

Rivals Shudder Before Card Tossers; Jackson Blanks Brooklyn Nine

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

There was a time when Eddie Stanky would look at his St. Louis Cardinals' pitching staff and shudder, but today things have changed — it's the opposing clubs who look at it and shudder.

Once considered just a bunch of humpties, the Cardinal pitchers suddenly have blossomed into a staff of world-beaters with an amazing record of only one run allowed in the last four games.

Rookie Larry Jackson, a 23-year-old right-hander, pitched the Cardinals, 3-0 Tuesday night. Jackson scattered 10 hits in handing the Dodgers their first whitewashing of the season and booting the Cards into third place in the National league.

Backed by an attack that included homers by Red Schoendienst and Ken Boyer, Jackson was the second Redbird rookie to hurl a shutout in as many days. Rookie southpaw Luis Arroyo blanked Pittsburgh, 6-0 Monday.

Joe Nuxhall helped Cincinnati climb into sixth place with a 9-2 victory over the Pirates, who dropped their sixth game in a row. Nuxhall yielded only eight hits in recording his fourth conquest and started the Redlegs on their way to victory with a three-run double in the second inning.

Milwaukee Beats Giants

Milwaukee moved into second place by beating the Giants, 9-4, as lanky Gene Conley posted his fifth victory. The Braves blasted five New York pitchers for 15 hits, Joe Adcock leading the way with a homer and three singles. Don Mueller's hitting streak was snapped at 24 straight games.

The game between the Cubs and Phillies was postponed because of cold weather.

In the American league, southpaw Alex Kellner pitched and batted Kansas City to a 1-0 triumph over Washington. Kellner gave up eight hits in gaining his third victory and collected two of the six hits off loser Mickey McDermott.

Lefty Whitey Ford of the Yankees also won a 1-0 game against the White Sox even though Chicago out-hit New York seven to four. A sixth inning streak of wildness by Billy Pierce paved the way for the only run. He walked Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra, the first two men to face him in the sixth, each on four pitches. Mantle stole third from where he scored on an infield out.

The loss left Chicago a game behind Cleveland, which also lost, 10-3, to Boston. Jackie Jensen hit a three-run homer for the Red Sox and Eddie Joost connected for one with the bases empty.

Ex-Dodger Erv Palica picked up his second victory for Baltimore by beating Detroit, 3-2. One of Palica's former Dodger teammates, Billy Cox, homered off loser Ned Garver, while rookie catcher Hal Smith was credited with two runs batted in.

Last of Ex-Masters Bowling Champions Ousted

Fort Wayne, Ind. (U.P.)—The last of the former Masters champions competing for the 1953 title in the American Bowling Congress tournament was eliminated last night when Willard Taylor lost a loser's bracket match.

The Charleston, W. Va., bowler was ousted by Tony Lindemann, Detroit, 760-681.

In another highlight, Buzz Fazio, Detroit, rolled a record series for the current Masters, and the sixth highest posted in the Masters when he defeated Stan Thaden, Chicago, 925-843. Fazio had games of 244, 236, 208 and 237.

MEDFORD TRIBUNE SPORTS

BACK IN UNIFORM—Red Sox slugger Ted Williams strikes a familiar pose as he watches ball fly into right-field stands at Fenway Park in Boston during batting practice. He signed a one-year contract for an estimated $100,000.

Mae Shirtcliff Leader in Ladies Events of SO Bowling Tourney

Mae Shirtcliff, Myrtle Creek, is pacing women's competition in three departments and shares the lead in another in the Southern Oregon Handicap tournament at Medford Bowling lanes.

Mrs. Shirtcliff is singles leader with 640, has all-events top place with 1770 and has high game with 234. She and Ellen Jones, Myrtle Creek, have high doubles score so far with 1198. Jorgensen's dairy, Medford heads teams with 1198.

In men's play two Medford duos are tied in doubles. Bob Dyer and Jerry Burroughs have a 1269 count along with Earl Lenz and Bud Wilson. Joel Coe, Roseburg, leads in singles with 692 and Bob Jones, Myrtle Creek, is in front in all-events with 1912.

