

Musical Program Given for DAR; Officer Returns

Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held the April meeting Saturday at the home of Mrs. Glenn Schneider on East Main street.

The theme of the meeting was "Patriotism in Music." The program of American music was arranged by Mrs. V. J. Bolton to emphasize the fact that there is a school of music peculiarly American. She introduced Mrs. Otto Frohnmeyer, who acted as pianist and narrator. Miss Betty Lacey and James Baker sang many numbers appropriate to the theme.

Hostess was Mrs. E. Ronald Rice assisted by Mesdames Carl Oestreich, Glenn Schneider and William W. P. Holt.

Mrs. D. O. Hood, member of Crater Lake chapter and second vice-regent of the Oregon DAR society, attended the first three days of the recent week-long convention of the national society held in Washington D.C.

Mrs. Hood was present for a luncheon meeting of delegates and representatives of the north-west chapters. Douglas McKay, secretary of the interior from Oregon, was speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Hood also attended the national defense meeting which was on the convention program. Seated with the Oregon delegation for that event were Congressman and Mrs. Harris Ellsworth. Speaker was Paul Harvey. Mrs. Albert Powers, Coos Bay, state DAR regent, headed the Oregon delegation of 15 members.

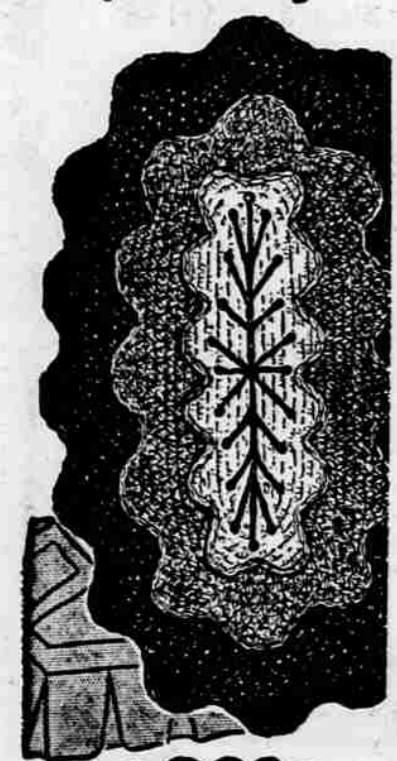

Prior to the convention the Hoods had attended a meeting of the United States Independent Telephone association, of which Mr. Hood is a national director. The convention was held at Bel Air, Fla., after its close, the Hoods accompanied a group of executives and wives who flew to Puerto Rico and Havana, Cuba. Returning to the United States, the travelers visited in Charleston, S.C., and in North Carolina before going to Washington.
