

Police Thwart Boys' Plans To Set Up Nation On Island Off California Coast

Los Angeles—(U.P.)—Police today held four teen-aged boys for questioning on their elaborate plans to seize the Navy-owned offshore island of San Miguel and "set up their own nation."

The youths, missing from their homes in nearby Venice since Tuesday, were picked up by a police officer after their car stalled. In the trunk of the car, officers found a small arsenal, including two shotguns, two .22 rifles, a machine gun, two sticks of dynamite, knives and bayonets.

When police told them the rocky island of San Miguel was used as a Navy target range and asked what they would have done if the Navy opened fire on them, one of the youths answered, "We'd shoot back."

"Governor" Wayne Young, Police identified the would-be nation founders as "governor" Wayne Young, 15, Raymond Clark, 14, Robert Burt, 13, and Jimmy Howard, 13 all of Venice.

Their method of getting to the island was not decided but their other plans were scrupulously worked out.

A long, badly spelled constitution laid out 14 laws, which included:

Texas Governor Seeks Free Vaccine

Austin, Tex.—(U.P.)—Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas today joined the list of officials seeking independent means of getting more Salk vaccine into their states before the polio season starts.

Shivers asked for an emergency appropriation of $250,000 so Texas can manufacture its own anti-polio vaccine to immunize the children of the poor.

The mass inoculation of first and second graders against polio is already in full swing in Texas, as it is in other states. But officials throughout the country expressed concern over how much of the vaccine will be available by mid-summer and how they can provide protection for youngsters not covered by the mass inoculation program.

"There shall (sic) be no stealing of one's private property.

"There shall be no excess killing of animals on this island.

"All parties including women shall carry a gun.

"All crimes shall be punished. The defence shall have a judge and jury.

"There shall be no arguing on this island at any time.

"Every person on this island shall do his or hers share of work.

Pregnancy Not Tolerated

"No pregnancy will be tolerated on this island, except this rule may be broken by the governor."

The four youths planned to set themselves up as officers of the island with other inhabitants in a "peasant" classification. Besides a constitution, and by-laws, the youths had drawn a crude map of Southern California with caves marked to hide supplies before their invasion.

Police said they were investigating where the boys had found their arsenal of guns.

Meat Inspection Legislation Urged

Salem—(U.P.)—A "do pass" recommendation to a limited version of the Legislature's meat inspection bill was given Wednesday by the House Livestock Committee. An amendment proposing a $75,000 pilot program was added.

The program would start under the Department of Agriculture's direction, and anticipates use of an additional $75,000 to be raised by licensing meat dealers.

At present about 40 per cent of meat processed in Oregon is inspected, mostly in Portland.

Ashland Schools Plan Budget of $753,230

Ashland—Ashland School District 5 will have a budget totaling $753,230 for the 1955-56 fiscal year, according to the school board, which announced the budget this week.

Total tax levy will be $516,530, of which $278,038 is outside the 6 per cent limitation, and will require approval of the voters.

An election for this purpose will be held May 23.

Jackson County Bridge Contract Awarded

Salem—(U.P.)—The State Highway Commission said today it has awarded a Jackson county bridge contract to E-W Construction Co. of Eugene on low bid of $13,470.

The contract calls for construction of a double 12 by 6 foot reinforced concrete culvert over Waurtz creek and a 50-foot reinforced bridge over McNeil creek on the Butte Falls road about seven miles west of Butte Falls.

Bend Man Pleads Embezzlement Guilt

Bend—(U.P.)—Jack E. Chambers, former secretary treasurer of local 67, International Woodworkers of America, late yesterday pleaded guilty in Circuit Court in an embezzlement charge.

Circuit Judge Ralph S. Hamilton deferred sentence until probation authorities draw up a report. Chambers was held in lieu of $10,000 bail.

Chambers surrendered himself to local authorities yesterday morning, and waived preliminary hearing and indictment.

Former Drug Store Now Being Remodeled

The space formerly occupied by Wainscotts drugs at Main st. and Riverside ave., now is being remodeled to accommodate a new business in Medford, Laurine and Dyke, floor coverings. It is expected that the project will be completed early next week.

Owners of the new firm are Bill Laurine and Gene Dyke, and both have had many years experience in the floor covering business.

Kent and Don Anderson, brothers, will work from the store as layers for the floor covering.

Salem—(U.P.)—Fish derbies in Oregon will be virtually eliminated after January 1 if the governor signs a house originated bill just approved by the Senate.

The bill limits derby awards to buttons, ribbons, emblems, plaques, and trophies. The trophies may be worth up to $25.

Senator Robert D. Holmes, Gearhart, said the bill follows a recommendation of a 1952 legislative interim committee on fisheries, and has the support as well of various conservative agencies.

New Quakes Hit Devastated Greece

Athens—(U.P.)—Strong new earthquakes today hit devastated areas of Greece that were still digging out of the heavy quakes earlier in the week.

The chief of police at Volos reported to the Ministry of Interior that five persons were known dead and 51 injured and that there probably were more victims.

Thousands already were homeless in the Volos area and the governor said the new quake had "completed the destruction of Volos," toppling buildings already weakened.
