

Shady Cove-Trail News

Shady Cove-Trail — With the coming of spring a great deal of activity has seemed to spring up around Shady Cove and vicinity with new buildings going up and new interest being shown in real estate in the area. The business lot between the Rainbow Cafe and the Roguedale Cash Market has been purchased by O. L. Williams of Shady Cove from R. D. Abel of Medford. Mr. Williams plans to hold this lot for investment purposes. Shady Cove will have the services of Dr. Howard Ferguson, formerly of Glendale, who is an osteopathic physician-surgeon, as soon as the doctors' building is completed. Ted Conway of Shady Cove has the contract for erection of the building which will be quite large and will have an X-ray room, operating room, two examining rooms, office, laboratory and reception room, also a carport and entryway for ambulance on the side. Working for Conway on the building are Ed Houston, Slim Leiders and Carroll Watson of Shady Cove, Frank Allen of Glendale and J. G. Frampton of Trail.

There is a possibility that later in the year other buildings may be built next to the doctors' building to take care of the needs of a druggist and dentist. Dr. Ferguson has rented the half of the duplex from Mrs. Pearl Adair of Shady Cove.

Walking down to the Roguedale Cash Market yesterday the correspondent noted that new screen doors were being put up at the store by Art Levulett, Jack Reed, a resident of Shady Cove for the past three years, but formerly from Texas, has purchased a 7-acre lot across from the Jesse Lowerys at the corner of the River road and Longbranch road from Walter Mallory and is building a small house with garage on part of the lot. His friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones and family of Central Point, plan to build a house on the other part of the lot.

Nellie Chamberlain of Shady Cove has returned home from the Community hospital where she has been confined as the result of an injury to her kneecap suffered in a fall at her home. She is convalescing nicely and can have visitors. She wishes to thank all those who were so kind as to send cards and flowers and visit her at the hospital during her stay there.

Mr. and Mrs. Athel Dudley of Shady Cove attended the state Dry Cleaners convention in Eugene the past week end. They had a very enjoyable time while there and learned a good many new ideas pertaining to the dry cleaning business.

Tom Dooley of Talent has been visiting his niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Collins of Shady Cove. Mrs. Collins' mother, Mrs. Ida Troop, has returned to Shady Cove after spending the winter in Palm Springs, Calif.

There will be a chapel benefit-card party sponsored by Our Lady of Fatima club on Friday, May 13, starting at 8 p.m., at the Shady Cove school gym. Bridge, pinocle and canasta will be played with prizes being given for high and low scores in each game. Refreshments will be served and a prize awarded. Child care and entertainment will be provided for the children of parents attending the card party. All members of Our Lady of Fatima club and ladies of the parish are asked to make either a white or dark cake with icing for the party. On Sunday, May 15, following mass, the ceremonies of the blessing of the land for the new chapel and groundbreaking will be held. Actual work on the building is to start the following Sunday.

The Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Banning and granddaughter of Van Nuys, Calif., were recent overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sheppard and family of Shady Cove. Visiting the Sheppards at present is Mr. Sheppard's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norval Sheppard and children of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Long of Long's Valley supply, Shady Cove, drove as far as Drain May 6, where they met their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Rhey Rhodes and children, who had driven down from Portland, and then picked up their other daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Dave Preuss and Sherry in Grants Pass and went on a picnic on the coast.

Richard Smallwood of Ft. Ord, Calif., is spending his 2-week furlough visiting his uncle and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Smallwood, of Shady Cove, before reporting for duty in Missouri with the 6th Engr. battalion.

Mrs. Dolf Larson of Shady Cove entertained at her home with a birthday party honoring her daughter, Eda's 12th birthday. Games were played and refreshments served. Highlight of the party was a treasure hunt on the grounds. Guests present were Jackie and Jo Hume of Trail, and Pam Vanderlip, Mary Leekey, Sharon Bowdoin, Letha Zirby, Kathleen Houston, Bill Pfeifer, Gary Stelle and Ralph Goode of Shady Cove.

The 5th, 6th and 7th grade girls belonging to the Girl Scout troop at Shady Cove school entertained their mothers at a tea at the schoolhouse on May 6. Mothers attending were Mesdames Jim Vanderlip, Marion Walters, Clayton Knotts, Wilbur Blackman, Orage Houston, William Leekey, Donald Harmon, George Martin and Dolf Larson, and Leader Mrs. David Rastall, district leader, Mrs. Ivan Hale, and Mrs. Ed Leaming, representing Steelhead Auxiliary V.F.W. Post No. 6881.

