

Gold Hill Groups To Hold Carnival

Gold Hill—A carnival sponsored by the local IOOF and Rebekah lodges will be held in the IOOF hall Friday night to raise money to help finance the district Rebekah meeting here Wednesday, June 15.

The carnival will include a cake walk and an auction of usable household goods and other items brought by those attending. A hand made bedspread will be given away during the evening.

Various booths will award prizes, and refreshments will be served during the carnival.

Mrs. Fred Lester is noble grand of the Rebekah lodge and Glenn Miller is noble grand of the IOOF lodge here.

The Rebekah district meeting which will meet here next month includes Jackson and Josephine counties.

Visitors Here

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, who arrived in Medford last weekend to visit relatives and friends here, plan to return to their home in Carmel, Calif., next Monday. The couple visited first with Mrs. Carpenter's sister, Mrs. H. Chandler Egan, Foothills road, and are dividing the remainder of the time in the homes of other relatives and friends.

Clothespins need an occasional dunking in soapy water so they won't soil clothes.

Camp White Club Announces Dates For Tournament

Mothers Honored At Tea Tuesday In Rogue River

Rogue River—More than 150 girls and their mothers attended the annual Rogue River High school Mother-Daughter tea in the gymnasium Tuesday afternoon.

Cake and tea were made and served by members of the home economics class, and decorations were those used at the annual Junior-Senior prom last Friday night.

While the daughter and their mothers were attending the tea, an intra-mural track meet was held for boys. Juniors won the meet, with sophomores second, seniors third and freshmen fourth.

Miss Ina Feero Is Girl of Term

Ashland — Miss Ina Feero, freshman from Roseburg, has been awarded the "Girl of the Winter Term" title by the Associated Women Students of Southern Oregon college, according to the AWS president, Miss Beth Eskew, Gold Hill.

Miss Feero was given her cup signifying the honor by Miss Mary Lee Ford, North Bend, "Girl of the Fall Term."

Miss Feero was chosen for her work in the college production of "The Mikado," her work with the Sweetheart's ball, Freshman class, and Susanne Homes hall dances, and her activity as secretary of the social committee.

Troop Plans Play Day On Sunday

A noon potluck dinner and play day open to all valley riders and others interested will be held Sunday, May 15, at the posse grounds. The event will be sponsored by the Ladies Mounted troop, auxiliary to the Jackson County Mounted Sheriff's posse.

Those attending the dinner should take a covered dish and table service and families are invited to attend together. Coffee and rolls will be furnished.

The play day is also open to spectators and no charge will be made for any of the day's activities with the exceptions of entry fees for those participating in games and races, those in charge announce.

About 20 events will be on the program and on the competitive games and races the entry fees will be awarded to the three top winners who also will receive ribbons. The show is scheduled to begin about 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Clarence Dodge is captain of the troop and in charge of the Sunday event is the rides committee. They are Miss Montana Emerson, chairman, Mrs. Roy Vague, Mrs. Sam Keim, Mrs. Lillian Hanscom, Miss Beverly Nelson and Mrs. Glenn Martin.

Frank Woodriddle and Harry Furch will be the judges and Pat Murphy will do the announcing for the show. Paulette and Jimmy Vague will award the ribbons.

Medford Trail Riders will give an exhibition of "square dancing" on horseback.

Events on the program will include matched pairs; pleasure horse class; Texas barrel, potato, balloon, boot, stake and baton races, and other games.

The junior posses and Rogue Rangers, youth groups, will participate in the events. The Junior troop expects to conduct a polo game.

Members of the troop and posse drill team will meet for their first practice at 10 a.m., preceding the dinner and play day.

SOC Choir Plans Concert Friday
