What's the sentiment toward holding an umpires' school in this area? Such a school has been suggested by Donald E. Faber, president of the Southern Oregon Baseball League. According to the plan, classes would be held possibly a couple of nights a week for several weeks. All men interested in officiating jobs would be invited to the classes. Faber reports that a retired doctor of Ashland attended Pacific Coast League umpires school this year and would be available as an instructor. Persons interested in an umpires' school should inform this department. That way it can be determined whether attendance would be sufficient to make the program worthwhile.

TOURNEY SUGGESTED

Still appears that the Medford Softball association will not be organized for regular league play this summer. Several groups, from what we've heard, would like to field teams and even plan to. But no person or persons have appeared who are both available and willing to handle the details of operating the circuit. That's the main reason for failure to organize. However, the matter of league financing figures also as a deterrent.

We suggest that, if no league play develops, a tournament should be held in the late summer. It could be an invitational affair and some service club or civic or fraternal group looking for a project could sponsor it. Such a tourney would not necessarily have to be held in Medford. Perhaps the project would appeal to groups in Central Point, Eagle Point and Talent where there are lighted fields.

GAME MEN ADVISE

Oregon's general trout angling season begins on Saturday and the State Game Commission has some words of advice. A release this week states:

"When you're out fishing take time to meditate and remember future fishing depends on your conduct. True there are 300,000 other anglers, but in the eyes of the landowner you are all of them rolled into one. . . . You hold the key to future fishing. Respect for regulations and the rights of others will unlock the door for years to come."

The Commission points out that Oregon fishermen are fortunate, for the state, unlike many others, still has miles of unpolluted streams and clear mountain lakes. Also, the variety of fish offered the angler here is as wide as in any state of the Union, the commission mentions.

"Whether this fishing continues, depends largely upon the anglers themselves," the release states. "Past acts of vandalism and disrespect for the rights of others have closed segments of Oregon's fishing waters to the general public. Disregard for the regulations set up by the Oregon State Game Commission also jeopardizes future fish crops and consequently future fishing."

REGATTA JUNE 5

Western Speedboat association now has set Sunday, June 5, as date for their regatta at Emigrant lake. Usually held in April, the event has been delayed this year by low level of water in the reservoir. The WSA once had set an early May date but the reservoir now is holding just a bit more than half its capacity.

College of Idaho Given Confidence Vote by League

Portland — (U.P.)—College of Idaho, recently criticized for overemphasis of athletics, was given a full vote of confidence yesterday at a meeting here of the Northwest Conference presidents' council.

Dr. Harry C. Dillon of Linfield, council chairman, said "we are sure the school's new president, Dr. Tom Shearer, will follow our philosophy and regulations in regard to athletics."

The decision conference was made at a closed meeting at which the Coyotes' status was considered "more in the light of the future than the past, according to Dr. Dillon.

Campbell, Smith In Semi-Finals

Pinehurst, N.C. — (U.P.)—Walker Cup Captain Bill Campbell plays Ed Gravely and medalist Dave Smith meets Don Bisplinghoff today in the semi-finals of the North and South men's amateur golf tournament with Campbell and Smith favored to reach the finals.

Campbell, of Huntington, W. Va., gained a 2 to 1 victory over 1954 North and South finalist Alex Welsh of Rockford, Ill., Thursday, while Smith finally downed Dale Morey of Indianapolis, one-up on the 21st hole with a four-foot birdie putt.

Gravely, an unsung Tar Heel star from Rocky Mount, N.C., played brilliantly for the third straight day to oust Ed Meister of Willoughby, Ohio, 4 and 2. Bisplinghoff, three-time Florida State amateur champion from Orlando, Fla., moved in front on the 12th hole and went on to defeat Glenn Johnson of Grosse Isle, Mich., 2 and 1.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday; 1 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

Eagle Point Winner 8-5 Over Phoenix

Eagle Point — Eagle Point high defeated Phoenix 8 to 5 here yesterday in a Rogue League baseball game.

The game was moved up from evening to afternoon because of the weather situation. The Eagles and Pirates were playing at Phoenix this afternoon instead of Saturday as originally slated. Both schools are entered Saturday night in the Rogue River invitational track meet.

Other scraps in the Rogue circuit this week end are Crater at Illinois Valley today and IV at Crater on Saturday.

Yesterday's win gave Eagle Point a twin-win two-loss situation in the circuit while the Phoenix record was one win in four tries.

Bill Caldwell hit two for three yesterday for the Eagles while Carl Christian and Bob Stewart had two for four. Christian tripled in the first inning to drive in two runs. Bill Madden swatted two for four for Phoenix while Ron Bean got a two-bagger.

