Bob Lemon, the Cleveland Indians' sinkerball ace, kept a pair of perfect records alive today with a 5-2 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

In limiting the Orioles to four hits, Lemon registered his fifth victory of the season without a defeat and his fourth without a setback over Baltimore since it entered the American league last year.

Detroit remained atop the American league with an 11-7 victory over Washington. The game was curtailed in the eighth in order to allow the Senators to catch a train for Kansas City.

The Tigers collected 14 hits off five Washington pitchers in extending their winning streak to seven straight games.

Jim Rivera came off the bench to deliver a two-run pinch single in the seventh that gave the White Sox a 3-1 victory over the Red Sox. George Suce, Jr., of the Red Sox, making his first major league start, walked three men in the seventh to set the stage for Rivera's blow.

The Yankees and Athletics were not scheduled.

Bums Retain Lead

Brooklyn retained its 4 1/2 game lead in the National league by beating Chicago, 7-5, behind Russ Meyer's five-hit pitching. Aided by homers by Gil Hodges, Duke Snider and Jackie Robinson, Meyer stretched his personal winning streak over the Cubs to 17 games while making his lifetime record over them 22-2.

Preston Ward's pinch single with the bases loaded in the ninth inning snapped a tie and gave Pittsburgh a 5-4 triumph over Cincinnati.

Homers by Stan Musial, Rip Repulski and Del Rice plus effective relief pitching by knuckleballer Paul Lapalme helped the Cardinals to a 6-2 victory over the Giants. Lapalme took over for Brooks Lawrence in the second inning and pitched seven-hit shutout ball the rest of the way.

Johnny Logan drove in two of Milwaukee's runs with a homer and a double to help defeat Philadelphia, 4-2. Rookie Humberto Robinson had to be called into the game to save Chet Nichols' victory in the seventh.

YER OUT, SEE!—Milwaukee's Danny O'Connell looks as though he is going to get hit in the head with that ball as well as the umpire's fist. Calling the out as Danny slides into second is umpire Dusty Boggess as the Giants' Billy Grader fires the ball to first. The action came in the fifth inning in game in New York. The Giants won, 3-2.

Crater high was one victory away from clinching the Rogue League baseball championship after a 5 to 0 triumph over Illinois Valley at Cave Junction Friday. At the same time Eagle Point more firmly entrenched itself in second position by wrestling an 11 to 10 verdict from Phoenix high.

The Comets, who have won four loop trysts against no losses, missed an opportunity to clinch the pennant when a tangle with the IV team set for yesterday was postponed because of a muddy diamond at Central Point.

Crater was attempting to reschedule the fracas for Monday. Eagle Point's record is now three wins and two defeats and the Eagles still have an opportunity to tie for the flag.

Freidhermann threw three hit balls for Crater on Friday and had errorless support from his mates. The Comets offensively bashed out 11 hits, four of them doubles.

Two runs got home in the third inning when Vern Parent safetied, Lyman Stubbs two-baggered, Neil Green was hit by a pitch, Ken Bailey singled and Harold Lefler clubbed a fielder's choice rap. Donn Johnson singled, Harvey Tonn sacrificed and Parent hit for one base to manufacture a run in the fourth inning.

In the fifth for the other two markers Bailey got on base on an error, stolen second and Lefler and Herrmann got back to back doubles.

Johnson and Parent both hit three for five in the contest and Herrmann swatted two for four. Herrmann whiffed six batters and walked five while Neil, on the mound for IV, struck out three and walked two.

Eagle Point in the Friday hassle at Phoenix got five runs in the second inning and two each in the fifth, sixth and seventh. Phoenix tallied singletons in the second, third, fourth and fifth stanzas and almost caught the Eagles with six counters in the seventh.

Big Applegate Produces Best

Anglers found the best conditions and the most success on Big Applegate river above the mouth of the Little Applegate yesterday on the opening day of the trout season.

That's what fishermen reported yesterday afternoon. Lots of trout were caught, it was reported. Big Butte creek and Rogue river produced some fish but anglers found Butte roilly. One limit catch from the creek about Butte Falls was reported but there may have been others.

A number of people were landing trout near Bybee bridge on the Rogue.

Worms and single eggs reportedly brought the best results.

All grade scrapes are to start at 4 p.m. and no inning is to begin after 5 p.m.

Swede Halbrook Suspended From Oregon State College

Corvallis, Ore.—(U.P.)—Wade (Swede) Halbrook, Oregon State's 7-foot, 3-inch all-coast basketball center, has been suspended from school, according to an announcement yesterday by E. B. Lemon, dean of administration.

The high-point center was written a letter Friday by Dr. D. T. Ordeman, registrar, informing him of his suspension effective Saturday for failure to attend classes.

Halbrook, 22, was reported out of town.

Earlier, Coach A. T. (Slats) Gill said he had been informed by college authorities that his star center was going to be suspended.

Coach Feels Bad

He said he felt "bad" about the situation but that there was nothing he could do about it. He said it was up to college authorities.

Halbrook was suspended from the Oregon State squad last winter for what Gill called "his attitude." However, he was later reinstated and led the Beavers to the Pacific Coast Conference title.

Academic Troubles

Halbrook, who racked up 1005 points in two seasons—second highest in the school's history—also had academic troubles last year and was not eligible to play until winter term of the current school year.

The registrar's office said it gets reports from professors whenever a student is absent from classes without reason for more than a week. Apparently several of these reports came to the registrar's attention, bringing about the cancellation of Halbrook's registration.

He would have to petition the college and be approved before he could be readmitted.

Oakland Downs SF Seals, 11-3

Oakland, Calif.—(U.P.)—Chuck Stevens' error on George Metkovich's grounder opened the gate for four Oakland runs in the seventh inning that broke a 2-2 tie and helped the Oaks to an 11-3 victory over San Francisco Saturday.

The Oaks added five more for good measure in the eighth inning to provide righthander Karl Drews with his first win after four straight losses. The win gave the Oaks a 3-2 lead in the series.

Stevens, Seal first baseman, had tied the score at 2-2 in the sixth with a 595-foot bases empty circuit smash against the centerfield screen.

Drews went the route for the first time this season, giving up nine hits, striking out seven and walking four.
