I LIKE DENTISTS

Though still infested by nineteenth century practitioners who adopt the huckster's slogan as a principle of hygiene, that is, "a clean tooth never decays," is the dental profession, in America at any rate, commands my admiration today as it has ever since I began to study PERSONAL HEALTH.

To many unteachable old-timers this may seem ironic. The limit of their IQ is reached when they learn that I regard tooth brushing and anything fancier than plain toilet soap for mouth washing as mischievous for children and silly for grown-ups. They tell their customers that Quack Brady must be a "filthy" fellow—he never brushes his teeth!

Neither the old-timers nor dentists of the present, if any still honestly believe brushing with or without trick dentifrices prevents tooth decay, have thought up an explanation of the fact that the people with the finest teeth in the civilized world have never had any use for tooth brushes or nostrums, such as Yankee nitwits with rotten teeth apply so faithfully instead of getting proper prophylactic treatment by the dentist.

The people with the finest teeth, the least tooth decay, are the inhabitants of Tistan da Cunha, one of the "Lonely Isles" in the south Atlantic. Perhaps I should say they had the finest teeth, up to '48 or '49, when a Capetown-London company established a canning plant. That industrial development brought the first "store" where, for the first time, the island people could purchase refined groceries, candy, etc.—quick calories minus the vitamins and minerals they formerly got in un-

Sherwood Youngster Dies in House Fire

Sherwood, Ore. — (U.P.) — A 2½ year old girl died in flames Wednesday, but two other children were saved by their mother as fire destroyed their home one mile north of Six Corners on highway 99.

Dead was Nancy Leona Eoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Eoff, Route 4, Sherwood.

Mrs. Eoff, who was in the barn when the fire started about 6 p.m. saw the flames and managed to pull Russell Jr., 4, and 18-month-old Judy through the bedroom window to safety.

Cause of the fire, which apparently started in the bedroom, is unknown. Chief Bill Barngrover of the Tualatin fire department also tried to enter the children's bedroom, but was driven back by the flames.

Those Hindu snake charmers have quite a few tricks up their sleeves, we've got to admit... but so have we. We can charm your balking TV set into going through its paces tuncfully... and we're not "fakers" either. Call us, we'll bring our fluff to you. We can find it... and all the testing equipment needed to give you accurate, dependable service... for charming performance.

I tell only what I believe to be the truth. Likewise when I say every sound or functionally efficient tooth is worth at least $100—only in desperate need would I sell one of mine for $1,000—I'm trying to make you poor misguided people realize that your dentist's stock in trade includes good digestion, good health, vite, good looks and longevity.
