As We Live

Adjust Family Rules To Modern Manners

In making rules for teenagers, parents will do well to find out what rules other families have. A mother writes as follows:

(Q) "My 18-year-old son is in high school. We allow him to go out to school affairs and parties and he sometimes uses the family car. It is my rule until 11 o'clock to be out, he stays until 12. He does not dare to tell his friends that he must be in at a certain time. We would like to know your opinion of this in the paper as he always reads your column. I hope you can show him that he should obey his parents and do as they tell him."

(A) A son should obey his parents. I agree with you there. However, I also agree with your son in his feeling that he should not be expected to do things which the boys and girls in his class are not expected to do.

Dr. Hurlock

Why not bring up the matter of late hours of parties at the next Parent-Teacher Association meeting and see how other parents feel about the matter? If the majority approve, then you should change the rules in your family to conform to the prevailing custom in the community.

Salem — (U.P.)—The House has passed a Senate bill to allow cities to impose taxes on utilities on the basis of gross or net income.

The bill thus makes exception to the recently passed ban on income taxes by cities. Only the city of Portland is affected.

On The Side

By E. V. Durling

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

'Tis true in other days
Have I unbarred the door;
He knows the walks and ways
Love has been here before.
Love blest and love accurst
Was here in days long past;
This time is not the first
But this time is the last.

— Amy Levy.

Abe Kemp, the internationally celebrated San Francisco Examiner sportscribe, just had a birthday. I don't know for certain how old Abe is. However, I think he is 39; same age as Jack Benny. Incidentally, Mr. Kemp was selected to serve his 15th term as president of the Market Street Breakfast Club. This is an organization of men who consume unusual breakfasts. Abe's favorite breakfast is pig's knuckle and sauerkraut, pie ala mode and a pot of Gaelic coffee. Club was founded by Bill Byron, famous major league umpire of the yesterday. Bill's favorite breakfast was corned beef and cabbage, a chocolate nut sundae and coffee a la Talleyrand.

Those Nylons

Baltimore says the nylon stockings "of 20 years ago" were "six times as long" as those of today. The lady's memory is faulty. There were no nylon stockings 20 years ago. Nylon was originated by Wallace Carothers in 1936 and patented in 1937. It was several years after that date that nylon stockings were on the market.

Asking

Queries from clients. Q—How do you pronounce Bowie, the name of the race track? —A— Either "boo-ee" or "bow-ee" is correct. The horse fans usually pronounce it "boo-ee." . . . Q—How old was the first Queen Elizabeth of England when she fell in love with the Earl of Essex? —A—Elizabeth was 53 at that time. Robert Devereux, Earl of Essex, was then 19.

Passing By

Arline Judge, Bridgeport, Conn., beauty who has had six husbands so far and is reported about to acquire a seventh. Arline was born under the sign of Pisces (February 20-March 20). Women born under Pisces have a strange magnetic power of attraction. Men are intrigued by them without ever knowing exactly why. Or, so say the stargazers.

Please Note

Is calling a woman a "vixen" similar to referring to a man as "a wolf"? So queries a feminine subscriber. A vixen is a female fox. The vixen does all she can to attract male attention. Then plays hard to get. She likes to have four or five males battling for her favor. Then she plays one against the other. I would say to refer to a woman as a vixen is to indicate she is an habitual and heartless flirt.

Get It Right

New Yorker, boasting of 50 years' experience as a theatergoer, says I was wrong in saying Ed Wynn was on the opening bill of the Palace Theater, New York. The gentleman owes me a stogie. Palace opening bill, March 25, 1913, was as follows:

- 1—Eight Palace Girls
- 2—Hy Mayer (Cartoonist)
- 3—Ed Wynn
- 4—The Eternal Waltz (musical comedy sketch)
- 5—Taylor Holmes
- 6—Milton Pollock & Co. (in sketch by George Ade)

7—Four Varnis (wire act)
8—Otto Gygi (violinist)
9—La Napierkowska (daring danseuse)

Pies

Apple pie is not what it used to be. That goes for both bakery and homemade pies. The trouble with too many women is that they do not know that the only way to mix a pie crust worth while is to mix the dough in ice cold water.
