

Members To Attend PTA Meet

A large number of parent-teacher association officers and members in Jackson county are planning to attend the golden jubilee convention of Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers to be held in the Civic auditorium, Portland, April 26-28.

Mrs. Newton P. Leonard, Providence, R. I., president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, will be the keynote speaker at the Tuesday morning opening session. Mrs. Leonard has a long history of service in parent-teacher work on the national, state and local levels and is a former member of the teaching profession.

A feature of the opening day's program will be a pageant on the 50-year history of the Oregon Congress written by Mrs. C. D. Cummins, Portland, Oregon Congress historian, and her committee, and staged at the civic auditorium under the direction of Miss Dorothea Lensch, Portland, state and national recreation chairman. The combined Mothers-singers chorus from all over the state will sing, and following the program a reception will be held honoring Mrs. Leonard.

"New Approaches to Juvenile Delinquency" will be the topic for an address Wednesday morning by Bertram M. Beck, director, special delinquency project, Children's Bureau, U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. His talk will be followed by questions from Herbert Bisno, Eugene, assistant professor of sociology, University of Oregon; Wayne Durrell, Portland, dean of admissions, Portland university and juvenile protection chairman for the Oregon PTA Congress; and Mrs. Victor P. Morris, Eugene, wife of the dean of the school of business administration, University of Oregon.

Mrs. Leonard will give an "Oregon's Children — A Parent Teacher Responsibility," at a banquet Wednesday.

"Problems in Education and Their Significance to PTA" will be the topic of Dr. Paul B. Jacobson, Dean of Education, University of Oregon Thursday morning.

Mrs. Leigh Gustison, Medford, has been nominated for the office of secretary of the Oregon Congress. Mrs. Gustison is procedure and by-laws chairman for the congress and plans to attend the pre-convention board of managers meeting on Monday and will also work on the credentials committee for the convention.

Others who plan to attend the convention from this county are Mrs. C. F. Conley, Ashland, president of Jackson County Council of Parent-Teacher associations; Mrs. John Benson, vice-president of the county council; Mrs. Roland Holmes, president of the Medford PTA council; Mrs. Ray Alder, president and Mrs. John Hartsook, vice-president from Washington school; Mrs. Alice Ward, secretary and Mrs. Alfred Mercer, treasurer from Jackson; Mrs. Warren G. Lesseg, president and Mrs. G. J. Adfinger, vice-president of Roosevelt; Mrs. Henry Kamman, second grade teacher at Oak Grove school; Mrs. George Paul, president of Lone Pine; Mrs. Lloyd Parsons, vice-president Medford Junior High; and Mrs. Kenneth Bramhall, president, Lincoln school.

Girl Scouts

Visit Fire Hall
Griffin Creek Girl Scout Troop No. 38 recently visited the fire hall and were escorted through by Truman Nelson, fire marshal, and Al Moulton. They were accompanied by their leader, Mrs. George Large, by Mrs. Charles McCormick and Mrs. D. E. Rawlings, mothers of the girls. The troop held recent roller skating parties and several of the girls are anxiously awaiting the dinner for first class scouts.

A court of awards will be held in the Griffin Creek gymnasium May 13 at 7:30 p.m. The Brownie fly-up will also be held at that time.

When refinishing a piece of furniture with carved wood-working, try this. Use steel wool in taking the finish off... attach a length of the wool to the gummy side of wide adhesive tape, then pull the wool back and forth across the curved surfaces.

Vegetable shortening mixed with home-rendered lard will help keep the lard fresh. It takes two pounds of shortening to each 50 pounds of lard.

Warm, juicy deep dish peach pie just like Mom used to make, but there's a difference. It's the cinnamon, sugar and sour cream topping that makes it different... and oh so good.

Commercial sour cream is suggested because we like the zip of it with fruits, however, whipped cream may be used if you prefer. Make other canned fruit pies by your favorite recipe and try them with this elegant topping. Apple slices, tart cherries, apricots, plums, or blueberries are some suggestions.

