Jacobsen-Travis Service Held in Methodist Church

Gold Hill—An event of Sunday, May 8, was the wedding of Miss Doris Jane Travis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Travis, 1246 Second avenue, Gold Hill, to Marvin A. Jacobsen. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Arthur Robson, Vancouver, B.C., and Arnold P. Jacobsen, Klamath Falls.

The ceremony was read at 3 o'clock in the afternoon by Dr. Raymond Balcomb at First Methodist church, Medford. About 125 guests attended.

Miss Diane Travis, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Carl Burk were honor attendants. Bridesmaids were the Misses Virginia Larson and Carol Wikstrom.

Bert Wenner was best man and ushers were Dr. Paul Dix, Carl Burk and Kenny Owens.

Mr. Travis gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown of mouseline was fashioned with a full skirt worn over net and satin edged in lace, and the bodice was made with a net yoke with lace trim. Her fingertip length veil was held by a Juliet cap and she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and stephanotis with a white orchid.

The maid-of-honor wore a gown of pink nylon and tulle in princess design and her flowers were blue Ester Reed daisies.

The matron of honor and the bridesmaids wore matching gowns of blue nylon and tulle and they carried yellow Ester Reed daisies. Their headresses were of tulle and daisies.

Decorations were baskets of mixed pastel gladiolus, iris, stock and daisies arranged with candelabra. Mrs. Greg MacDougall sang and Mrs. Charles Adamson was the organist.

The reception was held at the church. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Burnath Morgan. Mrs. Wilbur Howell cut the cake with Miss Rowena Funston assisting. Serving the punch was Mrs. Kenneth Owens and Mrs. Earl Moore poured coffee.

For the occasion the bride's mother wore a rose lace dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a nylon dress of pastel shades and her accessories were white. Both wore lavender orchid corsages.

The couple made their trip through the California redwoods to San Francisco.

The bride attended Scappoose Union High school; Canoga Park High school in California and Santa Monica City college. She has been employed as a bookkeeper at the offices of O. P. Taylor, certified public accountant.

The bridegroom, who attended Klamath Union High school, is a machinist at the Kliever Machine shop.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Nellie Pomeroy, grandmother of the bride, from Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jacobsen and family of Yakima, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. H. N. McMahon, Klamath Falls. Eugene Jacobsen is a brother of the bridegroom.

Medford Youth Misses Election by Slim Vote

Fresno, Calif.—Bob Hall, Medford, missed being elected Fresno State college student body president by 55 votes last week.

Hall, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Raymond Hall, 19 Highland dr., polled 663 votes to 718 for the winner, Newman Black, Fresno.

An interfraternity rivalry figured prominently in the voting. Hall is treasurer of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon chapter at Fresno State.

Hall is the junior class president and is majoring in accounting.
