Shady Cove Voters Pass School Budget

School officials at Shady Cove today pointed out that an election in the Shady Cove school district Monday was reported incorrectly to The Mail Tribune. The election was on approval of the rural school budget, and yesterday's report indicated it failed to pass in Shady Cove. Actually, it was reported, the vote was 44 in favor of the budget and 18 against, with the number of those casting votes the largest in any recent school election except on bond issues.

Shady Cove voters also approved a special $500 school district levy, at the same time.

Voters were circularized before the election, and school administrators attributed the unusually large vote to this. They said they are hoping for even a better turnout for the election of three school directors on June 20.

Detroit Police End Scheduled Gang Fight

Detroit —(U.P.)— Police today held 37 teen-aged youths after nipping in the bud what threatened to be the "biggest gang fight in Detroit's history."

The youths were rounded up last night by 30 police who rushed to the scene after they were tipped by two anonymous callers that the battle had been scheduled.

The callers told police a group of high school students, angered over a beating of a fellow student by a street gang last week, had challenged the gang to fight.

Police arrived on the scene shortly before the first carload of nine teen-agers pulled up. Carloads of youths continued to pour into the area where the fight was scheduled for several hours after the first arrests, police said.
