'Who Can Beat Nashua?' Kentucky Derby Question; Field of 10 Horses Likely

Louisville, Ky.—(U.P.)—Blair stud's Nashua headed a field of 10 three-year-olds entered today for the 81st and richest running of the $152,500 Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs tomorrow.

Everywhere, as the annual jubilee went into high crescendo and transformed this serene Southern city into a 24-hour-a-day fiesta of hilarity, there was just one question: "Who can beat Nashua?"

There were no surprises or changes in the field which was set last Tuesday after the running of the Derby trial.

Rex C. Ellsworth's Swaps was the first horse named for the mile and a quarter classic while G. Rollie White's Trim Destiny was the last.

Nashua Fifth Named
Nashua was the fifth colt named for the first of the triple crown classic and John Fitzsimmons who signed the slip at a cost of $250 said the winner of the Flamingo Stakes, the Florida Derby and the Wood Memorial was ready to go. It will cost another $1250 to start.

Summer Tan was one of the last named for the race. Sherrill Ward strolled into the racing secretary's office about two hours after it opened and named the horse expected to give Nashua the toughest fight for the winner's purse of $108,400.

Post Positions
Nashua was tabbed a 4 to 5 favorite in the overnight line which will appear on the track

Kelly Tough In Clutches As Rainiers Blank Solons

By PETER HAYES
United Press Sports Writer

Seattle righthander Bob Kelly saved his best stuff for the clutches last night in blanking Sacramento, 5-0.

The 27-year-old ex-Cub yielded nine hits and was in hot water almost the entire game. The Sacs left 14 men on base and had the bases loaded in the third, fourth and ninth innings.

But each time Kelly bore down and got the side out, without benefit of any Seattle double plays.

It was Kelly's third win without a setback, and it gave front running Seattle a two game lead over second place Los Angeles in the Pacific Coast league.

Righthander John Briggs went the distance for the home team and suffered his first defeat after three wins. He was nicked for 10 hits, three by Carmen Mauro.

Other Games
In other PCL games, second division clubs were winners as San Diego downed Portland, 5-1, on John Carmichael's three hitter; Red Mungler pitched Hollywood to a 2-1 win over San Francisco, and Oakland outlasted Los Angeles, 7-6.

Los Angeles, 7-6.

In San Diego, the Padres gave Carmichael a four-run cushion in the first inning as Earl Rapp whacked his fourth homer with two on off Royce Lint (1-2) who went the route for the Beavers.

Carmichael, rookie righthander, lost his shutout in the sixth when Dick Whitman powered his third homer of the year. The win squared Carmichael's record at 1-1 and gave the Pads a 2-1 series lead.

Trout fishing season opens late at the lake again this year. Opening is set for May 28 along with other lakes in national forest areas.

Roads to the lake were still closed today and the Neelys had to be taken to the resort via Sno-Cat by caretaker George Bosley. The Neelys said that there is one foot of ice still on the lake and a foot of snow at the resort.

They will report when the road and lake are open. Cabins, boats and some grocery supplies will be available at the lake by that time.
