

NCAA PLACES OKLAHOMA ON PROBATION FOR TWO YEARS; CINCINNATI SUSPENDED

Chicago—(U.P.)—The university of Oklahoma, one of the nation's football giants, was on two years probation today as the National Collegiate Athletic association handed out some of the stiffest infraction penalties on record.

The University of Cincinnati was handed a one-year suspension but that included a ban on its team participating in national championships.

Three other smaller universities were reprimanded by the NCAA.

Oklahoma was accused of offering prospective student-athletes "cost free education" after their eligibility had expired, of paying medical expenses for wives and children of athletes and with providing other fringe benefits, in the form of cash, clothes and even the cost of a rented automobile.

Too Much Aid
Cincinnati coaches were accused of offering aid exceeding that permitted by the university and NCAA rules. The NCAA also alleged that Cincinnati conducted tryouts for players, that work at off-campus jobs provided athletics was not performed.

The University of Dayton, Bethune-Cookman College and Virginia Union University were reprimanded.

Bethune-Cookman College and Virginia Union were penalized for playing in the Tropical Bowl football game at Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 12, 1953, on the grounds it was not certified by the NCAA.

The penalty against Dayton was for trying out at least two prospective athletes on the campus. It said the Dayton basketball coach conducted a clinic involving participation of prospective athletes, thus making the program "a tryout in fact, if not in intent."

Salem Licks Eugene 13-3

By UNITED PRESS
The Northwest League, a new baseball circuit, opened play last night but some old, familiar names highlighted the evening's play.

John Conant, veteran Western International league hurler, tossed four-hit ball as the Spokane Indians topped Lewiston 5-1 at Lewiston. Conant also helped out with a run-scoring sacrifice fly and a one-run single in the eighth.

At Salem, the Salem Senators had things easy in notching a 13-3 decision over Eugene.

Dapper Homers

Salem got two runs in the third without the benefit of a base hit and added seven more in the fourth on six walks and two errors. The Senators got three more in the sixth on two singles and two doubles and added a final marker in the eighth.

Cliff Dapper, Eugene manager, homered in the fourth with the sacks empty.

Ted Edmunds of Yakima, a 19-year winner in the WIL last year, got off on the right foot as he pitched Yakima to a 5-4 verdict over Wenatchee in Yakima's home opener. The Bears got the eventual winning run in the fifth on two walks and a single after tallying four runs in the third.

Jim Telfer Has ABC Second Spot

Fort Wayne, Ind.—(U.P.)—Jim Telfer, 19-year-old Wayne University student, went into second place in the all-events standings in the American Bowling Congress last night with a total of 1964 pins.

Telfer's score is just 29 less than all-events leader Fred Buja, also of Detroit.

A squad of boosters and one open division squad also took to the lanes. A Pontiac, Mich., team, Sam Benson's, turned in the best effort, a 2,812 team effort. But the figure was far short of the 3,000 pins needed to crash the first ten.

Meanwhile, Brad Lewis, Ashland, Ohio, last year's all-events champion, had to be content with a 1,746 all-events total. He rolled a series of 552, 576 and 618. Pfeiffer's Beer of Detroit continued as the team leader with a 3,136 total, a figure which probably will stand up for the duration of the tourney.

dent George L. Cross and Coach Bud Wilkinson said they considered the NCAA report a "vindication" of the school's athletic policies.

They said the report failed to show "that we are guilty of any flagrant recruiting practices named in the original allegation."

The NCAA found them "guilty of the NCAA interpretation of the NCAA rules," their statement said.

Terry Wins For Oregon; WSC Victor

Eugene—(U.P.)—After five straight rain-outs, the University of Oregon Ducks came up with a 2-0 baseball victory over Idaho yesterday.

Both teams were bound to go through with the opener, despite showers and even snow which fell in the fifth inning.

Oregon second baseman Jimmy Johnson scored on an overthrow from centerfield in the fourth and Webfoot Pete Williams also scored in the fourth on a long fly by Neal Marlett.

Terry Maddox got credit for the win and Aubrey Stephens of Idaho took the loss. Oregon collected five hits to Idaho's four.

Washington State's Cougars were late starters in the Northern Division baseball race but they've gotten off at a fast clip and top the five-team circuit with a perfect 2-0 slate.

The Cougars took Washington 8-4 in 10 innings in Seattle yesterday for their second victory in as many days over the Huskies. The Cougars pushed across four runs in the 10th frame to notch the victory.

Oregon has a 1-0 mark. Washington is 4-2. Oregon State has yet to play and Idaho has lost five straight without a victory.

