

CRANDALL'S BOAST RINGS TRUE AS BRAVES NICK DODGERS 2-1

By F. R. DOWN
United Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Braves were back in the National League pennant race today because Del Crandall made a pre-game boast come true.

"I'm gonna hit one tonight," the 24-year-old catcher said before the Braves took on the Brooklyn Dodgers Thursday night. "I just feel it in my bones."

Twelve innings later Crandall hammered a 405-foot homer into the center-field bleachers to give Gene Conley and the Braves a 2-1 triumph over the Dodgers and their fifth victory in six games. The blow, off relief pitcher Ed Roebuck, broke up a magnificent pitchers' duel between Conley and Carl Erskine. Erskine retired after the 11th in favor of Roebuck, whose second pitch of the 12th inning was hit out of the park by Crandall.

Pitches Six-Hitter

Conley, who dropped a 2-0, 12-inning decision to Erskine in Brooklyn on May 2, yielded only six hits and one run—a homer by Sandy Amaros. Hank Aaron blasted a 420-foot homer off Erskine to provide the Braves with their first run.

The victory was Conley's fourth of the year and his sixth in nine meetings with the Dodgers during his career. It was the Dodgers' second straight loss after they won 22 of their first 24 games.

Sam Jones pitched a no-hitter to give the Chicago Cubs a 4-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in the only other National League game. In the American League, the Washington Senators shut out the Cleveland Indians, 3-0, the Chicago White Sox beat the Baltimore Orioles, 6-2, and the Boston Red Sox downed the Kansas City Athletics, 12-7.

Score Losses Second

Mickey McDermott tossed a four-hitter for his second win and handed rookie phenom Herb Score his second loss as the Senators snapped the Indians' six game winning streak. McDermott struck out nine batters and Score struck out.

The White Sox scored four runs in the ninth inning to win their 10th game in 14 starts and move within two games of the first-place Indians. Bob Nieman single home the tie-breaking run in the ninth and a single by Nelson Fox and Jim Riviera's double completed the rally.

Harry Dorish received credit for his second win of the season while Ray Moore, third Baltimore pitcher, suffered the loss.

Gene Stephens hit a three-run homer and Jackie Jensen a two-run drive to pace the Red Sox to their second straight win since Ted Williams announced his return to baseball. Ivan Delock won his third game behind the 15-hit Boston assault which offset a pair of two-run homers by Gus Zernial and a three-run blow by Bill Renna.

Young Players Outshine Vets in Greenbrier Open

By ERNEST BARCELLA

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. — (U.P.) — The old pros set out today to catch up with two American rookies and a young Australian sharpshooter in the second round of the 72-hole Greenbrier Open golf championship.

Age gave youth a stirring battle but it finally was forced to yield the opening day leadership to the younger set Thursday when Mike Souchak of Durham, N.C., Down Finsterwald of Bedford, Ohio, and Australia's Peter Thomson spread-eagled the field with rounds of 64 over the par-70 old white course.

Vets Have 65's

Old-timers Johnny Revolta of Skokie, Ill., and Henry Picard of Cleveland, who were winning golfing glory when the three leaders still were frolicking in playpens, appeared at first to have the opening day honors tucked away with handsome 65's. But youth would not be denied. In rapid succession, Thomson, Souchak and Finsterwald came home with six-under-par rounds to take command.

So spectacular was the opening day shooting that the two perennial favorites — Sneed and Bantam Ben Hogan — were far back in the field even though each had a 69. Eighteen of their colleagues were out in front of them.

Policeman Honored by Chiropodist Group

Jersey City, N. J. — (U.P.) — Police Inspector James Menge, a veteran of 33 years in police work, gets an award today from the Hudson County Chiropodists Society.

The society observed National Foot Health Week by commending Menge for walking thousands of miles in the course of duty "without so much as raising a corn or a blister."

GOLF TEAM ARRIVES

London, Eng. — (U.P.) — Members of the United States Walker Cup golf team planned to work off their sea legs today on the Sunningdale course following their transatlantic voyage. The Yanks, headed by team captain Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., arrived at Southampton Thursday aboard the liner America for their cup matches against Britain's leading amateurs at St. Andrews, Scotland, May 20-21.

CARP NOTE

Annapolis, Md. — (U.P.) — State Senator Thomas F. Dempsey is seeking to amend a law so it will be all right in Maryland to shoot carp in non-tidal waters with a bow and arrow.

Third Avenue El Makes Final Trip

New York — (U.P.) — The final train of the Third Avenue elevated railway rattled up from Chinatown to the Bronx Thursday night and East Siders by the thousands leaned out of their apartment windows to wave goodbye to the last of New York's famous elms.

When the train pulled into the 149th St. Station at 7:17 p.m. (EDT) carrying 800 disheveled passengers the Third Avenue El was officially dead.

No more trains will run. The pillars and girders and the dilapidated stations and platforms which have allowed only patches of sunlight to strike Third Avenue for 77 years will be torn down this summer.

The Transport Workers Union Thursday lost an 11th hour effort to have the scraping of the El postponed. Justice A. David Benjamin of the Brooklyn Supreme Court signed the El's death warrant when he refused to issue a restraining order against the New York City Transit Authority.

Hussane Eyes Logger Porter's Money In Grudge Mat Fracas Saturday Night

Women wrestlers aren't expected to be misted too much in Merrick's arena tomorrow night for Mack Lillard has finally signed a match which should provide the cash customers with enough thrills to make them forget the gals.

The headline scrap pits Yoggi Hussane and Logger Porter in an hour-long struggle to settle their three-week-old grudge. Hard feelings erupted twice during that period when Porter whipped Hussane in, unscheduled tiffs when Porter entered the ring to challenge other participants. Hussane thought he had no business there but quickly found out he wasn't man enough to eject him.

Hussane had dodged the match twice previously when it was offered him and it took a $100 guarantee, plus Porter's share of the gate receipts, to entice the big Turk into the ring. Porter put up the guarantee last week dominal stretch and Thomas' lightning-like dropkicks.

Cowboy Wes Knapp, who drew plaudits of the fans last week in his debut, will test Portland's wrestling cop, Larry Pressnell, in the curtain-lifter, which goes to the mat at 8:30 p.m.

Arena doors unfold at 7:30 and reserved seats may be purchased in advance at the Rogue restaurant, 42 South Central ave.

May 21, 22, Set for Valley Hobby Show

May 21 and 22 have been set as the dates for the third annual Rogue Valley Hobby and Craft show, it was announced today. The show will be held in the Medford YMCA building, 522 Sixth st.

Five age groups will be considered in the show, which will be open to all Rogue valley hobbyists. Professional and amateur exhibits will be judged in separate classes.

Entry blanks for the show are expected to be available soon at the YMCA office. Rules of the show are posted on the bulletin board in the lobby of the 'Y.'
