

Dick Donovan Heaves 3rd Shutout As White Sox Move Up in Circuit

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Dick Donovan put seven years of bitter frustration behind him today and he just could be the fellow who'll enable the Chicago White Sox to end their own frustrating, 35-year quest of an American League pennant.

Donovan, who started pitching back in 1947 and never won a game in four previous major league trials, turned in his third straight shutout Sunday when the White Sox scored 3-0 and 5-4 victories over the Washington Senators. The sweep moved the White Sox to within a game of the first-place Cleveland Indians and put them a game and a half ahead of the third-place New York Yankees — both of whom split Sunday's doubleheaders.

The White Sox made it six wins in their last seven games when Sandy Consuegra's fine relief pitching helped them pull out the nightcap. George Kell doubled home Nelson Fox in the ninth inning to snap a 4-4 tie and give Consuegra — whose e.r.a. is a glittering 1.13 — his third straight win.

Orioles-Indians Split

Jim Wilson and Ray Moore collaborated in a five-hitter as the Baltimore Orioles beat the Detroit Tigers 4-1, in their opener. The Indians, however, rebounded behind Mike Garcia's seven-hitter to take the nightcap, 5-0. Lemon's loss was his second while Garcia's victory was his third.

Irv Noren's grand slam homer and Bob Turley's 12 strikeouts featured an 8-4 Yankee triumph after little Bobby Shantz pitched the Kansas City Athletics to a 4-3 verdict in the opener. Turley raised his strikeout total to 69 — tops in the majors — while Shantz recorded his third win.

Harvey Kuenn's four hits paced the Detroit Tigers to a 9-3 victory after the Boston Red Sox pounded out 12 hits for a 10-4 triumph.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, New York Giants and Milwaukee Braves all split their National League doubleheaders while the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-1, in a single contest.

Newcombe Wins Fifth

Ted Kluszewski drove in five runs with his ninth homer and three singles as the Redlegs routed the Dodgers, 11-4, after Don Newcombe gained his fifth straight win with a 7-1 decision for Brooklyn in the opener.

Warren Hacker's seven-hitter produced a 5-2 win for the Cubs but the Giants came back with a 13-hit attack and a 9-4 triumph. Don Mueller hit safely in both games and tied the record of 24 straight games established for the club by Fred Lindstrom in 1930. Sal Maglie won the nightcap.

Ed Mathews hit two homers for the Braves who handed the Philadelphia Phillies a 13th straight loss, 6-5, but Robin Roberts stopped the team one short of its all-time losing streak mark with a seven-hitter and a 9-1 decision in the second game. It was Roberts' fourth win.

19 Turn Out For Cheney Studs Drill

The Medford Cheney Studs started practice sessions at the fairgrounds baseball park Sunday with one of the best first day turnouts in recent years.

Player Manager Clarence Melbye reported that 19 aspirants were on hand. They included ex-Studs and high school and college aspirants.

Ex-Studs on hand included Jack Cooney, Howard Morris, Larry Bigham, Harvey Tonn and Cliff Piland. Morris and Bigham were here over the week end from Linfield college.

Among others on hand were Ritchie Price, Keith Johnson, Bill McLean, Charles Rettman and Wallace Loop from Southern Oregon college; Ed McCullough and Ken Piland, from Medford high; Vern Parent and Kay Kelley, from Crater high, and Herb Trautman.

Workouts Continue

High school baseballers won't be able to play semi-pro ball until their prep seasons are over and college boys can't play until examinations are past.

Melbye indicated that he was pleased with the drill and the turnout. The Stud candidates went through hitting, infield and outfield practice.

Workouts will continue at 5:30 p.m. every day this week through Friday. All players interested are invited to turn out.

Tennis Players Eye District Mix

Rain forced cancellation of the Medford-Roseburg high tennis engagement Saturday after the Medford club had traveled to Roseburg for the match.

Next action for the Black Tornado netters is in the district meet at Ashland. It is scheduled this Friday and will begin in the morning.

Padres Sweep Doublebill; Other Clubs Split in PCL

By DON THACKERY

The San Diego Padres were finished today with a week of Stargazing and calculated they could grab the Pacific Coast League pennant if they could keep up their astrology course.

