Phoenix Festival To Be May 28; Ball Held Friday

Phoenix — The seventh annual Phoenix May festival ball was held Friday evening at the Community club building and the queen candidates were presented. The festival is set for May 28.

The young women are Miss Barbara Hendrickson, a senior at Phoenix High school, who was chosen by the student body, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hendrickson, Edgevale orchards, Medford; Miss Sharon James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack James of Fern Valley, a junior; Miss Sheyla Thompson, also a junior, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Thompson, South Pacific highway, Phoenix; Miss Donna Gearin, a senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Gearin, South Pacific highway, and Miss Dorothy Good, a junior, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Good, Hollywood orchards, Medford.

Proceeds from the festival each year are used toward the Community club building fund and the maintenance. A parade, dancing and booths are planned for this annual event which, held in a carnival atmosphere, always attracts a large number of visitors to Phoenix.

Visitors Honored At Many Parties

Visitors in the city are the incentive for a number of parties. This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Leland Clark will be hosts for a cocktail party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Herbert I. Markham, Chicago. Mrs. Clark's parents, about 70 guests are invited to the Clark's home, 133 White Oak drive.

Last evening Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Findley gave a small dinner party at their home on the Old Stage road which honored the Markhams. Twelve guests attended. Preceding the dinner the Clarks and Markhams were guests of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Emmens for cocktails.

Friday evening the Markhams and Mr. and Mrs. Adair Monroe, New Orleans, La., were honored at a cocktail and supper party given by Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Cummins and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Jackson. The event was at the Cummins' home on Hillcrest road.

The Markhams will leave for their home Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Monroe, who have been in Medford for the past two weeks as guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allyn A. Monroe, will leave Monday for Manchester, Vt., where they will spend the next several months at their summer home.

Mrs. Justin Smith, social studies teacher at Medford Senior High school and Miss Carol Denman, student, are shown shortly before their departure by air Tuesday for Valley Forge, Pa., where they were to accept a Freedom Foundation award for the school. Medford won a principal school award for a documentation of the annual student government project, the award including the trip east for the two representatives. The two will visit Washington, D.C., and the United Nations after leaving Valley Forge, and will return to Salem May 11 for an Oregon awards luncheon and presentation. The awards are based on "work in helping to bring about a better way of understanding of the American way of life." — (Frank Bash photo)

Medford Couple Home From South

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Sims, 47 North Peach street, have returned to their home after being away for four months. They visited at Phoenix and Tucson, Ariz., and spent a month in old Mexico. There they visited the cities of Guaymas, Mazatlan, Guadalajara and the tropic beach resort, San Blas.

The couple met many Oregonians on their trip into Mexico. On their return to the states, Mr. and Mrs. Sims completed their trip by visiting the Carlsbad caverns, Grand Canyon, Hoover dam, Las Vegas, Scotty's castle in Death Valley, and in Oregon by visiting relatives at Eugene, Roseburg and Myrtle Creek.

Ceremony in Washington Weds Couple

Gold Hill—News of interest in the valley is the wedding April 23 of Miss Marion Loueen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith of Gold Hill, and Roy Allen Pettey Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Morrison, Vancouver, Wash. The double ring ceremony was held at Trinity Methodist church at Four Corners, Wash. The Rev. Joe Andrew Harding officiated at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Smith gave his daughter in marriage. Her waltz length gown was styled with a bodice of white velvet and a bouffant mist grey and white taffeta skirt. She carried a white Bible with pink roses and stephanotis. Mrs. Douglas Smith, Corvallis, a sister-in-law of the bride, was the honor attendant. Her gown was of soft grey wool.

Leslie Pettey served as best man for his brother. Douglas Smith seated the guests. The bride's mother wore a navy blue afternoon dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a powder blue suit with brown accessories.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Pettey at Four Corners. Mrs. Nelson Boomslier, an aunt of the bride, served the punch, and Mrs. Morrison, the bridegroom's mother, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Raymond Pettey assisted.

After their wedding trip the couple went to Salem where the bride is a sophomore at Willamette university, and where they will make their home. The bridegroom is a freshman at Oregon State college.

Women to Leave Monday on Trip

Mrs. Iva Hill and Mrs. Clara Smith plan to leave Monday for a trip to New York City with stopovers en route. They will visit at Reno, Salt Lake City, Cheyenne, Chicago, Niagara Falls, Boston, Philadelphia and Washington, D. C. En route home they will visit the Carlsbad caverns and Los Angeles.

Mrs. Hill then will visit a sister, Mrs. Mamie Claytor, at Long Beach, and Mrs. Smith will be with a daughter, Mrs. D. P. Taylor, at Palmdale, Calif. Mrs. Taylor is the former Miss Helen Smith of Medford. She moved from here about five years ago. Her husband, formerly of Grants Pass, is a test pilot for the North American Aviation company.