Art Larsen Says USLTA Too Hasty

Florence, Italy—(U.P.)—Former U.S. tennis champion, Art Larsen hoped today that his suspension would be lifted in time to let him play in the Rome tennis championships, and he received strong backing from Italian tennis officials.

The 30-year-old Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., who resigned as U.S. champion in 1950, was temporarily suspended by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association on Monday because of reports reaching the United States that Larsen had angrily batted a ball at a ball boy during a tournament last week in Genoa.

Larsen said the reports were "greatly exaggerated" and said he thought the USLTA acted "hastily" in suspending him before checking with the Italian Tennis Federation.

Larsen's hope of quick reinstatement was backed by Enrico Piccardi, secretary of the Italian Tennis federation, and by officials of the Genoa tournament.

Chapman Geared In Tourney Bid

Pinehurst, N.C.—(U.P.)—Dick Chapman, who has won the U.S. and British amateur golf championships but never the North and South tournament on his home course here, seemed geared for an all-out bid for the elusive title today as his tourney entered its second round.

The lanky Chapman played some of the best golf seen in Tuesday's first round of match play as he ousted Frank Meacham of Roanoke Rapids, N.C., 7 and 6.

Chapman showed the keenness of his game by firing a two-under-par 34 on the first nine, and then paring the next three holes to close out the match. Today the Pinehurst star was matched against Pat Foy Brady of Reidsville, N.C.

CARNEY CHOSEN

Bert Harr, Squaw lake resort owner, has advised fishermen against trying to get into the lake for a few days.

The road into the lake is in bad condition, he reported. Snow has been falling and some sunshine will be needed to melt the snow and permit use of a grader on the road.

Fishing season opens at the lake on Saturday, April 30, date of the start of the general trout season throughout the state.

Crater Tops Eagles in Track Meet

Central Point—Crater high's Comets, taking firsts or tying for firsts in all but one event, defeated Eagle Point 87 to 30 yesterday in a track meet at Eagle Point.

Frank Reich, winning the 100-yard dash in 10.8, took the only clear cut first for the Eagles but he knotted for top honors in the high jump and Gale Friend deadlocked with Crater boys in the pole vault.

There were no double winners although several thinclads tied for top honors Reich shared top points with Bib Johnston and Don Von Buskirk. Crater, All had 5-foot 10-inch jumps. In the vault Don Govette and Don Breazeale, Crater, and Friend, went 10-3.

Knob in Hurdles
Von Buskirk and Cliff Cordy, Crater, ran the high hurdles in a 16.3 dead heat. Cordy won the half-mile in 2:17.

Other Crater victories were Dick Hamilton 22.8 in the low hurdles; Johnston 51-5 in the shot put; Jack Lilly 140-6 in the discus; George Juveland 23 in the 220-yard race; Gene McGonagle 149-8 in the javelin; Bob Mason 18-10 in the broad jump; Richard Gustafson 5:01 in the mile, and Don Hubbard :57 in the quarter-mile.

The relay was called off because of snowfall.

Grants Pass Cavemen Nip Crater on Diamond 4 to 3

Central Point—Jay Reese squeezed Chuck Nevi home with the winning run in the second extra inning yesterday as the Grants Pass Cavemen nipped Crater high 4 to 3 in a non-loop baseball fray at Grants Pass.

The Cavemen got only two scratch hits off Comet Pitcher Kay Kelley. However, Kelley walked three men and all three of them tallied.

Crater collected all three of its markers in the third canto. Grants Pass gained a single run in the fifth inning and tied the count with two runs when they were desperately needed—in the bottom of the seventh.

The clubs went scoreless in the first extra frame, the eighth, and Crater failed to dent home plate in the top of the ninth. Nevi drew a walk in the bottom of the ninth for GP. Wayne Moreland got an infield hit and both runners advanced on a passed ball. That set the stage for Reese's bunt. There was only one out when the winning run crossed.

Parent Doubts

In the Comets big inning Harold Leffer reached the base paths on an error, Kelley and Fred Herrmann socked singles and Tonn got a base on balls. Then Vern Parent lashed a double, only extra base hit of the afternoon.

Grants Pass in the fifth used a walk, error and Delbert Oden's

Bob Lemon Tosses 4th Victory In 3-2 Nod Over Nats; Turley Throws First One-Hit Fracas

By CARL LUNDQUIST

United Press Sports Writer
If Cleveland's other pitchers could approach the early season brilliance of Bob Lemon, the Indians not only would be a good bet to win the pennant again but they might top their record 1954 total of 111 victories.