The Padres, who tied all last year with the Hollywood Stars, pulled the switch on their northern neighbors last week by winning seven out of eight games and vaulting from third place to first in the standings.

The Pads were helped out by the rest of the league—all of whom spun their wheels by splitting Sunday doubleheaders while the San Diego team won two.

Red Raiders Divide at Humboldt

Ashland — Southern Oregon college split a doubleheader with the Humboldt State college baseball nine Saturday at Arcata, Calif.

The Red Raiders from Oregon uncoroked 17 hits and tallied in every inning but the fourth to get the first game 11 to 5. Humboldt nipped the Raiders 9 to 8 in the second.

A home run by Dick Nix and doubles by Ted Landers, Ritchie Price and Fred Luper featured the opener. Price and Luper hit three for four each, Tiger Bob Smith got two for two and Ellis and Nix two for four.

3-0 Record

Ned Landers put his SOC pitching record at three wins and no losses.

In the second fray the Raiders had an 8 to 7 lead after piling up four runs in the seventh innings but Humboldt came back with two markers to gain the decision. Keith Johnson and Charles Rettman hit two for four for SOC and Tuttle swatted four for five for Humboldt.

The Arcata series completed the regular season for Southern Oregon with a 10-win three-loss record. Next is the Oregon Collegiate Conference tourney this week end at Klamath Falls.

LINESCORES:

Crater Plays At Bandon

Central Point — Crater high will travel to Bandon on Tuesday to play-off for the District 6 A-2 baseball championship. Winner will oppose the District 6 A-1 victor for a state tournament berth.

The Tuesday game will be at night. Daytimes at Bandon reportedly have been too windy this season to permit play.

Crater won the southern division title with a six-win no loss record in the Rogue league. Bandon has won games from Sutherlin and Glendale in the Umpqua Valley circuit. Week end action planned with Myrtle Creek was rained out. At last report Sutherlin led the Umpqua loop. Bandon was not a member of that northern division circuit.

Prospect Smoker Said Successful

Prospect — Screams, shouts and groans echoed through the hills Thursday night, May 12, when the Prospect high school lettermen's club staged the liveliest smoker residents of the community had seen in years.

Highlights of the smoker were the boxing bout between Don Burwell and Lyle Pope and the tag team wrestling match in which Frank Artmore, Bob Jones, Pope and Burwell participated. There was plenty of action throughout the evening and a special attraction was a four-man, blindfold grappling tussle with Jim Martin, Ken Oswald, George Bruch and Walter Friday as contestants.

Lettermen cleared more than $90. Principal John B. Harr reported, Coach Wesley Stauffer, club advisor, and the lettermen expressed pleasure concerning the fine attendance and thanked those who turned out for their generous contributions.

Fanfare

By DICK JEWETT
Mail Tribune Sports Editor

The tents pitched at Southern Oregon college's Fuller field by Coach Bob Newland and his Black Tornado track squad proved both a novel idea and a practical one at the district track meet at Ashland Saturday. Purpose of the tents was to keep the Medford thinclads out of the hot sun. They served the purpose all right but the sun turned out to be of the so-called "liquid" variety.

Seeing the tents prompted George Curtis, sportswriter for the Grants Pass Daily Courier, to ask Newland something like this: "What have you here, Olympic village?"

There is no "cover" at the Ashland college's athletic field, save for an equipment shed under the grandstand. Track fans and officials who did not seek the security of the shed, did not wear parkas got considerably soaked in the rain, particularly near the end of the meet.

The scoresheet at the open air scoring table got so soaked that attempts to write on it only gouged it and the scorers just had to give up making entries.

It was a couple of hours after the meet was over before the results were retabulated and the team scores were available from Gen Allison of the Ashland high school athletic department.

This writer had a typewriter set up on the top of a stove, a cold one, in the equipment shed and typed the results, standing up, as the events were finished. But he had to await Allison's count for the final score.

THOUGHTS ECHOED

Curtis probably echoed the thoughts of seven schools taking part in the district meet at Ashland when he remarked that the meet probably would be a lot better if Medford were not entered.

GRIT, DETERMINATION

When Don Crowl, Medford's ace quarter miler suddenly slowed about 50 yards from the finish line of his event Saturday, this writer thought that the leg muscle which had been ailing the runner had tied up on him. But Coach Bob Newland said that wasn't so.

