

Dr. D. K. West To Leave Sunday for Assembly Sessions

Dr. D. Kirkland West, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will leave Monday as commissioner to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church in the USA to be held in Los Angeles for the next 10 days. He has been chosen commissioner by the Presbytery of Southwest Oregon.

On his return Thursday, May 26, he will assist in dedication of a window in San Francisco Theological seminary, which has been donated by Miss Beulah Warner, honoring the founder of our church, the Rev. Moses Williams.

Dr. West will speak at both services Sunday morning on the topic, "These Sayings of Mine." He will conduct a class at 4 p.m. for young people who desire to know more of the meaning of church membership and at 5 p.m. a class will be conducted for adults in church history and doctrine. The classes are open to the public.

Sunday evening the youth discussion will be on, "You and Your Family," led by Miss Melissa Jennings and Miss Deanna Bruning. Fireside will be at the home of Miss Carol Denman, 104 Geneva st.

Plans Approved for Methodist Observance

Approval of plans for observance of the 70th anniversary of the founding in November of the Medford First Methodist church were given by the official board at a recent conference held here, officers of the church announced this week. The plans were voted on during the during the fourth quarterly meeting of the church at which the Rev. Meredith A. Groves, former minister, now superintendent of Eugene district, presided.

Substantial increases were noted in church and church school attendance and in giving for current expenses and missionary causes were reported at the session.

The lay leader for 1935-36 is Clifford Norwood and the church school superintendent, Riley C. Cook. R. J. Bills, F. F. Burk and Herb Sampert were elected to three-year terms on the board of trustees.

Other reports revealed that 125 members have been received and 234 officers were filled by nomination and election.

Young People Will Conduct Services Sunday at Friends
Young people of the church will conduct the worship service Sunday at 8 p.m. at the Friends church. Pat Leek, Senior Christian Endeavor president, will preside.

Talks will be made by several young people, a clarinet duet played by Nadine Brood and Charlotte Unruh, and a male trio, Lary Smith, Gary Smith and Kenneth Kumasawa, will sing. Other Christian Endeavor members will act as ushers, song leader and pianist. As part of the program members of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor will participate in a scripture memory contest.

Awards to the winners will be "stamps for Camp" to help with the cost of attending the Friends' Camp Sa-wa-li-nais July 12 to 18.

The time for evening functions at the church during the summer has been set a half-hour later, 8 p.m. Family hour will begin at 7 p.m.

Subject of pastor Clynton Crisman's message at 11 a.m. will be "A Life Becoming the Gospel." The choir will sing, "The Lord in Zion Reigneth." A nursery and junior church will be conducted for children.

Foursquare Church Continues Meetings

Members Will Be Received Sunday

New members are to be received Sunday at the Congregational church, near the corner of Groveland ave. and Oakwood dr. At the close of the service a coffee hour will be held in the new Sunday school building in their honor and other members who have been received earlier this year.

The sermon topic of the Rev. Thomas McCamant for this Sunday will be, "The Earth is the Lord's." The children's sermon will conclude a series based on the poetry of A. A. Milne.

The annual meeting of the Congregational conference of Oregon will be held at the Waverly Heights Congregational church in Portland, starting Monday evening. Delegates from the Medford church will be Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brooke and the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas McCamant.

Vacation
The McCamants will go on from the conference on their vacation trip visiting in Minnesota, Tennessee and elsewhere. During their absence the Medford Congregational church will be supplied by the Rev. Lloyd G. Knight. He and Mrs. Knight will live in the parsonage.

Shady Cove and Trail
Shady Cove-Trail — Mrs. Cecil Kee of Shady Cove was hostess at her home for members of the HEC of Shady Cove Grange on May 10. Nine members and three guests attended.

Mrs. Edna Swanson and daughter, Linda, are leaving Saturday for Twin Falls, Ida., where they plan to make their home. Mrs. Swanson's home was formerly in Twin Falls. Mr. and Mrs. George Russell and family have rented her house across from the Assembly of God Church in Shady Cove.

Mrs. Eva Segessenman of Shady Cove correctly identified the song title as "Whispering Hope" from the exhibit on display at the Rainbow cafe as prepared by Mrs. Zella Tullis and from the clues to the song written below and won a fish dinner for identifying same.

Those in charge of the Mother's Day breakfast held at the VFW hall by Steelhead Auxiliary No. 6881 on Sunday, May 8, announce that it was considered a success. Seen attending the breakfast by the correspondent during the short time she was there were the Joe Waltz family, Mr. and Mrs. Reed McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Krotz, son Dan III and grandson, Dan IV, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Jones, the Ed Leaming family, a d Frances Johnson.

Jack Schauble of Shady Cove, who received a back injury when his speedboat flipped at Emigrant Lake and who has been confined to Community hospital came home Tuesday and is able to receive visitors, although he is in a cast. Jesse Smith, brother of Mrs. Cyril Allen of Shady Cove, who is confined to the Community Hospital also and was in the same ward as Jack Schauble is expected home in about a week. Dick Bartus, who has been confined to Sacred Heart hospital for treatment is now convalescing at home. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hanson and family of Elk Creek, Trail, have been very sick with the flu but all of them are better now. Mrs. Johnnie Minor of Shady Cove is still confined mostly at home as the result of injuries suffered in an accident about two Sundays ago. Mrs. William Leekey of Shady Cove is leaving Friday for Portland where she will receive medical treatment.

