Members, Friends Invited to Meeting Of Clinic Group

Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, president of the Southern Oregon Child Guidance Clinic association, has invited members of the association and friends to attend the second annual association meeting.

It will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, May 16, in St. Mark's church guild hall, Fifth st. and Oakdale ave. The association expects a large attendance. There are 710 members, an increase of 100 in the last year.

Dessert will be served at the beginning of the meeting with music provided by the Ashland High school orchestra. The association hopes that all can come for the dessert and social hour, and the business meeting, to be held at 8 p.m. The speaker of the evening will be introduced at 8:30 p.m. A silver collection will be made to defray expenses of the refreshments.

To Name Members

A short business meeting will follow with an election of seven new board members to fill the vacancies of seven present members going off the board.

Mrs. Joy Hills Gubser, assistant superintendent of the state department of education will speak about the place of the clinic in relationship to schools and community. A discussion period will be held afterwards, moderated by Dr. John Waterman, director of mental health section, state board of health. Mrs. Gubser comes to Medford after helping conduct the southern Oregon special education conference at Klamath Falls, so she will be familiar with the community's resources and problems.

Accident Victim Moved to Medford

Mrs. A. L. (Ruby May) Bartley, 55, Talent, was transferred to Sacred Heart hospital in Medford Saturday from Ashland, where she has been hospitalized since April 14.

Mrs. Bartley was the victim of a hit-run accident on that date, when she was hit by a car while walking along the highway near Talent. She suffered serious injuries to both legs and her left arm. She is still undergoing treatment for her injuries.

Two Portland brothers, Claude Richard Day, 23, and Jack LeRoy Day, 19, both Portland, are being held on charges arising out of the accident. They were brought here from Los Angeles. Last week Judge H. K. Hanna denied a motion made in their behalf to change their pleas from guilty to innocent, and they are now awaiting sentencing.

STAY-AT-HOME

Kalamazoo, Mich. —(U.P.)— Joseph B. Weiss, 65, a retired railroad engineer, figures he traveled a distance equal to 62 times around the world during 48 years of railroading. And he never left the state of Michigan.
