Largest Camp-o-ree Held by Local Scouts

The biggest Camp-o-ree in the history of Crater Lake area council, Boy Scouts of America, was held Saturday and Sunday at Agate desert on Butte creek.

The event was attended by 367 boys and leaders from Shady Cove, Gold Hill, Central Point, Jacksonville, Phoenix and Medford. Twelve Camp-o-ree directors also took part in the program.

For the first time in the history of local Camp-o-rees, every unit had at least two adult leaders taking part. Explorers from Posts 3 and 8, Squadron 14, and from some troops assisted in the judging and Camp-o-ree events direction.

Patrols winning red ribbons included: Snake, Panther and Vampire patrols of Troop 1, Medford. Flaming Arrow patrol of Troop 2, Medford. Flaming Arrow and Cougar patrols of Troop 3, Medford. Wolverine and Panther patrols of Troop 7, Medford. Daniel Boone patrol of Troop 9, Medford. Flying Eagle and Panther patrols of Troop 15, Phoenix. Bucaneer, Mohawk, Matterhorn and Wolverine patrols of Troop 35, Jacksonville. Pioneer patrol of Troop 41, Griffin Creek. Panther patrol of Troop 46, Shady Cove.

Patrols receiving yellow ribbons were: Beaver patrol of Troop 2, Medford. Bob White patrol of Troop 5, Medford. Beaver and Apache patrols of Troop 6, Medford. Eagle patrol of Troop 7, Medford. Panther, Wolverine, Stag, Beaver, Flaming Arrow and Pine Tree patrols of Troop 8, Medford. Flying Eagle, Panther and Flaming Arrow patrols of Troop 43, Gold Hill. Crocodile patrol of Troop 46, Shady Cove.

Scout officials reported that the Camp-o-ree was "one of the best ever held here," with good camps, close judging and a lot of enthusiasm.

Scouts put on stunts at the Saturday evening campfire.

Blue ribbon winning patrols included: Flying Eagle and

Three Floats Receive Sweepstakes Awards

Three floats won $50 grand sweepstakes awards in the annual Pear Blossom Festival parade held here Saturday, it was announced this morning. The prizes earlier were announced at $25 each.

Grand sweepstakes winners were those entered by the Medford Lady Lions, for best design; Royal Neighbors of America, for best theme portrayal and originality and Medford Jaycees, for best comic float.

The crowd watching the parade was estimated at 10,000 people. It was the largest on record for Medford.

Music for the marchers was furnished by the Medford senior and junior high school bands and by Bliss Heine's Juniors. Police officers and members of the sheriff's posse handled the crowd, and Junior Chamber of Commerce members helped form up the parade on South Fir st., a small task, for the colorful, jammed up floats and marchers, when finally they got under way, stretched all the way from the Fir and Main sts. to Hawthorne park, where the parade disassembled, and the prizes were awarded.

Here are the other prizewinners, reported by divisions, as listed by the parade committee.

Division 1, commercial — first ($25), Eve Prentice Accordion band; second ($15), Al Krause, Union Oil dealer.

Division 2, organizational — first ($25), Moose and Women of Moose; second ($15), Phoenix Garden club; third ($10), Medford Police department's P.A.L.

Division 3, individual floats — first ($25), George Schuler and 11 youngsters; second ($15), Krista Baker; third ($10), Scott and Thomas Hampson and Larry Sorun.

Walking Groups
Division 4, costumed walking groups — first ($10), John Pierce; second ($5), Debbie and Glennie Rader; third ($2.50), Lincoln school Girl Scouts.

Division 5, decorated vehicles — first ($10), David Doty; second ($5), Scott McDonald; third ($2.50), Deanna Hukill.

First float in the parade was the one carrying the queen and princesses of the festival. The little queen, Marilyn Denning, received a big trophy, and the four members of her court each were presented with bracelets.

Two Factions of Yank-Russ Juncture Schedule Reunions

Washington (UPI) — Two groups of American veterans scheduled separate celebrations today to commemorate the anniversary of the historic World War II juncture of American and Soviet forces on the Elbe river in Germany 10 years ago.

The two groups differed, however, as to whether Russian plans to celebrate the occasion are sincere.

One group, the American Veterans of the Elbe River Link-up, voted to accept an offer of Russian Army officers to attend an "Elbe river reunion" in Moscow next month.

Its members planned to ask the State Department today for advice and permission to go.

Criticize Russians
This group scheduled an evening celebration and said Gen. Charles L. Bolte, Army vice chief of staff, and Sen. Ralph E. Flanders (R-Vt.) would address their gathering.

The other group, "The Elbe National Veterans Committee," sharply criticized Russian plans for a reunion of Americans and Russians who were present when forces of the two wartime allies met at the Elbe.

This group planned a ceremony just off the Senate Chamber today with Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Senate Democratic Leader, Lyndon B. Johnson, and other senators scheduled to attend.

Accept Invitation
Joseph Polowsky, secretary of the "American Veterans of the Elbe River Link-up," originally invited Russian veterans of the famous meeting of the two allies to come here for a reunion. Nine Russian officers accepted the invitation.

However, Polowsky received a note from the Russians Saturday saying they plan to celebrate in Moscow. They invited the American veterans to join them there.