Caldwell, on the hill for EP, fanned eight batters and walked four.

Grissom held St. Louis to three hits in 2 2-3 innings to save Jim Hearn's third victory.

Four Cardinal errors gave the Giants two unearned runs. Stan Musial hit a St. Louis homer. Don Mueller's two hits gave him the National League batting lead with a .404 mark.

Delock pitched hitless ball for six innings in his triumph over Chicago. Faye Throneberry paced Boston with a triple, double, and single, raising his batting average to .412.

The Yankees made 13 hits including a two-run homer by Mickey Mantle to top the Athletics before 32,559 fans, largest crowd ever to see a sports event at Kansas City. Vic Power homered for the losers.

Little Ed Winceniak and Steve Bilko smashed homers to account for all of the Angel runs and hoist the team's four-bagger total to 28, tops in the Pacific Coast League.

The biggest Wrigley field crowd of the year, 10,326, saw Winceniak give Los Angeles a 1-0 lead in the third by clouting one of Bob Garber's (1-3) offerings over the left field fence. It was his fourth homer of the season.

Then in the sixth, Bilko powered one out of the park with Gene Mauch and Buzz Clarkson aboard to assure Bob Zick of his first win after one defeat. It was Steve's seventh circuit clout and gave him the league leadership.

Hollywood's Bobby Del Greco ran his consecutive-game hitting streak to 15, a record for the Stars, with a single in the eighth inning.

Elsewhere in the PCL, San Francisco and San Diego each rallied for six runs in the ninth inning to win their games and climb to one game behind the front-running Rainiers. The Seals defeated Oakland, 9-6, and the Padres topped Seattle, 7-2.

Sacramento at Portland was rained out, with a doubleheader slated tonight.

Hoeft Hurls Tigers Into 2nd Place Tie

By CARL LUNDOQUIST
United Press Sports Writer

The softest job in the major leagues these days is being a relief pitcher for the Detroit Tigers.

In fact, the whole bullpen crew may have to apply for unemployment compensation if the Tiger starters keep up their present pace. The Detroit pitching staff, has turned in eight complete games, every one a winning effort, or more than any other team in the majors.

Thursday night, lefty Billy Hoeft pitched the Tigers to their fifth straight victory, 4-1, with a nifty six-hit effort over the Washington Senators.

Detroit, pushing into a second place tie with idle Cleveland, has won eight games and lost five. The only defeats were when the starter failed to go the distance.

The only club to challenge Detroit's complete game mark is the Yankees with seven, and one of these was a defeat. The Phillies and Red Sox have six each to rank next.

Yanks Trim A's

In other American League games, Ike Delock pitched the Red Sox to a three-hit, 3-1 triumph over Chicago and the Yankees trimmed the Athletics 11-4. Cleveland and Baltimore had an open date.

Home runs decided the outcome in three National League games. Willie Jones homered in the ninth to give Robin Roberts of the Phils a six-hit, 3-2 triumph over Milwaukee. Carl Furillo's seventh homer with two on gave Brooklyn a 4-2 win over the Cubs and Ray Jabolonski provided the victory for Cincinnati by driving in all the runs with a homer and double in a 3-2 decision at Pittsburgh.

The Giants topped the Cardinals, 6-4, as reliever Marv Grissom pitched his way out of two bases-loaded jams.

Furillo's homer, which put him nine games ahead of Babe Ruth's record pace of 1927, came after Bob Rush had pitched one hit ball for six innings and had provided both Chicago runs with a homer of his own.

Jabolonski lived up to his reputation of "good-hit, no-field." After his homer put Cincy ahead 1-0, he let in a run on a wild throw, but took himself off the book with a two-run double that gave Gerry Staley his second victory.

Jones' homer, his fourth, broke up a duel between Roberts and loser Lew Burdette, who yielded only four hits. The Milwaukee hurler beat the Phils five times without a defeat last season.

Grissom held St. Louis to three hits in 2 2-3 innings to save Jim Hearn's third victory. Four Cardinal errors gave the Giants two unearned runs. Stan Musial hit a St. Louis homer. Don Mueller's two hits gave him the National League batting lead with a .404 mark.

LA Angels Use Home Runs To Defeat Hollywood 4-1

By PETER HAYES
United Press Sports Writer

The home run-hitting Los Angeles Angels made devastating use of their favorite play last night to down Hollywood, 4-1, and climb to within half a game of the league-leading Seattle Rainiers.

Little Ed Winceniak and Steve Bilko smashed homers to account for all of the Angel runs and hoist the team's four-bagger total to 28, tops in the Pacific Coast League.
