Annual Girls' League Week Opens Today at High School

One of the most important events of the year for girls at Medford Senior High school is the annual Girls' League week, which opened today. "And Away We Go" is the theme of the 1955 week.

Miss Sue DeVoe, president of Girls' league, is general chairman, assisted by Miss Pat Read, treasurer, and Mrs. Ryder Berg, faculty advisor.

Events of the week are big and little sister day Tuesday, "slack" day Wednesday, the annual mother-daughter tea Thursday and cotton and cord day Friday.

Also planned each year during Girls' League week is the annual art display of work by students and this will be held in the girls' gymnasium.

The Misses Sue Donna Doolen and Meredith Huggins are chairmen in charge of the big and little sister day, and Miss Jane Killingsworth is chairman of the tea, with Mrs. Hockersmith as faculty advisor. Miss Nancy Greaves is chairman of invitations, with the Misses Marilyn Ison and Gloria Haggard assisting. Miss Cynthia Hunt is chairman in charge of the fashion show skit, with Mrs. Ed McKinstry as faculty advisor, and Misses Florence Sprague and Arlene Rasmussen are on the clean-up committee for the fashion show.

Miss Jean Alley will take charge of decorations for the tea, and Misses Rosie Johnson and Nellie Rawlings are in charge of the cleanup committee for the tea.

Miss Pat Leek is chairman in charge of planning a program for the big and little sister day, with Misses Kathryn Gott, Joan Strowbridge, and Diana Russell assisting.

Chairman of the publicity committee is Miss Deanna Bruning, with Misses Cynthia Rukovina, Lorita Jennings, Carol Ballard, Betty Jameson, Sandra Robinson and Sheila Spence assisting with various phases.

With candy-making chocolate, you can make marvelous treats quickly. It's handy to keep, handy for impromptu entertaining or family festivities, and makes a truly delicious hot sundae sauce like this one. Heat four squares of this special chocolate over water on the top burner of your gas range; when partly melted, remove from water, stir rapidly till entirely melted, add four teaspoons butter and blend. Keep over hot water until ready to pour on ice cream.

Snow in April? Yes—because this kind is a confection, and homemade. Cut marshmallows in half, dip in melted candy-making chocolate and roll immediately in a bowl of toasted shredded coconut "snow." Cool on waxed paper, until the children come home from school!

Want the best crispy sweet potatoes you ever ate? Cook sweet potatoes, and while still warm, peel and cut into large cubes. Roll each cube in brown sugar and dried bread crumbs mixed together. Sauté in butter over the direct flame on the top burner, until they have a crisp, light brown crust.