Lemon, with four straight victories, is off to the finest start of his 10-year pitching career with the Indians. But unless some of their other heralded hurlers get in the groove shortly, there may be trouble ahead.

At the moment, Lemon is the only Cleveland pitcher who has won more games than he has lost. Mike Garcia is 1-2 and the other member of the big three, Early Wynn, has been laid up with influenza and hasn't even started yet. Rookie Herb Score and Art Houtteman are each at 1-1 and Bobby Feller is 0-1 with a defeat in his only start.

Lemon personally made sure of his fourth triumph against Washington Tuesday, winning a nine-hitter, 3-2, on the margin of his fourth inning homer. Bobby Avila also hit a Cleveland homer. Losing pitcher Mickey McDermott gave up only five hits but walked eight. Both he and Lemon struck out six.

McDermott made three hits and stole a base.

Early Start
Lemon never previously managed to win his fourth game until well into May. Last year he was 4-0 on May 5. His best start prior to that was in 1952 when he was 4-2 on May 17. In 1949 and 1950, he was 4-2 on May 20. In 1953, he was 4-4 on May 23 and in 1951 he didn't win No. 4 until May 29 when he was 4-5. In 1949, when he was injured he went until June 8 to win his fourth game. He was 4-1 then.

The Yankees gained another superb pitching effort from Bob Turley, who pitched a one-hitter, the first in the majors this season, subduing the White Sox, 5-0, for his third straight victory. He struck out 10 batters and missed his no-hitter when Sherman Lollar singled with two out in the second inning. Turley also walked nine but stranded seven men on base.

In other American League games, Detroit edged Baltimore 3-2 when Al Kaline broke up the game with a leadoff homer in the ninth and Kansas City defeated Boston, 8-7, in 11 innings when Jim Finigan singled home the winning run after Joe Astor had tripped.

Antonelli Beats Braves
Lefty Johnny Antonelli struck out nine Braves and gave up upon three hits in a 3-2 game triumph over his old mates from Milwaukee. The Giants picked up only five hits but bunched four singles with a walk off Bob Buhl in the first inning for all of their runs. Buhl gave up another hit in the second inning but thereafter he and relievers Dave Jolly and Warren Spahn pitched hitless ball.

All other National League games were rained out.

Kaline, who now has five homers for the season, also has hit safely in 11 consecutive games for Detroit. Ned Garver scattered 10 hits to win his second game.

Finigan previously had hit a three run homer, his fourth of the year, for Kansas City while Vic Power also connected for a round-tripper. Sammy White and Norm Zaichin hit Boston homers.

Bill Skowron, now batting .438 with 17 runs driven in, furnished Turley with three runs batted in, one on his fourth homer, in the Yankee triumph.

Battling snow flurries as well as the Grizzlies, Medford high's Black Tornado whipped Ashland 6 to 1 yesterday in a Southern Oregon Conference and district baseball fracas at Ashland.

The win put Medford even with Grants Pass in conference standings. Each is unbeaten in four games. Medford will be out to pull ahead of GP in the games won column Thursday when it has its fourth and final brush in the circuit with Ashland. The scuffle will be on the Tornado's diamond at 3:30 p.m.

Medford got its runs in the second, fourth, fifth and seventh stanzas and the Grizzlies picked up their lone tally in the concluding frame.

For a singleton in the second panel for Medford, Paul Eckel and Larry Guber got on base on errors and Jim Owsley walked. Then Ed McCullough brought Eckel home with a squeeze bunt. McCullough also batted in a lone marker in the fourth inning. After Guber singled and Owsley walked, Terry King advanced them with a sacrifice. Guber raced home after the catch of McCullough's long fly.

In the fifth stanza, Frank Rector, who has just joined the squad, got a base on balls and stole second. Dick McLaughlin got on base on an error. He attempted to swipe second and was caught but the play enabled Rector to tally. Loren Jacobs then singled. He went to second base when Pitcher Mark Fitch threw past first base on a pick-off try. Eckel hit safely to score Jacobs.

For the final two runs in the seventh for the Tornado, Jacobs walked, Eckel tripled to left field and Guber smacked a line single to the left pasture.

For Ashland in the seventh, Jack Eberhart singled and moved ahead on Lance Locke's ground out. Jack Lake got on base on an error on which Eberhart scored.

McCullough, pitching for Medford, yielded four hits. He didn't walk a man but was charged with one wild pitch. He whiffed seven batters. Fitch fanned five
