Rogue River School Board Post Filled By Carlton Sandeen

Appointment of Carlton E. Sandeen, Rogue River contractor, to fill a vacancy on the Rogue River school board, was announced today by Alf Mekkold, Jackson county superintendent of schools.

The vacancy on the board has existed since March 21, when Mrs. Jessie Rae Franz, board chairman, submitted her resignation.

The new chairman will be either R. C. Gail or Harold W. Salter, the other two board members.

Sandeen will serve until the school district's next annual meeting, which is scheduled for June 20. At that time a board member will be elected to serve out the unexpired one year of

Mrs. Franz' term.

Also up for election at that time will be the board position held by Salter, who will be completing his regular term in office. No candidates for the position have been announced.

Sandeen's appointment was made by Mekkold because no election to fill the post had been conducted. Law requires that the county superintendent make such an appointment within 30 days when no election is held in the district.

Evans Valley sources have indicated that an election will be held in that district to fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Samuel B. Smith, a board member who is moving from the district. Another Evans Valley board member, Myron Newton, has resigned effective the end of the school year.
