

7th Grader Cindermen Defeat GP

Medford seventh graders nabbed seven first places and tied for another Saturday as they won the only team victory for the Bulldogs in a track meet at Grants Pass.

While the seventh was winning 52 to 24 over Grants Pass, the eighth graders from Medford lost their dual test 57 1/2 to 44 1/2 and the ninth fell to the Cave-kids 80 1/2 to 36 1/2.

Lynn Knight spurred the Medford seventh with triumphs in two of the nine events in his class. He won the shot put and broad jump. Knight was also second in the 150-yard dash and was a member of the winning relay team.

Also teaming in the relay were Robert Hamilton, Jerry McGill and Bob Medcalf. McGill won the 75-yard dash, Medcalf the 150 and Hamilton the hurdles. Anderson took the high jump and Skip Bennett tied in the pole vault.

Medford got four clean cut firsts in the 12-event eighth grade division and Roger Johnson, Gary Lyons and George Koch were involved in a four-way tie for first in the high jump. Lyons won the 75 dash, Fred Funston the low hurdles, Mike Murray the discus and John Connally, Funston, Murray and Lyons teamed in the relay.

The Bulldogs got only three of 14 top spots in the ninth grade division. Dave Bergman won the high jump, LeRoy Johnson the discus and Bruce Boldenow the javelin.

Medford Has Three Baseball Scrapes With GP This Week

A crucial week of baseball faces the Medford high school nine. The Black Tornado encounters the Grants Pass Cavemen three times this week. Medfordites figure they have to win at least two of the three to keep in the running for Southern Oregon Conference and District 6 A-1 laurels. They have handed GP its only loss.

Tussles with the Cavemen will be on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. The Tuesday and Thursday affairs will be at Medford. Game times are 3:30 p.m.

Medford right now is 1 1/2 games behind GP in the conference race. That situation came about when the Cavemen won over Ashland on Friday and Medford lost twice to the Klamath Falls Pelicans on Saturday. The Klamath wins put the Pels in contention a half-game behind Medford.

Two wins by Grants Pass over Medford will put the Cavemen out of reach of the Black Tornado in the race.

To Play Yreka
Coach Alex McDonald indicated that he may call on Pitchers Ernie Tyler, Larry Clark and Ken Piland this week, giving Ed McCullough and Duane Sides a rest. Should the Tornado get into a tight spot, however, the latter two could get a rescue call. Piland has been out of action about a week, concerned with DeMolay convention work.

Bill Mendenthal, George Herr and Larry Cocheil are the top Grants Pass twirlers.

Medford baseballers wind up the week with a non-league fracas here on Saturday against Yreka, Calif.

In contests of non-loop nature Talent plays at Eagle Point at 7 o'clock tonight and Crater vies at Ashland on Tuesday afternoon. Talent is awaiting District 5B play-offs after finishing Jackson county play unmarred. Malin is unbeaten so far in Klamath county. Crater eyes A-2 district play-off action this week end. The Comets won the southern division of District 6.

Two Experts Like Cockell
San Rafael, Calif.—(U.P.)—Two ring experts predicted yesterday that challenger Don Cockell will give Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano a "tough time" in their title bout May 16 in San Francisco.

Former featherweight, lightweight and welterweight champion Henry Armstrong and California State Athletic Commissioner Joe Phillips watched Cockell box five rounds Sunday and were impressed by his speed.

Armstrong, now an ordained minister, said, "I have seen Marciano box and I have watched Cockell throw that left hand. I'm sure Marciano will have a tough time with him and I think Cockell may be successful in winning the fight."

Phillips echoed Armstrong. "Cockell looks very good to me," Phillips said. "Marciano can be hit easily as it has been proven in previous fights by Edward Charles, Jersey Joe Walcott and Roland La Starza. He has a fast pair of hands and it is possible that this boy may take him, although I'm not predicting that the title will change hands."

Sole of Woman's Shoe Aids Swaps
By RAY AYRES
Louisville, Ky.—(U.P.)—A half-sole from a woman's shoe played a major role in Swaps' stunning victory in the richest Kentucky Derby of them all.

Before shipping the handsome chestnut colt back to California Sunday, trainer M. A. Tenney revealed Swaps was nursing a tender right front foot only two days before the Derby.

"I wanted to give him a good workout just before the Derby," said Tenney, "but the foot hurt him and we only let him gallop. Later I pulled the shoe off and reset a piece of leather—it's actually a half-sole from a woman's shoe—under his hoof and renamed the plate."

"I guess I got it set just right because the foot didn't seem to bother him after that," Tenney added.

