

Two Eds Spur Tornado Victory Over Cavemen

SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Grants Pass	4	2	.667
Medford	4	2	.667
Klamath Falls	3	3	.500
Ashland	1	9	.100

With superb one-hit pitching by Ed McCullough and with Ed Reinking shining both at bat and in the field, the Medford high baseball aggregation stirred up its Southern Oregon Conference and District 6 A-1 chances anew yesterday by goose-egging the league leading Grants Pass Cavemen 4 to 0.

While Pitcher McCullough, backed by good fielding support, was chucking sharply and surely, striking out seven batters, six in a row, Centerfielder Reinking blasted out a home run and a double, scored three of Medford's runs and made a sensational desperation leaping snag of a Grants Pass wallow which otherwise had "extra bases" written all over it.

The victory boosted Black Tornado spirits for another important game with the Cavemen today. Grants Pass was the site this afternoon of the fourth and final regular season clash between the two clubs. It was "win or else" for Medford for another loss would eliminate the Tornado from the conference race.

Yesterday's decision was the sixth in 10 league combats for the Black Tornado. It was the second loss of the season for Grants Pass which had seven loop victories. Both GP defeats have been inflicted by Medford. The Tornado Thursday hopped back into second place ahead of Klamath Falls which had a doublebill at Ashland this afternoon.

With the chase tightening and with the A-1 and A-2 inter-district play-offs only a week away, the situation is complicated by rained out games. Medford has one to make up against Klamath Falls and Grants Pass

Lause Opposes Jones Tonight In Garden Fight

New York — (U.P.) — Eduardo (KO) Lause of Argentina, boxing's newest "wild bull of the pampas," risks his 27-bout winning streak against trial-horse Ralph (Tiger) Jones of Yonkers, N.Y., tonight at Madison Square garden.

Lause, the world's seventh-ranked middleweight contender, is a 2-1 favorite for the nationally televised and broadcast NBC 10-round.

Frequently referred to as a small-sized Luis Firpo, the original "wild bull" from the Argentine, Lause has lived up to his nickname by scoring 25 knockouts since his last loss to former welterweight champion Kid Gavilan at Buenos Aires 32 months ago.

The dark-haired, left hook specialist has won 57 of 65 fights since entering the pro ranks and frequently is mentioned as a logical contender for the 160-pound title if Bobo Olson moves into the heavier ranks. He has 48 knockouts to his credit.

Jones, a solid body-puncher, is an up-and-down fighter who has discouraged many name fighters since he entered the pro ranks in 1950. He has won 34 of 50 bouts but boasts only nine knockouts.

Ted Williams Signs Contract

Boston — (U.P.) — The news that has thrilled millions of baseball fans and will haunt American league pitchers this season became official today when Ted Williams signed a contract to play "the game I love" with the Boston Red Sox.

The well-conditioned but slightly overweight slugger was scheduled to arrive here by plane today after a flight from Miami, Fla.

Then modern baseball's most magical name was to be signed to another $100,000-year-contract with Boston before Red Sox Manager Mike Higgins, his team, and newsmen met Ted Williams, formally for the 1955 season at a press conference.

Auto Race Trials Slated Saturday

Indianapolis, Ind. — (U.P.) — The Indianapolis Motor Speedway prepared for the most blistering 500-mile auto race time trials in history today, with at least half a dozen daring drivers expected to smash last year's records.

Two week ends of qualifications open at 11 a.m. EDT Saturday. Barring adverse weather, the 33-car Memorial day race line-up will be completed May 22.

The $64 question was not "what will it take" to win the pole position Saturday, but "how fast do I have to go to get in."

Veteran railbirds figured an average of close to 143 miles an hour for the four-lap, 10-mile sprint around the "brickyard" will be necessary to nail down the "pole" position — the inside spot in the first row for the May 30 grind.

Francis Poltfoot Eureka Mentor

Eureka, Calif. — (U.P.) — Francis Poltfoot, former end for the professional Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins, today was named head football coach at Eureka high school.

Poltfoot, a one-time Washington State college star, retired from pro play last year.

Padres Gain First Place Alone in Coast League; Beavers Nudge Oaks 3-2

By PETER HAYES
United Press Sports Writer

The San Diego Padres had first place in the Pacific Coast league all to themselves today, thanks to a 10-game winning streak sparked by the booming bat of Earl Rapp.

The Pads beat Hollywood, 4-3, last night when Rapp, the pun-maker's pal, socked his 10th homer with one aboard in the eighth to break a 2-2 tie.

San Diego had been tied with Los Angeles for first but the Angels were blanked, 6-0, by Seattle and dropped into third place. The Rainiers were second, a half-game behind the Padres.

Elsewhere in the PCL, Sacramento edged San Francisco, 6-5, and Portland beat Oakland, 3-2, after Oak centerfielder George Metkovich was knocked unconscious by Dick Waibel's pitch in the first inning. Metko was reported in satisfactory condition in a hospital.

Rapp Hitting
Rapp's slugging has been the major factor in San Diego's drive from sixth place to the top in the last 10 days. In that period the 33-year-old right fielder has hit seven homers, knocked in 7 runs and batted .412.

He now shares the home run leadership with Steve Bilko of Los Angeles and is far out in front in the RBI department with 43.

Veteran righthander Elmer Singleton tossed a four-hitter in Los Angeles while Bobby Bal-sena led the 11-hit Rainier attack with two singles and a double to drive in three runs.

Sensational Catch
In San Francisco, Sacramento dropped the Seals into seventh place with a hard-fought victory featured by Pete Milne's sensational catch of Dave Melton's runner for a share of the title.

Female Cheer Leaders Benched at Tennessee
Knoxville, Tenn. — (U.P.) — Officials of the University of Tennessee weren't kidding when they promised "everything will be different" about the Vols' football team next season.

Tennessee, which recently lured head Coach Bowden Wyatt away from Arkansas, benched its pretty girl cheer leaders Thursday and trotted out an all-male pep squad for pre-season practice.

"The girls have just been distracting the men student rooters," said one campus leader. "They spend their time ogling, whistling and leering instead of cheering."

TEAMS SPLIT
Oregon City — (U.P.) — Portland State and Oregon College split a baseball doubleheader here last night, the Portland club winning 6-0 in the opener and OCE taking a 13-5 decision in the nightcap. Austin Connelly held OCE to two hits in the first game. Both went seven innings.