Feeding the Family

Frozen Canned Pears for Salads—Desserts
If this neat trick is not in your salad or dessert repertory, you've pleasant surprises in store. Put a No. 2 or No. 2 1/2 can of Bartlett pears in food freezer or ice cube compartment of refrigerator for 12 hours, or longer until frozen. When ready to serve, run hot water over outside of can; then open both ends and push frozen pears from can with end lid.

Pear-dice Desserts. Top frozen pears slices with whipped cream into which you've folded some crushed peppermint stick candy... or fold chipped chocolate mints into whipped cream for topping... or top with vanilla ice cream and strawberry sundae sauce... or make a sandwich with the frozen pear slices between large ginger cookies.

Pear-dice Salads. Place frozen canned pear slice on salad greens. Top with cottage cheese and mayonnaise... or top with mayonnaise, shredded carrot and salted peanuts... or top with mayonnaise into which you've crumbled some blue cheese.

Put Plentiful Raisins in God Appliance Cake
Many delectable baked treats depend on raisins for flavor and texture. Raisins are being featured because of their super-abundance. Keep them on hand for eating out-of-hand; use them liberally in cookies, puddings, bread, cake, fruit cups, salads and in applesauce. And by all means make this delectable applesauce cake. Leave plain or frost.

1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup unsweetened applesauce
1 cup raisins
1 cup chopped nuts

Sift together flour, baking powder, soda, salt and spices. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg, mixing well. Add flour mixture to creamed mixture alternately with applesauce. Add raisins and nuts. Bake in greased pan, 8 x 8 inches in moderate, 350 degree oven, 45 to 50 minutes. Nine generous servings.

Flank Steak Is Flavorous Dish
Flank steak is good eating at low cost; it is too often overlooked. It is a flavorful boneless thin steak which is easily recognized by its slightly rectangular shape. Scoring into diamond shape cuts the lengthwise fibers to increase tenderness. Favored method of cooking is oven braising in a tart, savory sauce. We like the way many Italians fix it.

So will you folks. For Italian style flank, the seasoned floured steak is browned in salad oil. A clove of garlic, a bit of cloves and thin sliced lemon in beef bouillon makes the sauce in which the steak is slowly cooked about two hours. The thickened broth becomes a good seasoning for hot noodles to serve with the steak. Italian bread sticks seem a natural accompaniment.

Fruited Pork Tenderloin Is Sweet-Sour Treat
Pork tenderloin is well named because it is tender; yet the fibers run lengthwise and special cutting is desirable to take advantage of natural tenderness. Some times very small tenderloins are braised without cutting

Installations Set At Nazarene Church

In the morning, worship service Sunday, the officers and teachers of the Nazarene Bible school will be officially installed for the new church year.

The church school board, composed of the Rev. R. W. Hurn, pastor, Ed Taylor, director of Christian education; Loren Scheel, Sunday school superintendent; Mrs. Lowell Shepard, Miss Lilly Bodenstam, Mrs. Clarence Starkey, Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. Grace Bohl, Mrs. Curtis Sorenson and Mrs. George McUne Sr., will meet tonight to complete appointments to the teaching staff of the schools.

News has been received that the Medford church has the largest Sunday school of any Nazarene group in the state of Oregon. Family day will also be observed Sunday.

Returned Missionary To Speak Here Sunday

The Rev. Victor Macy, a returned missionary after many years of service in Portuguese East Africa will be heard in an address Sunday evening at the Free Methodist church. He will speak during the youth service to a combined audience of youth and adults. The meeting will open at 7 p.m.

The speaker also will show a film of his own production, a full-length picture in sound and color, regarding phases of African life in the daily activities of the natives. The film runs for one hour and a second showing will be made at 9 p.m., if interest demands.

Sunday Law on Sales Of Automobiles Upheld

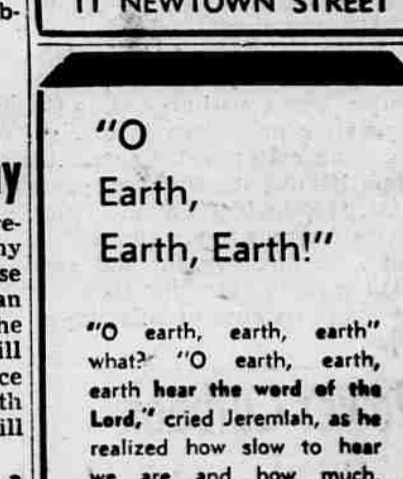

Portland — (U.P.) — Portland's law against selling cars on Sunday was upheld by Municipal Judge John J. Murchison yesterday.

The ruling came in a test case brought by several used car dealers. Joe Dobbins, a dealer, was fined $50 for sale of a car on Sunday.

The ruling cleared the way for appeal to the Multnomah county Circuit Court where the law was held constitutional in 1932 by the late Circuit Judge MacCormac Snow.

State Jaycee Members

Bend — (U.P.) — Several hundred Junior Chamber of Commerce members and their wives were on hand here today for the annual state Jaycee convention. Rep. Walter Norblad (R-Ore.), is scheduled to give the main speech tomorrow night.

"O Earth, Earth, Earth!"
"O earth, earth, earth" what? "O earth, earth, earth" heard the word of the Lord," cried Jeremiah, as he realized how slow to hear we are and how much, heaven or hell, depends upon our hearing.

The Psalmist said, "I will hear what God the Lord shall speak." Will you?