McNamara and Peepe Lumber, Crescent City, Calif., still is on top with a 2990 team total.

Women's teams—Jorgensen's dairy, Medford, 2945; Porter's No. 1, Sutherlin, 2517; Rieland's garage, Grants Pass, 2599; Left Overs, Medford, 2582.

Women's doubles—Mae Shirtcliff and Ellen Jones, Myrtle Creek, 1198; Ethel Goode and Dorothy Jantzer, Medford, 1156; Anita Nichols and Dell Mix, Sutherlin, 1138; Lucille Schlack and Lee Livermore, Crescent City, 1129.

Dusty No Longer Rusty; Gets 1st Hit of Season

Milwaukee, Wis. (U.P.)—Dusty has been rusty.

The rollicking Rhodes who sparked the Giants to many a victory with his pinch-hitting heroics last season, finally came through for them Tuesday night — for the first time this season.

In 11 games as a pinch-swinger Rhodes previously had failed to get a hit although he was safe once on an error and drew walks twice.

Tuesday night's hit was a pinch single that drove in a run.

Beshore, Arthur Bout Postponed Ten Days

Vancouver, B. C. (U.P.)—The heavyweight boxing match between South African champion Johnny Arthur and Freddy Beshore of Los Angeles, originally scheduled for Saturday here was postponed for 10 days yesterday to allow Beshore extra training.

Local boxing promoter Mickey McGuire tentatively re-scheduled the fight for May 30 after talking to Beshore's manager, Babe McCoy.

TO KEEP NAME

St. Louis (U.P.)—Ben Kerner, owner of the Milwaukee Hawks who transferred his National Basketball team here because of poor attendance, said the club will be known as the St. Louis Hawks, since a change "might invite considerable confusion."

The Hawks will retain their position in the Western Division of the NBA along with the Rochester Royals, Minneapolis Lakers and Fort Wayne Pistons.

LINFIELD WINS

Portland (U.P.)—A six-run rally in the fourth inning propelled Linfield to a 10-7 baseball victory over Portland State yesterday at Sellwood park here.

GP Cancels Frays With Studs Nine

The Medford Cheney Studs baseball series with the Grants Pass Elks semi-pro nine this Saturday and Sunday, has been cancelled. Studs Business Manager Bill Askwith reported today.

He said that Grants Pass reported that it can't get a team together and that GP Manager Mel Ingram is too busy with high school baseball.

Askwith stated that attempt was made to get games with Roseburg but that the Chiefs are not yet ready to play. First action for the Studs then will be against Roseburg on May 28 and 29 here in the Southern Oregon League.

The Studs will continue practice in evenings through Friday this week. They will drill Sunday afternoon. An intersquad game may be played if the turnout is large enough. The public is welcome to watch. About 10 prospective players practiced last night.

Harold Johnson Placed on Stand

Philadelphia (U.P.)—Light-heavyweight Harold Johnson took the witness chair today to tell all he remembers about his "blatout" bout with Julio Mederos which the State Athletic commission has termed a "sham."

The 26-year-old Johnson, a second round technical knockout victim when a sleep inducing drug collapsed him on his ring stool, was the first to testify as the commission resumed its hearings into the nationally televised bout 12 days ago. The hearings, which opened on Monday, were recessed yesterday because of the Pennsylvania primary elections.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday; 1 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.

newly arrived on option from the Phillies, drove in the tie-breaking run in the eighth inning with a bad-hop double over third baseman Don Eggert's head. Carl Scheib 2-2 was the loser.

The win left the Rainiers a game and a half behind the Padres who defeated Sacramento, 5-2, for their fourth consecutive triumph and 14th out of 15.

Other Games

In other PCL games, third-place Los Angeles stayed in contention with an 11-inning 3-2 victory over San Francisco and Hollywood edged Oakland, 2-1, in 10 innings.
