

Hearn Hurts Fifth Victory For Giants; Chicago Snaps Dodger String at 11 Games

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Leo Durocher was happy to day to admit he was all wrong because Jim Hearn is making things all right for the New York Giants.

"I handled him wrong last season," the Giants' manager said. "I lost confidence in him but I promised I wouldn't do it again this year."

Hearn, who won only eight games in 1954 paid another dividend on Durocher's new policy Wednesday night when he pitched the Giants to a 6-3 decision over the Cincinnati Reds. In a few short weeks he has made the full turn—from the No. 1 disappointment of last season to the team's No. 1 pitcher this year.

It was the third straight victory for the steadily improving Giants and especially heartening because the Chicago Cubs snapped the runaway Brooklyn Dodgers' 11-game winning streak with a 10-8 win a few hours before the world champions took the field in Cincinnati. The Giants still were 8½ games behind Brooklyn but they served notice on the Dodgers that even an occasional slip will be penalized.

Yields Eight Hits
Hearn yielded eight hits and only two earned runs in gaining his fifth victory of the year.

Monte Irvin hit a two-run homer and Whitey Lockman blasted a three-run round-tripper to spark the Giants' nine-hit attack which handed southpaw Joe Nuxhall his second loss.

The Dodgers' streak—longest of the season—ended when Ernie Banks hit a grand slam homer and Don Foyt homered with two on for the Cubs.

Rip Repulski's double scored Stan Musial and climaxed a three-run eighth-inning rally that gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 6-5 win and stretched the Philadelphia Phillies' losing streak to 11 games. The Phillies thus neared the club record of 14 straight setbacks suffered by the 1936 team. Joe Adcock hit two doubles and a single and Ed Mathews hit a three-run homer as the Milwaukee Braves beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 8-3, in the other National League game.

Indians Top Yankees

In the American league, the Cleveland Indians made it two straight over the New York Yankees, 4-3, and took a three-game hold on first place. Ned Garver's three-batter sparked the Detroit Tigers to a 7-0 win over the Washington Senators; the Kansas City Athletics downed the Baltimore Orioles, 2-0, and the Boston Red Sox beat the Chicago White Sox, 4-3.

Early Wynn bested Bob Turley in a pitching duel as the Indians swept to their sixth straight victory and 11th in 12 games. Wynn yielded five hits to Turley's three but the Yankee hurler walked eight men and three of them scored. Al Smith delivered a key two-run single for the Indians while Andy Carey and Mickey Mantle homered for the Yankees.

Al Kaline's seventh homer and three hits by Jay Porter and Harry Malmberg provided all the support Garver needed enroute to his third win. Bobby Shantz, relieving Alex Kaline, yielded only two hits in six innings to win his second for the Athletics and Billy Klaus' two-run homer was the difference for the Red Sox, who celebrated the announcement of Ted Williams' return by snapping a five-game losing skid.

Crater High Tops Phoenix Nine 12 to 4

Central Point — Crater high wound up its Rogue league baseball slate unbeaten by trimming Phoenix 12 to 4 at Phoenix yesterday. It was the sixth win in the circuit for the Comets who had already clinched the pennant.

The Comets, who opened the scuffle with reserves, trailed much of the game. They fought to a 6 to 4 lead with three runs in the sixth inning and tucked victory away with six counters in the seventh frame.

Scoring was opened by Crater with two runs in the first inning on three walks and a hit by Neil Greene. Phoenix got all its runs in the second panel, using singles by Larry Blunt and Ron Bean, an error, two walks and a fielder's choice.

Wild Pitch

Crater got one run in the third inning when Don Johnson walked, went all the way to third on a ground out and ran home on a wild pitch. The markers in the sixth were on hits by Kay Kelley and Johnson, a hit batter, two walks and an error. In the seventh the Comets combined a double by Vern Parent, hits by Ken Bailey and Harvey Tonn, a hit batter, a fielder's option, three errors and two stolen bases.

Coach Clarence Melbye didn't start sending Com regulars in until the third inning. Next action for the Comets is the playoff for the District 6 A-2 mantle. Crater is southern division winners. Reports are that either Bandon or Sutherlin will represent the north. Originally set for this week end, the playoff game is now scheduled for next Tuesday at the northern school.

