Fire Truck Involved In Portland Mishap

Portland — (U.P.) — A fire truck and a car collided here Friday and fire department Capt. Noel Lawrence was hospitalized with possible head and back injuries.

The car was nearly demolished. The driver, Donald L. Hyde, 23, Portland, was not hurt.

The fire truck was rushing to answer a fire call which turned out to be false.

TO OPEN BIDS

Lapine, Ore. — (U.P.) — Bids for construction of 43 miles of transmission line from the Lapine substation to the Fort Rock substation will be opened here May 5 in the office of Midstate Electric Cooperative, Inc. The contract calls for completion of the job in 90 days. Robert Welty of The Dalles is consulting engineer for the job.

BILL APPROVED

Salem — (U.P.) — A bill to abolish the Battleship Oregon commission was approved Saturday by the Joint Ways and Means committee and sent to the House for action. The measure included a $3000 appropriation of the commission's affairs in Portland, including closure of its museum.

$12 BILLION CANCER COST

Our nation will have about 500,000 new cancer cases this year, the American Cancer Society estimates. That means a loss of 3,500,000 man years of work, and will cost society $12,000,000,000 in lost goods and services.

BEWARE THE BAD TONSIL OBSESSION

DOC BRADY—stg hed I doubt whether any doctor who finds a child's tonsils enlarged at this time of year can foretell that the tonsils will not shrink by the end of summer if the child gets a fair break in the way of outdoor play for hours every day.

The ever-ready operator who attempts to "get every bit of tonsil" doesn't always know just what he is getting, for he must work more or less blindly because of the blood covered field.

Examination of what was removed in 1,000 tonsillectomies showed, besides tonsil and adenoid (lymphoid) tissue, portions of throat muscle in several instances. Good surgeons and throat specialists had performed the operations and a pathologist of standing made the microscopic examinations. The revealing report, which appeared in JAMA, should make any person who uses his or her voice professionally hesitate to submit to tonsillectomy.

After all, it is understandable that even a good surgeon, dissecting away in a gory field, should occasionally remove a piece of throat muscle in his eagerness to "get every bit of tonsil."

If you think about the tonsil problem it is important to distinguish as clearly as possible infected tonsils from enlarged tonsils.

The tonsils of growing children are usually enlarged in the winter and spring, if the children are cooped up indoors most of the time or too much bundled up when they are permitted to play outdoors. Provided tonsil snappers do not catch the children at the season when their tonsils are enlarged, generally the tonsils will shrink to their normal summer size before school opens next autumn.

Some children with enlarged tonsils have repeated feverish illnesses through the winter season, with or without soreness of the throat. "Colds." Some doctors, consulted about these recurring illnesses, decide the "bad tonsils are responsible and arbitrarily sentence the child to tonsillectomy.

Oh, of course the doctors do not tell parents honestly that they are just guessing that removal of the tonsils may do some good. They merely opine that the child will probably continue having "colds" until those bad tonsils are taken out. That's enough to get the consent of the parents.

In 2,200 Rochester, N. Y., school children who were subjected to tonsillectomy, out of 4,400 for whom the operation was advised by physicians, 22 per cent were still subject to repeated "colds" ten years later. Of the other 2,200 children, who were not subjected to the operation the doctors had advised, 31 per cent were still subject to repeated "colds" ten years later. Does the difference justify subjecting children to this dangerous major operation? I think not.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS
Not Clear
What to do for a complexion which is not very clear. Pimples—youth man of 17 years. (Mrs. C. W.)

Answer—So that's what "clear complexion" means—no pimples! Correspondents have kept me guessing about it for many years. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for the pamphlet on ACNE—blackheads and pimples. Remember, most normal healthy boys and girls have more or less acne.

How to Gain Weight
A thousand books and magazine articles tell how to lose weight but—ever dictors just laugh at me when I ask how I can gain weight.

(Mrs. T. C. H.)
Answer—An old dodge, laughing at the customer when you have no idea what she wants him or what to do about it. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for pamphlet HOW TO GAIN WEIGHT. I'd like to suggest here one sure-fire way for anyone to get on 15 pounds in year, but a lot of—im afraid some readers would follow the suggestion in reverse to reduce.

Los Angeles Firm To Seek Oil Near Astoria

Astoria — (U.P.) — The Thomas Pike company of Los Angeles will start exploratory drilling for oil or natural gas in the Lewis and Clark valley near here next Tuesday, according to company officials.

Fourteen truckloads of drilling equipment from Los Angeles have arrived at the drilling site six miles southwest of here.

The venture is by Standard Oil Company of California with natural gas the primary objective.
