INDIANAPOLIS, IND. — (U.P.)

For the first time in the history of the famous 500-mile Indianapolis Speedway auto race, at least one pit crew plans to communicate with a driver via two-way radio. No longer will Jim Rathmann's crew resort to blackboard markings when his roadster whizzes past the pit area at break-neck speed to inform him of the latest developments or pass along their latest strategy.

Rhodes Hitless In Five Games

New York — (U.P.) — Dusty Rhodes of the Giants admitted today he will have to come down off cloud nine pretty soon and go to work again.

Rhodes enjoyed the kind of year all ballplayers dream about in 1954 when he delivered spectacularly in the pinch during the regular season and in the World Series, but so far this year hasn't hit safely once in the five games he has been sent to bat.

"I don't see how I could have the kind of year I had last year again," Rhodes said, recalling his 34.1 average during the regular campaign and his one-man devastation against Cleveland in the World Series.

"Everything I did last year was right," Dusty said. "You can't expect to do that every year. Right now, I ain't shootin' for anything in particular. Just swingin' the bat I'll be gettin' me some hits pretty soon."

BONNIE BARTLETT GERRY HUNTER

Bonnie Bartlett, Former Boxer, Rough Mat Stylist

Gerry Hunter, who prefers to go as far outside the book of rules as she can in her wrestling bouts, will have a partner who also goes in for the rough stuff when she teams with Bonnie Bartlett at Merrick's arena Saturday night. They will face Jean Elbon and Shirley Winters in a tag match, slated for 30 minutes or two out of three falls.

Miss Bartlett, who is 23 years old and weighs 165 pounds, is a former professional boxer and occasionally relies on a hefty wallop to subdue her mat foes. She deserted the art of fistcuffs for the mat after she ran out of opponents.

The curvaceous St. Paul, Minn., lass spent five years in the boxing ring during which time she engaged in 43 regulation fights and numerous gymnasium battles. Although she frequently turns rough, Miss Bartlett has mastered the fine points of wrestling and favors the hammerlock and body slam as fall-producing maneuvers. She is hot on the trail of Mildred Burke for a world's championship match and says she will meet all comers to prove her claim to such a bout.

Promoter Mack Lillard has carded two men's matches to round out a full program. Champ Thomas, Denver flash who made a big hit here about three weeks ago, will go against Yoggi Hussane and Larry Pressnell will square off against Buck Davidson. Starting time is 8:30 p.m. with arena doors to open an hour earlier.

Don Cockell Agrees To Use Head Protector In Training for Bout

San Rafael, Calif. — (U.P.) — British heavyweight Don Cockell, training for his May 16 title bout with champion Rocky Marciano, has reluctantly agreed to wear head protection while sparring but refused again today to use a mouth piece.

American promoter Jimmy Murray explained to Cockell and his trainers yesterday that he was jeopardizing the bout by not wearing adequate protection during training.

Cockell said he had never been injured while training in the past, but agreed to the head gear.

He went four rounds with his first American sparring partner, Bob Albricht of Hollywood and Frank Buford of Oakland, Calif. Observers were impressed with the Brit's fast left jab and snapping left hook.
