The accident occurred as Minor was traveling west on West Jackson st. Richard, police said, ran into the street in front of the approaching vehicle.

Wall Street

New York—(U.P.)—The stock market resisted pressure today and for a time the whole list moved higher.

Profit taking developed again toward closing. It brought prices down from their highs and lower in some sections.

Southern Railway stood out as the strong spot in the carrier section and helped offset a 3 point decline in Union Pacific.
