

Peter Pan Story To Be Theme of Dance Program

The story of "Peter Pan" in dance will be presented by pupils of Miss Pat's dance studio at the Craterian theater Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21. The story has been divided into five acts: "The Dance Studio," the second, "Dream Bedroom," third, "The Beach," fourth, "Under the Ocean," and five is again "The Studio."

Miss Karen Stelle will be presented as Peter Pan, Miss Jo Ann Johnson as Wendy and Miss Karen Adele as the teacher. Cherie Aldrich will be Tinker Bell.

A large cast of dancers will be presented in group numbers. In Miss Pat's adaptation of "Peter Pan" Wendy is the dance pupil who is always late to dancing school, who eats too much candy and doesn't pay attention to teacher. In a dream she meets Peter Pan, who never had a mother to give him dancing lessons, Tinker Bell, and Captain Hook, the Pirates who take what they please but never live long, and the gold that can't buy friends, love or courage.

Assisting Miss Pat with the production are Clifford Aldrich, master of ceremonies, her assistant teacher, Miss Adele, Steve Bayliss, who worked on set design; Mesdames E. L. Isaacs, Aaron Ayres, J. R. Campbell, Don Niedermeyer, Everett Given, William Knips, L. Johnson, W. E. Kerr, N. Wallin, Leona

Grochocki; roadside, Mrs. T. A. Lowe; telephone, Mrs. Bennett Austin.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Wanda Kane, Talent, Mrs. Ethel Carr of Phoenix, Mrs. Sybil Edwards and Mrs. Gail O'Connor of Medford.

Festival Tonight

The public is cordially invited to attend the elementary school music festival "Let There Be Music" tonight at the high school stadium beginning at 7:30 p.m. Over 750 students will participate. Special guest groups will be a brass ensemble and the choir from Medford Senior High school.

Four to Attend League Meeting; Name Candidates

Four members of Medford League of Women Voters will attend the biennial state convention of Oregon League of Women Voters to be held in Eugene May 22-24. More than 90 delegates, observers and state board members are expected to attend from the nine local and three provisional leagues in Oregon.

Attending from Medford will be the president, Mrs. Lucille Foster, Mrs. Robert D. Hiatt, Mrs. Fred Carr and Mrs. John S. Day.

The nominating committee, of which Mrs. V. N. Freeman of Eugene is chairman, has proposed the following slate of officers to be voted on at the convention: President, Mrs. Ronald K. Campbell, Corvallis; first vice-president, Mrs. K. E. Montgomery, Eugene; second vice-president, Mrs. Robert Wiener, Portland; secretary, Mrs. F. H. J. Dickmann, Corvallis; treasurer, Mrs. R. W. Weiss, Portland; directors: Mrs. Justin Smith, Medford; Charles Ford, Eugene; O. Miller, Salem; Walter W. McGuire, Portland; Wesley S. Shaner, Astoria; D. W. Richardson, Salem; chairman nominating committee, Mrs. Peter DeWitt, Portland.

Convention business will also include by-law changes, adoption of a budget, discussion of organization problems, and determination of a program for the next two years. The state board had suggested two program items for the current agenda. The first of these, measures to revise and strengthen the constitution of the state of Oregon, is a continuation of the work that has been done in this field by the League in the last two years. The second item, preservation of our Constitutional right, ties in with one of the two national current agenda items that deals with individual liberties and the public interest. In addition to these two items three Local League have submitted suggestions that deal with state election laws and problems relating to adoption of children in Oregon. These will also be considered by the delegates.

Plan Banquet

Homemakers' class, First Methodist church, will hold the annual banquet Friday, May 20, at 6:30 p.m. at the church. Harry DeVore is banquet chairman. Installation of officers will be held.
