Closing Dance Planned by Club

Lively Rogues Dance club has planned the final dance of the season for Thursday, May 26, in the Ashland Elks ballroom. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. The dance will be the annual spring informal event and sports attire is appropriate, the committee states. A prize will be given to the man wearing the "loudest" shirt. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brandau and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McGinty are the host committee. Election of officers will be held, and K. E. Hutchinson will give the report of the nominating committee. The retiring officers are Robert Church, president; E. M. Anderson, vice-president; Mrs. R. K. Rians, secretary-treasurer.

About one-half of all males in Burma are illiterate.

VFW Auxiliary Elects Officers

Shady Cove — Mrs. Harry Birch was elected president of Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary in Shady Cove during a business session in VFW hall last week. Mrs. Frank Busch presided. Others named to office were Mrs. Jim Hopkins, senior vice - president; Mrs. Russell Stelle, junior vice - president; Mrs. Dale Sawyer, chaplain; Mrs. Ed Leaming, treasurer; Mrs. John Collins, guard; Mrs. Ivan Hale, three-year trustee; Mrs. Reed McKay, conductress. Mrs. Birch appointed Mrs. Dan Krotz as secretary; Mrs. Francis Miller, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Robert Colpitts, historian; Mrs. Claude Close, Mrs. Ivan Hale and Mrs. John Loper, color bearers.

Mrs. McKay reported that Mrs. Dale Sawyer's team won a prize for collecting the most dues, and Mrs. Dan Krotz secured the largest number of members for the year.

Mrs. Jim Cassal gave a report on the Buddy poster project and displayed the posters made by pupils of the Elk-Trail school.

Mrs. Dan Krotz, chairman for the community service scrapbook, reported that the auxiliary had won honorable mention on the national level.

Mrs. Ivan Hale reported that Girl Scouts had given a tea for their mothers, and the Brownie troops planned a flyup ceremony for May 20 at Shady Cove school.

Following the business meeting the post and auxiliary joined for refreshments.