Dan Krotz III and his baby son, Danny IV, moved over the week end from his parents' home in Shady Cove to Ashland where he will be nearer his work.

Mrs. Bob Alworth of Medford, former resident of Trail, has just received word of the death of her brother, Sam Netherland, who died Saturday in Walla Walla, Wash.

Chet Pfluke of Oakland spent the Mothers' day week end visiting the Ernie Segessenman family of Shady Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shere of Big Butte creek, Trail, have sold their home on Big Butte creek to Mr. and Mrs. Edwards of Los Angeles who plan to use the place mostly as a summer vacation residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shere are grandparents of a baby girl born to their daughter, Mrs. Dave Winans (the former Barbara Shere) in Medford at Sacred Heart hospital. The baby, who has been named Marguerite, weighed 7½ pounds at birth.

Sisters from St. Mary's school in Medford will conduct a two-week religious catechism school at the Shady Cove school gym starting June 6.

A number of local Shady Cove and Trail ladies were seen attending the Homemakers' festival in Central Point. Both the Rogue Elk and Shady Cove Extension units were well represented. A very clever skit was put on by the Rogue Elk unit concerning "Weight and Vitamins" which gave the audience a good laugh. Shady Cove Extension unit had a table display of the "home medicine cabinet" and various articles of hammered copper made by members of the unit. Ladies from Rogue Elk unit who attended were Mesdames Frank Dolenshek, Dorothy Tockstein, Howard Ash, Royal Greenman, Audrey Collier, Kenneth Lacey, Morris Bush, Chet Willson, Harry Casbier, Ersel Meyers, Glenn Anderson, Ronald Axtell, A. Myklebye, Art Hume, Elizabeth Worth and Jemma Coriiss from Eagle Point, and from Shady Cove unit Mesdames Ralph Lane, Travis Littlefield, Lewis Dusenberry, William Shepherd, William Bishop and Carroll Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warren and family of Shady Cove made a trip to Roseburg over the week end where they visited their friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Ferris.

Mrs. Ruth Sanford has returned from Los Angeles and has resumed the real estate business.

Mrs. O. B. Starks of Long Beach, Calif., is visiting her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Collins, of Shady Cove.

Lollypop Industry Praises Salk Vaccine

New York —(U.P.)— Parents aren't the only ones to hail the Salk anti-polio vaccine as a boon. The National Confectionery Salesman's Association said today the practice of giving lollypops to youngsters after their vaccinations has given the lollypop "the greatest prestige in its history."

Resuscitator Purchase Financed by Civic Clubs

Rogue River — Civic clubs in Rogue River have donated money to finance purchase of a resuscitator for the local fire department.

Mayor Phil Engle said the resuscitator should be available in the near future.

has scheduled a Stanley party for Thursday afternoon, May 12, at the home of Mrs. Cecil Kee of Shady Cove.

Wearing of Shorts Latest Thing for Texas Milkmen

Dallas, Tex. —(U.P.)— That ultra-fashionable man who sauntered up to certain Dallas doors today was the milkman — clad in Bermuda walking shorts.

Thirty of 120 milkmen employed by one Dallas dairy so made their rounds. With their shorts—a sedate black—they wore short-sleeved khaki shirts, knee-length ribbed shirt, knee-length ribbed khaki socks, black loafers and black golfers' caps.

This ensemble, furthermore, represents the official although not the obligatory wear for Metzger Dairies milkmen from today until mid-September, when summer is only just beginning to wane in Dallas.

Dairies owner Jake Metzger, with no advance warning, Tuesday sent out two of his milkmen dressed in shorts for a test reaction.

It was, he reported, good. "One housewife said her husband will bless us because he's been trying for years to get up the courage to put on Bermuda shorts. Now we've given him a reason for doing it," Metzger said.

The dairy owner frankly hopes to start a trend, to encourage all sorts of men to begin wearing shorts to work.

As for his milkmen, he is resigned to the fact they probably will have to take a lot of kidding.

He doesn't figure that will hurt business.

"They work in an area of public relations where good humor is essential to good business," Metzger said.
