

Annual Cancer Society Tea Held Last Week at Hillcrest

Almost 200 guests attended the annual benefit tea given Tuesday by the Jackson unit of the American Cancer society, disregarding the cold blustery weather. The tea and hobby show, the fourth to be given by the volunteers of this group, was held at Hillcrest orchards with Mrs. George Schuler as general chairman and Mrs. L. W. Bates, assistant chairman.

Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. A. S. Cummins, Mrs. L. D. Inskip, Mrs. C. L. Drummond, Mrs. T. M. Daily, Mrs. Charles W. Lemery, Mrs. Edwin R. Durmo, Mrs. H. D. Poston, Mrs. Sam Gilbert, Miss Elizabeth Burr, Mrs. B. B. Lowry, Mrs. Orin L. Brown and Mrs. Wilbur A. Arnold.

The tea is marked each year by outstanding floral decorations, and this year the room arrangements were the work of Mrs. Raymond Miksche and Mrs. Ralph Thompson.

Mrs. Tom Ginn provided the tea table centerpiece, an arrangement of pink elf roses in a silver and crystal epergne loaned by Brophy's store. The table cloth was green and the pink candles were in silver candelabra, also loaned by Brophy's store.

Collections and hobby displays were by Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, Mrs. Otto R. Emig, Mrs. John T. Holmer, Central Point; Mrs. T. R. Greene, Jacksonville; John Crisman, Ashland; Mrs. O. T. Heyerman, Mrs. D. Kirkland West, Mrs. Harry D. Poston, Mrs. Harry J. Fitzgarry and Mrs. Lawrence W. Buonocore.

Eight groups entered the table setting contest, a feature of the tea started last year, and judging was by vote of guests. First place was won by the entry of Kiwanian Dames. It was arranged by Mrs. Richard Phair who used green ceramic plates made by Mrs. Charles Bottjer and an ecru linen cloth. Winning second place was the entry of Medford Lady Lions, arranged by Mrs. Robert Dames and Mrs. Ernest Kennedy assisted by Mrs. C. Elwood Hedberg. The women used Limoges china to accent a pink and gold color scheme and the centerpiece was of white daisies, pink roses and pink candles.

The entry of Medford Garden club, arranged by Mrs. Howard Bush, was of Canton rose medallion china on a white cutwork cloth and the flowers were pink perfection camellias. Medford branch, American Association of University Women, entered a setting of white and gold Haviland china on white cloth with a flower arrangement of white and gold-colored narcissi and primroses. Mrs. Harold Cook was chairman in charge, with Mrs. L. G. McClaren and Mrs. A. Manno assisting.

Mrs. H. B. Looper and Mrs. A. T. Wattenburg were responsible for the entry of Lady Elks. It was of brown Spode china which dated back to Civil War days, and the flower arrangement was of yellow pansies and bronze leaves.

Chapter CP of the PEO sisterhood had a table setting of crystal on a blue cloth accented with pink camellias and pink candles. It was arranged by Mrs. T. M. Garhart and Mrs. Robert Temple. The entry of the Colony club, the work of Mrs. Fitzhugh Brewer, was of Italian pottery and antique silver centered with an arrangement of fruit. Medford Junior Service league displayed an assortment of silver and crystal pieces under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Henry.

Prizes were donated by Brophy's and Swem's stores, and the latter also donated a camera for color pictures.
