Portland (U.P.)—Portland and Sacramento traded shutouts here yesterday as the Beavers downed the Sacs in the night game 1-0. In the first game Sacramento won by the same score over Portland.

Some 2100 chilly fans watched righthander Bob Hall and Sacramento's Ed Cereghino in a battle of control in the night contest.

Portland broke through in the bottom of the third inning when Frankie Austin walked. Dick Whitman then sacrificed to send him to second and big Ed Michelson singled him home.

The pitchers fought it out under the lights until the eighth when the Solons put in Bud Daley. Sacramento gave up nine hits to the Bevos while collecting five.

Third Win
 The game was Hall's third win against two losses and Cereghino's second loss against one win.

In the first game the Sacs shut out Portland with Pitcher Marino Pieretti holding the Bevos to five hits.

The day's game was called an "umbrella opener," but 1,500 fans sat in the sunshine for a change to watch the Solons win their ball game with a first-inning run.

A pre-game Beaver parade through downtown Portland also went off without a drop. But the cold held down attendance.

Jack Tobin singled to right field in the first frame, went on to second on Leo Thomas' infield out, and scored on a single to right by Nippy Jones.

From then on, it was a pitching duel between Pieretti and Red Adams.

Insurance Plans Can Block Social Medicine

San Francisco (U.P.)—Depressions have brought on socialized medicine in many European countries but America's voluntary hospital insurance plans can block such a result in this country, a California hospital executive said today.

In a speech to the annual conference of the Western Hospital Association, George U. Wood said his study of European state medical programs showed they all had a common origin—depressions.

Wood, executive vice president of Peralta Hospital in Oakland, said socialism took over in the medical field "in times of industrial unemployment, when large numbers of people needed medical care and could not afford to buy it."
