

Parents' Group Reviews Year; Name Chairman

Mrs. Clyde Huntington, president of the Parents club at St. Mary's school, gave a report of the year's accomplishments at a meeting May 3.

Projects undertaken and completed, according to the report, were a lunch hour supervision program among the mothers of direction of room mothers; the grade school children under the convent yard was fenced and landscaped; card parties were sponsored by mothers of students in the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades; other projects were sponsored by parents of the first, second and third grade students: World books and a Compton encyclopedia with mobile tables were purchased; fathers of the children cooked and served a ham dinner.

Nine First Friday breakfasts were served under the direction of Mrs. William Scruggs, averaging 225 children at each breakfast; room mothers assisted with the health examinations and will assist with polio inoculations; new bylaws and a constitution were drawn up; a ditto machine was purchased; decorated cakes were donated for a March of Dimes dance.

In conjunction with the high school parents' club an open house and bazaar were held; a comic book committee worked for the passage of bills against obscene literature; by writing letters to representatives and by contacting other churches in the city in an organized effort; baseball and basketball uniforms were purchased for the inter-city team; bicycle racks have been approved and will be installed pending approval by the city; a first communion breakfast will be served today to first communicants and their parents.

Mrs. T. R. Eslinger volunteered as a new neighborhood chairman for the Girl Scouts. An expression of appreciation was made to Mrs. Paul Haviland for her work in that position. During the meeting also a suggestion was made to hold a large bazaar next fall.

The next meeting of the group will be Tuesday, May 24 when officers will be elected. The Rev. Charles Scott closed the meeting by offering a prayer.

Extension Units To Hold Meetings

Three county home extension unit meetings are scheduled this week.

Oak Grove—Mrs. Allan Flinn, 3233 Jacksonville highway, will be the hostess for the Oak Grove unit with Mrs. W. L. Wilson as the cohostess, Tuesday, May 10 at 10:30 a.m. Those who attend should take table service for a potluck luncheon.

Child care will be available through usual arrangements and Miss Eula Wintermote, county home extension agent, will give the project on "Living Within 24 Hours a Day."

The Medford unit will meet Wednesday, May 11, at 10:30 a.m. in the Community club building on Priddy street. The project, "Simple Home Repairs," will be given by local leaders. Members are asked to take claw hammers, medium sized screwdrivers, pliers and a few blocks of wood. Those who have not been asked to take special dishes should take salads or desserts. Child care will be provided.

Westside—Mrs. J. D. Semon and Mrs. H. J. Stout will be the leaders for a meeting of Westside unit Thursday, May 12, at 10:45 a.m. at the school. The topic will be "Simple Home Repairs." Those attending should take table service and anyone interested in joining the group is invited.

Good Suit Necessary For College Wardrobe

Chicago — (U.P.)—College coeds agree that at least one good suit, which can be dressed up or down, is a must for every college girl.

University of Illinois clothing specialist Jane Werden said coeds also felt that one wool or jersey casual-type dress and one velvet or taffeta dressy dress were needed.

Coeds also mentioned separates such as velveteen or taffeta skirts and dressy blouses. They recommended knitted suits for traveling.

Also listed as necessary were: One formal, with accessories that could be varied, or long skirts with dressy blouses; Either an evening wrap or a spring shortie or reversible coat that has one side of velvet; and

PTA Plans Party, Roundup at School

Roosevelt Parent-Teacher association will hold a preschool roundup and party at the school auditorium Wednesday, May 11, at 9 a.m. All children who will be first graders at Roosevelt next fall are invited, with their mothers, to visit the school and meet the teachers of the first grades.

Mrs. R. E. Schott, preschool party chairman and Mrs. Ralph Hibbs, roundup chairman, will be in charge of this annual project which will include physical, dental and eye check-ups in preparation for entering school. Cards have been mailed to parents of preschool children, but newcomers to the area who may not have received cards are urged to bring their children.

Do you know that you can shorten a too-long knitted dress (machine or hand-knitted) as easily as any other garment? Sewing experts suggest stitching twice around the skirt at the new hemline, cut off below stitching and ravel out yarn of cut-off piece. With yarn single crochet over raw edge for a neat finish.

Handicraft Class Holds Open House At Phoenix Church

Phoenix—An open house and program, sponsored by the girls handicraft class and leaders, was held at First Presbyterian church on Tuesday night and pronounced a great success.

A program featured a vocal trio, Penny Simmonds, Dorothy James and Berniece Thompson a clarinet duet, Perry Simmonds and Dorothy James; a flute solo, Joyce Stockstill; a duet, Margaret Ann Bolz and Nancy Stewart.

The group also sang two sacred songs, and recited the Bible alphabet, using verses commencing with each of the letters of the alphabet, and sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The leaders introduced were Mrs. W. R. Bolz, Mrs. Carl Kliever, Mrs. George Carpenter, Mrs. J. W. Webster, and Mrs. Floyd Schmelzer.

The work of the class in textile painting, shell work and knitting was displayed in the Ladie's parlor. Refreshments were served from a table centered with an arrangement of blue grape hyacinth and candles. Others assisting were Mrs. C. A. Stothers, Mrs. Floyd Jarmin and Mrs. E. R. Claffin.

Death rate in the U. S. in 1954 was among the lowest on record, estimated at only 9.2 per 1000 persons.