Deep Dish Peach Pie
2 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 can (1 lb. 14 oz.) sliced peaches
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons butter, or margarine
1 cup commercial sour cream
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, or nutmeg

Mix sugar, flour and salt. Gradually add 1 cup syrup drained from the peaches, mixing until smooth. Add drained peaches and lemon juice. Put into baking dish and dot with butter. Fit pastry over dish, fluting to the edge. Cut several slits to allow escape of steam. Bake in a hot oven (425°F.) about 30 minutes, until crust is browned. Serve warm. Just before serving, spoon sour cream over crust and sprinkle with brown sugar and cinnamon. Five to six servings.

Annual Recognition Luncheon Held for Girl Scout Workers

The Girl Scout organization helps build a healthy generation of youth for a useful tomorrow Mrs. Michele Rossi, Medford, told leaders and other adult workers who attended the annual recognition luncheon last week. It was held Wednesday noon at Rogue Valley Country club.

Mrs. Rossi, area president, said that a scout troop is "not just a place to meet and have fun" but a place where a girl "finds herself and her friends."

The outward badge of scouting is the trefoil, Mrs. Rossi said, and the "inner badge" is the girls' honesty, loyalty and helpfulness. "Girl scouting has a distinguished past, a vigorous present and a bright future," Mrs. Rossi declared.

She announced that Mrs. Roy F. Layton, national president of Girl Scouts of America, will be in Portland May 5 for a conference and that a number of women from this area will attend.

A large number of women were presented award pins for various years of registered membership in Girl Scouting, and it was pointed out that some of the leaders and workers began their scout affiliation as young girls in troops.

Five-year awards went to Mrs. A. N. Setness, Central Point; Mrs. George Large, Griffin Creek and Mrs. Fred J. Carr, Mrs. Gilbert Gross, Mrs. Richard Finch, Mrs. Charles Ely, Mrs. Lloyd Parsons, Mrs. B. L. Wood, Mrs. L. O. Penland, Medford, and Mrs. George Bourne, Phoenix.

Six-year awards went to Mrs. Owen Kunkel, Mrs. R. W. Gray, and Mrs. Paul Haviland, and seven-year awards to Mrs. Clifton Friend and Mrs. Sam Jennings.

Receiving eight-year awards were Mrs. Jack James, Phoenix; Mrs. Jack Sanborn, who was a member of the first troop in Medford, Mrs. Robert Herriott and Mrs. George Ice.

Nine-year awards went to Mrs. John Carter, Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. William Meyers and Mrs. Al Cararra. Mrs. Margaret Eakin and Mrs. Alan Jewett received 10-year awards and Mrs. Ruth Acord, a 13-year award.

Topping the list was Mrs. John Russell, who has been registered in scouting for 19 years.

Other leaders, assistant leaders, troop committee chairmen and neighborhood chairmen were not given special recognition but have had from one to four years registered membership.

Mrs. George Ice, Medford's chairman, presided and the colors were presented by Christine Prentice, Cassie Thompson and Sandra Jewett of Troop 151, led by Mrs. Richard Finch.

Scout songs were led by Miss Mary Aldrich and Mrs. William Baker, scout executives.

Three Daughters Are Candidates

Washington — (U.P.) — Battle lines formed today for a hot political fight next year for the top post in the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Miss Gertrude S. Carraway's three-year term in that post expires next year.

The hopeful candidates are Mrs. J. De Forest Richards, Chicago, present treasurer general; Mrs. Thomas Henry Lee, Roxboro, Pa., present recording secretary general; and Mrs. Charles Carroll Haig, district of Columbia, present president of the Children of the American Revolution.

A Tribute To The ROTARY CLUB

Wednesday evening the Medford Rotary club will join with other Oregon Rotary clubs in a state-wide salute to their organization, marked by a radio hook-up of many state radio stations. This event is part of an almost world-wide celebration of the 50th Anniversary of Rotary, International.

Rotary has become a powerful force for world peace, through close association of thousands of clubs in all countries outside the Iron Curtain. On a local level, clubs seek to advance civic betterment and support youth activities, building a better world from the grass roots.