Junior Baseball Session Tuesday
A meeting to organize the Southern Oregon Junior Baseball League for this summer has been set for Tuesday. It will be at 7:30 p.m. in Room 1 of the senior high school here. All persons interested are invited. A particular invitation is extended to those who may enter teams in the loop.

Chan Harper Nabs Honors In Colonial

By ED FITE
Fort Worth, Tex.—(U.P.)—Chanler Harper, who won the $25,000 Colonial National Invitation golf tournament by the widest margin in history with the only 72-hole sub-par golf, thinks the PGA is giving him the "go-by" in its records.

The 41-year-old Harper, who calls Virginia home but who plays out of Chattanooga, Tenn., pocketed a $5,000 first money check for a four-under-par 276 in winning the Colonial Sunday to give him a 69-stroke average for the tourney and a whopping eight-stroke lead over the field.

According to Harper's figures that ran his season winnings to $8,014 for six tournaments, but the PGA says it's only $7664. Also, according to the drawing champion's figures, he's averaged 69.64 strokes per round for 22 rounds of golf, which would put him in first place in the Vardon Trophy standings. But the PGA doesn't even list him.

Harper wasn't even among those getting passing mention when pre-tournament picks were made for Colonial's rugged test. But then neither was the man who finished closest to him—young Dow Finsterwald of Bedford Heights, O., whose 36-38-74 on the final day put him at 284 and earned him $3,000.

Ed Oliver of Lemont, Ill., tucked away a $2,000 check for third money by finishing at 286 with a final day 36-36-72, while five players each earned $1,400 for tying for fourth place at 297.

They were Julius Boros of Mid Pines, N. C., Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn., Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., Antonio Cerda of Buenos Aires, Argentina, and Harry Todd of Dallas, Tex.

Winners Listed In Rogue Archers Invitational Meet

Herb Gifford, Medford, with 326 and Jerry Williamson, Central Point, with 160 were winners in the respective men's and women's instinctive classes in an invitational shoot sponsored Sunday by Rogue Archers at the range on Cherry Heights.

Harley Vrooman, Klamath Falls, with 327 and Audrey Baxter, Klamath Falls, with 180, were victors in free style events. Junior honors went to Warrell Williamson, Central Point, with 242 and Pat Parks took pee wee prize.

75 Take Part
About 75 bowmen participated. Elbert May hit the winning bulls eye for a knife and hatchet. Running boar target victors were Pat Parks, pee wee; Lawrence Sands, junior; Jerry Williamson, women, and L. F. Sanders, men.

Next tourney will be held by the Black Bear Bowmen on the range on the Old Stage rd. on Sunday, June 5.

Jack Puscas National AAU Mitt Champ

Portland—(U.P.)—Oregon had its second national AAU boxing champion in history today.

Jackie Puscas, of Eugene, Saturday night won the AAU 132-pound title at Kansas City by knocking out Walter Taylor of Washington, D.C., in 43 seconds of the first round.

Oregon's other AAU champ was Tommy Moyer, now a Portland promoter, who won the lightweight crown in 1941.

Puscas, who arrived here by plane yesterday, said he was certain of victory from the instant he stepped into the ring with Taylor. "He was a straight-up fighter and they've always been easy for me," he said.

'Cats Threaten Whitman's Lead
By UNITED PRESS
Willamette's Bearcats were threatening Whitman's Northwest Conference baseball lead today.

Willamette downed Whitman 8-2 Saturday for the second loss in a row for the Walla Walla club on its Oregon invasion. Whitman has a 9-4 record to a 6-3 mark with Willamette. Linfield is third with a 7-4 record.

Defending champion Linfield downed Pacific 7-3 and Lewis and Clark took College of Idaho 8-4 in other Saturday games.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday, 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

Solons Club Indian Nine

By UNITED PRESS
The Salem Senators slammed their way to a 25-8 rout of Spokane in their first game and then bobbled away the second contest, 6-5, in a Northwest league baseball doubleheader yesterday.

Split doubleheaders were the rule of the league, however. Yakima took an opener from the Eugene Emeralds, 2-1, and then gave up the nightcap to Eugene, 10-2. The Tri-City Braves and Wenatchee Chiefs divided their pair of games, the Braves taking the first, 11-6, and the Chiefs winning the second, 2-0.

In the high-scoring opener at Spokane, Salem collected 28 hits, including four home runs. The Senators bobbled a ball in the infield in the second game, to give the Indians an unearned run that spelled victory.

RED CROSS ALERT
Boston—(U.P.)—A special teletype system that flashes hurricane warnings has been set up in Red Cross offices here. The teletype is connected directly with the U. S. Weather Bureau at Boston Airport. The hurricane signals will permit Red Cross disaster teams to prepare for possible emergencies.
