

Family Returns From California

Mr. and Mrs. John Dellenback, 143 South Keeneway drive, returned Monday from a 10-day trip to California. They were accompanied by their sons, Richard and David. En route south they visited an aunt of Mr. Dellenback who lives at Carmel, and at Los Angeles they were with his brother, Lt. Cmdr. Robert J. Dellenback, and Mrs. Dellenback. He is a member of the Navy staff at the North American aviation offices there.

At La Jolla, Calif., they visited his mother, Mrs. William Dellenback.

HARD OF HEARING

Detroit—(U.P.)—Police said today they believed the owner of a 500 pound cast iron bell found in an alley must be a hard-of-hearing truck driver. The bell, complete with clapper, apparently fell from a truck when it hit a rut in the alley.

Medical Masseurs Meet Monday Night

Southern Oregon chapter of Oregon State Association of Medical Masseurs met Monday at the home of Mrs. Margaret Compagnoni, 919 Queen Anne avenue.

Mrs. Kathleen Allingham, Medford, president, conducted a business meeting and study hour. Following the close of the meeting the hostess served refreshments.

Club to See Film Saturday Evening

Jacksonville—A film, "America for Me," will be shown by Conger-Morris staff members at a meeting of the Jacksonville Presbyterian church 20-80 club Saturday evening, after the group has met at 6:30 p.m. at the church rooms for a potluck dinner. All members are invited to take friends to both the dinner and the program.

Name Speaker For Festival

Dr. G. Burton Wood, head of agriculture economics at Oregon State college, will be the main speaker for the Jackson County Homemaker' festival to be held at Central Point Grange hall Thursday, May 5. His topic will be "Your Dollars and Cents."

Miss Mary Routh, new clothing specialist of Oregon State college, will be the representative from the college.

C. M. Ferguson, administrator of the federal extension service, has announced that the tenth National Home Demonstration week will be observed throughout the nation May 1-7. Jackson county extension units will participate by holding their annual Homemakers' Festival during that week.

Exhibits of work completed by the members of the units will be on display in Central Point Legion hall during the festival. Entertainment provided by extension unit members will include skits, a trio, songs and a pantomime.

The festival opens with registration at 9:30. The program will begin at 10:30 a.m. and will continue until about 3 p.m.

Chicago—(U.P.)—The Anti-Cruelty Society will present mailman Raymond Collins with a "kindness award" for saving a dog. Collins has been bitten by dogs five times.

Mrs. Betty Lou Dunlop

League to Hear Mrs. Dunlop Talk On Education.

Mrs. Betty Lou Dunlop will be the speaker at the annual meeting of the League of Women Voter's luncheon, Saturday, April 30, at 12:30 p.m., in the Medford hotel.

Mrs. Dunlop, an instructor at Southern Oregon college and a recently announced winner of the $1500 graduate fellowship awarded triennially by the Oregon branch, American Association of University Women, will present the six phases of education which are to be considered at a series of conferences on the local, state and national level to culminate in the White House conference in late fall of this year.

At this meeting, election of officers will be held and reports will be given by the chairmen of the various committees that have carried out the years activity program.

In May the last general meeting of the year will be held, following the state League convention in Eugene.

Reservations for Saturdays luncheon can be made by calling Mrs. Nick DeWitt, 2-5640. Anyone interested in attending is welcome and invited.