He pointed out that the pulled muscle had kept Crowl from doing the running necessary to maintain his stamina. His endurance just gave out. He appeared to finish with sheer grit and determination. Newland mentioned that Crowl would not have run in the relay had it been the leg that gave him trouble in the 440.

Don has posted the best 440 time in the state so far this year and Tornado hopes are high that he'll be in great shape for the state meet at Corvallis next Saturday.

FINE PLANT

Except for lack of cover Southern Oregon college has a fine football and track plant. The new cinder track is somewhat soft but will pack with use. It does not get muddy, which is one thing Dan Bulkeley, the SOC track mentor, is pleased about.

SO League Not Settled On Scuffles

Only thing sure about play of make-up games in the Southern Oregon Baseball conference this morning was that Klamath Falls and Medford highs would not play this afternoon.

Principal Lester Harris and Coach Alex McDonald of Medford said that the Medford field is not in condition for action because of rain.

While there is nothing definite, it is possible that Medford and Klamath Falls will tussle here at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday with Klamath Falls and Grants Pass playing their doubleheader on Wednesday or Thursday.

Medford would have been under a handicap, possibly, if it would have had to play today since it is senior skip day.

District Committeemen Lester Harris, Medford, Charles Carlson, Klamath Falls, and Frank Thomas, Grants Pass, were conferring today. Carlson is chairman.

PIONEERS TIP BEARCATS

Salem — (U.P.) — Willamette dropped its first dual track meet of the season Saturday, by a 75-56 margin to Lewis and Clark.

Porter Defeats Hussane With Aid From Referee; Lord Carlton Due Next Week

Lord Carlton and Gene "The Body" Stables, both widely-known wrestlers on television, will appear at Merrick's arena here next Saturday night. Promoter Mack Lillard has announced.

It took Mack Lillard and an officer of the law to convince Yogi Hussane to leave the ring following his freakish defeat by Logger Porter in the feature match of Saturday night's wrestling card at Merrick's arena.

By virtue of the victory, Porter retained the $100 which he had posted to get Hussane to agree to the match.

Falls stood at one apiece in the hectic struggle which kept the small crowd screaming with excitement, when Hussane turned to vent his wrath on Referee Buck Davidson for imagined interference. Davidson, not wanting to become involved, took several punches from Hussane until Porter came up behind the Turk and put on a full Nelson. Then Davidson slugged Hussane to the mat where Porter fell on him to win the last fall with a body press.

Hussane stormed around the ring, challenging anyone who would listen, paying particular attention to a ringside lady who had been spraying him with a water pistol all evening, until Lillard and the officer ordered him out of the ring.

Entries Mailed For Boat Races

Entries have been mailed out to possible northern California, Oregon and southwestern Washington participants in the Western Speedboat association regatta planned for Sunday, June 5.

The motorboat races will be at Emigrant lake. Fishermen's racing competition in the morning will be a feature this year. Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce again will co-sponsor the regatta with the WSA.

Tom Reeder, Jay Pierce, John Smith and Dick Bowers met recently with Mrs. Bill Barnes, WSA secretary, and Mrs. Frank Grover, WSA publicity chairman for the races, to plan the event.

Porter took the first fall in five minutes and 20 seconds and Hussane evened it three minutes and 40 seconds later when another Porter giant swing backfired. After putting Hussane through the swing, Porter threw him to the mat and jumped for the press but Hussane rolled from under Porter and came up with a Boston crab. The winning spill came in a minute and 40 seconds.

Cyclone Johnnie Cobb dropped the first fall to Champ Thomas and came on to take the next two to cop their semi-windup bout. Thomas took the first fall with five dropkicks and a press in 11 minutes and 12 seconds and succumbed to Cobb's abdominal stretch in 13.35. Thomas stayed in the stretch too long and was injured to the extent Davidson wouldn't let him come out for the third fall.

It was a spectacular battle, marked by Thomas' flashy dropkicks and Cobb's speed and skill.

Larry Presnell and Cowboy Wes Knap went 30 minutes to a draw in a battle of legs. Presnell took a fall in 5:50 with a re-
