;

Former Curate Is Visitor Here

The Rev. J. J. Hancock, who was curate of St. Mark's Episcopal church here in 1946 and 1947, and Mrs. Hancock, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton J. Walker, 129 North Oakdale ave., during the convention of the Oregon diocese of the Episcopal church this week.

Mr. Hancock was here with a 12-member delegation from St. Alban's church, Tillamook, where he is now serving.

Want a blouse that never "rides" up? Build an anchor in all your blouses and skirts. Just cut a twill tape the length of your waist measurement plus 1 inch. Stitch center of tape to the center back of blouse at waistline. Stitch a hook and eye at ends of tape. When you dress, fasten hook and eye and your blouse will be tucked in to stay.