Crater's overall season record now is eight wins and five losses.

Oregon State Whips WSC

By UNITED PRESS
Oregon State met Washington State and Oregon went against Washington in a pair of Northern Division baseball games today with both Oregon teams still boasting perfect slates.

OSC brought its conference slate to 4-0 yesterday with a 2-1 slaughter over Washington State at Pullman.

The Beavers collected one run in the first, three in the third, three more in the fourth, four in the sixth and added insult to injury with a seven-run barrage in the seventh.

OSC first baseman Jay Dean continued his heavy hitting with five singles in five appearances. In all, the Beavers collected 24 singles and cashed in on seven WSC errors.

Oregon leads the parade with a 7-0 slate, OSC has 4-0, WSC has 4-3 Washington is at 4-6 and Idaho stands 0-10.

LINFIELD WINS

McMinnville — (U.P.) — Linfield bested Clark Junior college 81-50 in a track and field meet yesterday although Jack Hoage of Clark was the star of the day. Hoage won the 100 and 220 yard dashes and the low hurdles, plus placing third in the broad jump.

NY Yanks Deal Slaughter, Sain To Athletics; Tribe Hands Newhouser Release

By UNITED PRESS
The axe swung throughout the big leagues—and it hit a lot of guys hard.

Enos Slaughter, dealt to Kansas City by the Yankees, swallowed a lump in his throat and mumbled, "I never had much of a chance."

Southpaw Hal Newhouser, released outright by Cleveland, tried to take the news nonchalantly but didn't quite make it as he said, "I know I can still help some club."

Catcher Mickey Grasso handed in his release by the Giants didn't know where to turn. "This is the first time I've ever been released in my life" he said.

And Don Larsen, the strong young right-hander with the 20-game potential whom the Yankees optioned to Denver of the American association, sat coldly numb in front of his locker.

All this took place Wednesday when the clubs feverishly pared their rosters to get down to the required 25-player limit by midnight.

"I hate to send anyone out," Yankee Manager Casey Stengel said.

Ashland Cops Cinder Meet With Eagles

Eagle Point — Ashland turned back Eagle Point 81 to 41 at Ashland yesterday in a dual track encounter as the Grizzlies and Eagles tuned for the Class A district meet this week end.

Dale Jeffers and Culp were double winners for the Grizzlies who took first spots in nine of the 14 events. Jeffers came through with the top discus throw this year in the district, 149 feet, 1 inch. He also won the shot put at 43-8. Culp ran the high hurdles in :16.4 and the lows in :22.2.

Austin Wins Mile

Austin won the mile for Ashland in 5:01 while Gregg Schultz took the high jump at 5-8. Busch of the Grizzlies was winner in the half-mile in 2:11.5. Stuart Baker ran the 220-yard dash in :22.6 and anchored the Ashland relay team in its 1:35.4 time. Other team members were Jeffers, Yates, and Witt.

Gale Friend for Eagle Point won the pole vault at 10-6 and Eldon Mason heaved the javelin 154-5 for a first. Frank Reich won the 100 in :10.6 for the Eagles and Ted Daw took the broad jump with 19-1. Eagle Point's Jerry McDonald was first in the quarter-mile in :56.7.

Portland Club Gets Joe Taylor, Al Robertson

Portland — (U.P.) — The Portland Beavers added two new players to their roster today and disposed of three others.

The Beavers, who have lost 1 out of their last 9 games, received Joe Taylor, an outfielder, and Al Robertson, a catcher, on option from the Kansas City Athletics.

Outfielder Russ Sullivan was sold outright to Columbus, O., and Ron and Bill Bottler were farmed out. Ron, a catcher, was sent to Columbus, Ga., of the Sally League on a 24-hour recall basis. Bill, a pitcher, was released to Spokane of the Northwest League.

Taylor hit .323 for Ottawa of the International League last year, including 23 home runs. Robertson was with the Philadelphia Athletics last year, appearing in only 64 games, mainly as a pinch hitter.