The world needs more organizations such as Rotary, with "Service Above Self" the guide to unselfish and useful public service. We hope that the next half-century sees the growth of world-wide Rotary and all it stands for!

Christian Work In India Topic Of Missionary

Guests from Grants Pass and Ashland joined with the Ruth Esther Wesleyan Service guild of First Methodist church here for a potluck dinner Tuesday evening, April 19.

The Rev. Raymond E. Balcomb explained the principles of the Social Creed of the Methodist church to the group.

Miss Laura Heist, a missionary who has served many years in India, was the guest speaker of the evening. She told of the Christian work in India, and spoke of the leaders of India and of their attitudes toward the missionaries. Miss Heist, who wore a sari, gave a demonstration of how to drape a sari, and displayed a number of these, telling how the colors are matched.

Miss Heist brought out that the caste system is not as strong as it was and though outlawed, works in about the same manner as our own non-segregation laws. The main immediate result, she explained, is that it opened the wells for community water to the untouchables and opened the temples. The temples are not attended, however, by many of the lower castes because they still are unwanted by the higher castes.

Seven out of 10 people are dependent on the land, Miss Heist said.

"India has not learned to work as a cooperative group as yet," the speaker said, "and though they do work well together on the family level, they do not think on a community or world level," she added.

"They need food but tractors are of no help to them, because of the smallness of their fields. Research is being done on a compromise plow which will cultivate deeper than their small ones but are not as heavy as our large ones," Miss Heist said.

More acreage is now under cultivation than ever before as the result of dams America has helped build, but actually it was a Japanese who taught them how to successfully raise rice, the speaker explained.

Of interest here is the fact that Christmas seals now are sold in India.

Mrs. Bernice Kunzman conducted the devotions. The potluck supper was in charge of Mrs. Rex Note assisted by Mrs. C. C. Proctor, Mrs. William Sweet, and Mrs. M. McGrew.

Meat Bill Revived By House

By FRANCES LITRELL

To our delight and surprise House Bill 99 (on meat inspection) has again escaped the ax, and today it was again referred to the ways and means committee. This time they are asking for $75,000 for its operation and enforcement. The meat industry has consented to match that amount for the cause. This will provide what is called a pilot program with spot inspection crews over the state. So the "old girl" still has a pulse, even though it's weak, there's still hope.

The tax program is now in the Senate's tax committee where it's having a more rugged time than it had in the House tax committee.

The fabulous "timber party" was held in the Legion hall last Friday evening. A. A. "Tony" Lausmann was up for the occasion, he being one of its sponsors and supporters.

This is the time when the press and the legislative members begin to talk of who will run again and for what office next time.

At this point there's a friendly race between Rep. Loren Stewart of Cottage Grove and Rep. Ed Cardwell of Sweet Home for the position of speaker of the House for the 57th session.

In the Senate the top contenders for the presidency are Senator Paul Geddes and Senator Warren Gill. And then there have been many of the legislative members mentioned as potential candidates for a few of the top state offices. In fact, it's practically a call of the house for both the Senate and the House.

And yesterday it had gotten down to a call of the secretaries and even Frances Litrell was on one list as a potential for the House of Representatives. Tomorrow the pages will no doubt be included in some one's list. Now you know why this legislative body is referred to as the most congenial legislature yet. No one is ever left out—just every one is included in everything.

Very little social activity these days. Everyone is just too busy with the tasks at hand.

Junior High PTA Sets Installation

Junior High School Parent-Teacher association will hold the final meeting of the school year in the girls' gymnasium of the school Thursday, April 27, at 7:30 p. m.

Installation of officers for the coming year will be held and the program for the evening will be an explanation of the activities and curriculum of junior high school. Parents of students entering the school this fall are urged to attend as the students' counselors will explain registration procedures and subjects offered.

Parents of ninth grade students entering high school in September will have an opportunity to meet their child's counselor. Refreshments and social hour are planned.

Large plastic fruit and vegetable bags make excellent rainy-day covers for children's schoolbooks.
