

Eagle Point Club Names New Officers

Eagle Point—Mrs. Lawrence Messal is the new chairman of Eagle Point Garden club, having been named to office at a meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. W. A. Wattenburg. Mrs. Don Anderson was cohostess for the meeting, and 18 members attended.

Other new officers are Mrs. Francis Putman, vice-chairman; Mrs. Earle Jossy, treasurer; Mrs. Clarence Davies, secretary and Mrs. Ted Flury, historian.

Installation of officers will be held at a picnic meeting June 1 in the Dahack gardens.

Mrs. Ira Fitzgerald reported on the district meeting and the club voted to send one member or officer to the state convention to be held in Portland June 13-15.

Mrs. Glenn Clymer gave a talk on the hummingbird and its habits.

An iris show and plant sale will be held May 22 at the Grange hall in Eagle Point from 2 until 9 p.m. Members are asked to take two dozen small cookies and article for a grab bag and bazaar, as well as an arrangement of iris if possible.

Prizes for the last meeting went to Mrs. J. C. Lusk and Mrs. Ray Harnish.

The arrangement of the month was of various colored tulips and had been made by Mrs. Jossy.

Hospital Plans Tea and Display For Thursday

A display of nurses' caps and a new service cart soon to be put into service by Community hospital auxiliary will be featured at a tea Thursday in the hospital penthouse. Everyone interested is invited to attend the tea and open house from 2 to 4 p.m., in observance of National hospital week.

Mrs. Tom Donahue, a member of the local nurses' association, is collecting caps from members of the group for a display. It was pointed out that graduates of each school of nursing wear a different style cap. Mrs. Donahue and Mrs. Bernice W. Nims, director of nurses at Community hospital, will be on hand to answer questions concerning the caps.

The cart, which was ordered some weeks ago, was scheduled to arrive in Medford Tuesday, according to information received by Mrs. Shelby Tuttle, president of the auxiliary. Supplies have been ordered locally, and it is planned to have it equipped and on display during the tea. The cart is of all steel construction and will be in service twice daily for the benefit of patients and relatives or friends visiting them. Such things as coffee, note paper, tooth brushes and paste, and other sundries will be offered.

Tours of the hospital facilities will be arranged by Miss B. J. Larsen, administrator. The tea is in charge of the auxiliary, and Mrs. Margery Pitts is chairman of the affair.

DeWayne Johnson Plans to Leave SOC

Ashland — Dr. DeWayne B. Johnson, for the past two years director of information and assistant professor of English at Southern Oregon college, has announced his resignation from the staff of SOC to accept a position as assistant professor of journalism at San Diego State college.

Dr. Johnson, a former United Press correspondent and radio newsman will be at SOC through the 1955 summer session, President Elmo N. Stevenson announced. A replacement for the SOC public relations director will be announced later.

Oregon Temperance League in Session

Portland — (U.P.) — Some 100 delegates from 29 religious sects convened in Portland yesterday for the annual business meeting of the Oregon Temperance league.

Dr. Milton Marcy of the Methodist church was reelected president, Dr. Titus Frazee renamed executive director and Everett Heacock, treasurer.

Marshall Dana and Frank Phillips were elected vice-presidents.

Accordion Concert Held on Monday; Honors Student

The concert given by the Eve Prentice Accordion band Monday evening at the Medford Senior High school auditorium was attended by a large and enthusiastic audience.

Miss Lea Padgett, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Padgett, Central Point, was the featured soloist, playing popular as well as classical numbers. She also played in all the group and ensemble numbers.

The band had given the customary spring concert earlier this year and the second one was planned in honor of Miss Padgett who will enter the Shrine hospital, Portland, as soon as school is out in order to undergo bone surgery on the back.

Vocal numbers, with accordion accompaniment, were featured of the program and were given by Richard Cooper, Sharon Roberts, Lynn Miller, Oveta Walden, Karen Britton and 7-year-old Sandra Charters. The Accordionists Girls and Accordionists Boys were featured in intermission numbers. The entire ensemble, directed by Mrs. Prentice, played the opening and closing numbers.

Larry Robertson, northwest manager of Trailways Bus company, Portland, was master of ceremonies for the program. He announced that arrangements had been completed for 30 members of the band to play for the Queen Victoria day celebration in Victoria, B.C. May 22nd and 23rd.

The Trailways company has sponsored the Eve Prentice Accordion band for the past seven years.

Annual Banquet Held at Church Sunday Evening

Eighty-five mothers and daughters attended the annual mother-daughter banquet of Zion Lutheran church held Sunday evening in the social room of the church. The Men's brotherhood of the church served a ham dinner, with sons assisting. Table decorations were in the spring theme and were of pear blossoms with a realistic bee hive made by members of Lydia circle and tall pink tapers decorated by Miriam circle.

Mrs. Irvin Eitrem, president of the woman's guild was toastmistress for the evening. The program opened with songs and Miss Linda Slessler played a piano solo "The Lord's Prayer." The toast to daughters was given by Mrs. Rex Demo, and the toast to mothers by the three little Demo daughters, six-year-old Pamela, Dian, 4 and Rhonda, 2 years old. Mrs. William Gates presented a life membership in the National Women's Missionary society of the United Lutheran church to Mrs. Robert Glatzer who was a charter member of the former Chi Rho circle which was organized at her home.

A humorous reading was given by Mrs. Herbert Kinder. The surprise number, "Harmony From the Kitchen," was one of the highlights of the evening.

Mrs. Iona Taylor, dean of girls at Ashland Senior High school spoke to the group, stressing that love and respect were the most important factors of companionship.

The program closed with a song. Miriam circle of Zion Lutheran church will meet Thursday, May 12 at Mrs. G. E. Sidener's home, 1555 Roberts road. Mrs. Kent Blackhurst will give the next of the series of topics on "India." A demonstration on cake decorating will be given by Mrs. Sidener and Mrs. Raymond Niehaus.

Hospitals in the United States cared for more than 20,000,000 patients last year—the greatest number in any year of hospital history.

Literary Fraternity Chapter at SOC OK'd

Ashland — Southern Oregon college has been granted a charter for the Alpha Gamma chapter of Lambda Iota Tau, a national honorary literary fraternity. Dr. Arthur S. Kreisman has announced.

The initial membership of the group, Dr. Kreisman said, will be Ramona McGuire, Grants Pass; Joan Monroe, Klamath Falls; Richard Dickenson, Medford and Jack Kennett, Ashland.

Qualification for membership is based on junior standing, majoring in literature of the equivalent, a "B" average in all literary subjects, and the submission of a worthwhile, critical paper for initiation.

Dead line for Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday.

REPEAL OF LAW PROMISED

Baton Rouge, La. — (U.P.) — Coon hunters were up in arms today over a law recently enacted by the Legislature to protect deer from unleashed hunting dogs during the fawning season. Legislators said they hadn't noticed that the law would virtually abolish coon hunting, a favorite sport here, and promised to repeal it.