PILOTS BEST OSC

Portland — (U.P.) — Portland University's tennis team made it 57 victories in a row yesterday by taking Oregon State 5-2.

CW PICKS COACH

Ellensburg, Wash. — (U.P.) — A. H. (Abe) Poffenroth, former football coach at Eastern Washington College, has been named head football coach at Central Washington.

He told me before the third round his hand hurt," Bernstein said, "and I told him to punch for the body."

Thereafter Satterfield used his left with abandon, but he said "the power wasn't there."

NEW MANAGER

Pittsburgh — (U.P.) — Kenneth Rapp, who began working with the Pittsburgh Pirates six years ago as a messenger, is the new business manager of the Bruns- wick, Ga., farm team of the Pirates. Rapp, 24, succeeds Jack Berger who will take over as publicity director of the Pirates, succeeding the late Jim Long.

He will outline major problems facing business today in an address to some 200 Oregon business leaders.

Angels, Pads Knotted For Coast Loop Lead

By PETER HAYES
United Press Sports Writer

Turk Lown and Jim Brosnan pitched and battled Los Angeles into a tie with San Diego for first place in the Pacific Coast League last night. The Angels knocked over the Seattle Rainiers twice, 7-5 and 9-1, to drop the erstwhile leaders into third place.

San Diego's defending champion grabbed a share of the league lead with their ninth straight win, a 3-2 decision over Hollywood.

Sacramento tripped San Francisco, 4-1, and Oakland downed Portland, 5-1, in other games.

Lown, Los Angeles' ace relief pitcher, exploded a 420-foot two-run homer in the 10th inning to break up the scheduled seven inning opener in Los Angeles.

The 30-year-old righthander had taken over for George Piktuzis in the fifth. He gave up five hits, struck out six and walked two to earn his fourth win. He has lost one.

The two defeats left the Rainiers a half game off the pace, the first time they have lost the lead since April 24.

In San Diego, Eddie Erault limited last place Hollywood to six hits while Milt Smith drove in all of the Padre runs with a homer and a single.

Pitching Duel
Lefty Chet Johnson (3-2) outduelled Tony Ponce (3-4) of the Seals, giving up five hits to Tony's six. One of those five, however, was a tremendous home run 420 feet over the right field bleachers in the third by Ted Beard, who previously had gone hitless in 24 trips.

In Portland, Piper Davis doubled home three men to highlight a four-run uprising by Oakland against Bob Hall 3-4 in the first inning. Kark Drews was mauled for 11 hits but survived to win his third straight after suffering four defeats.

Oakland's George Metkovich collected three hits for a total of seven in 10 trips in the last two games.

Junior High Track Meet Here Friday

Track season for the Medford junior high team concludes Friday with a district meet here.

Just how many entries there will be was not known today but four other schools have been invited. They are Grants Pass, Ashland, Klamath Falls and Crater. Ninth graders will participate.

Meet time is 3 p.m. Medford won the junior relays at Grants Pass early in the season, but the local ninth graders lost to Grants Pass in their other meets, two dual affairs.

Verdict Goes To McBride

Chicago — (U.P.) — Heavyweight Archie McBride figured today he proved a point in his majority decision over Bob Satterfield in the Chicago stadium's Wednesday boxing show.

"He's supposed to be a hard puncher," McBride said, "and I took his best punch and it never bothered me. So now I am ready for two or three more fights with better ranking heavyweights."

It was questionable, though whether McBride actually took Satterfield's best punch. The Chicago heavyweight, who has knocked out 30 foes in 57 pro fights, injured his left hand in the second round and thereafter he said, "I used it for show."

Bad Sprain
The hand was badly swollen over the knuckles on the forefinger and middle finger and swollen to twice its size after the fight. X-rays revealed it was a bad sprain, and not broken as had been feared by Satterfield's manager, Ike Bernstein. Bernstein said the hand will put Satterfield on the shelf for about three or four weeks.

He told me before the third round his hand hurt," Bernstein said, "and I told him to punch for the body."

Thereafter Satterfield used his left with abandon, but he said "the power wasn't there."
