

Miss Carol Jean Herdman Bride of Raymond Klepper

Miss Carol Jean Herdman became the bride of Raymond Klepper in double ring rites May 14 at Medford Zion Lutheran church. The Rev. E. Paul Riedel, pastor of the Grace Lutheran church, Ashland, performed the ceremony at three o'clock in the afternoon. About 125 guests attended the wedding.

Auxiliary District Officers Named At Session Sunday

Several valley women were elected to district offices of the auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars during an annual spring encampment last Sunday at Brookings. Mrs. Edna Lafferty of Ashland was elected president and Mrs. Don Krotz, junior vice-president. Mrs. Fred Lawrence, retiring district president, presided.

Others from this area elected are Mrs. N. McKay, Shady Cove, treasurer; Mrs. Dee Beard, Medford, conductress; Mrs. Lena Orvis, Rogue River, guard; Mrs. Mae LaVerne Tedrick, Central Point; Mrs. Iva Blackwell, Ashland, secretary; Mrs. Ida Crosslin, Ashland, patriotic instructor; Mrs. O. O. DeBerry, Medford, historian; Mrs. Amy Randle, Medford, banner bearer; Mrs. flag bearer, and Mrs. Lois Leaming, Shady Cove, one of the color bearers.

Numerous department officers were at the session and included Mrs. Clarice Henderson, president; Mrs. Ted Hopkins, Rogue River, senior vice-president; Mrs. Richard Dickens, flag bearer and the wife of the department post commander; Miss Laurene Kell, conductress; Mrs. Al Bohannan, assistant guard; and Mrs. Harry Birch, hospital director.

All the officers were installed by Mrs. Henderson with the exception of the district president-elect who will be installed at the state encampment at Ocean Lake in July.

Mrs. Lawrence was presented a past district president's jewel by Mrs. Hopkins, and Mrs. Lawrence honored past presidents of the district by presenting gifts of Juliette rose plants. They are Mrs. Mollie Dover, formerly of Grants Pass; Mrs. I. D. Canfield, Mrs. Etha Wall and Mrs. R. E. Schulz, all of Medford; Mrs. Hopkins and Mrs. John Walker, formerly Shady Cove; Miss Kell, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Bohannan. Because of illness the district senior vice-president, Mrs. Scottie Parrick, Shady Cove, was unable to attend and submitted her resignation.

Chapter AA
Chapter AA, PEO members will hear a report of a recent convention when they meet Wednesday, May 25, at 12:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Otto J. Frohnmayer, 1656 Spring street. Assisting will be Mrs. Jessie Froyss and Mrs. John C. Collins.

The bride, a teller at Jackson County Federal Savings and Loan office, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Herdman, 1021 North Central avenue. The bridegroom is a salesman for the Zellerbach Paper company. He is the son of Mrs. John Tomlinson, San Fernando, Calif., who came north for the wedding.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Medford Junior and Senior High schools and the bridegroom also attended Southern Oregon college.

Mrs. Richard Lehman was honor attendant and Mrs. Elgin Amidon and Mrs. William Redhead were bridesmaids.

Cheryl Gardner and Linda Ammons, both nieces of the bride, were the flower girls.

Mr. Amidon was best man and ushers were James Sullivan, Jerry Downey, Frank Dorian and Bill Turman.

Mr. Herdman gave his daughter in marriage. Her ballerina length gown was of lace and nylon and her veil was fingertip length. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible, and wore a necklace which her mother had worn at her wedding.

Mrs. Lehman's gown was of rose colored taffeta in ballerina length and she wore a matching crown shaped hat. The bride's matrons were dressed in blue gowns similar to Mrs. Lehman's. The attendants carried nosegays of carnations which matched their gowns.

The candlelighters, Miss Helen Read and Miss Joyce Reeves, wore pastel organza dresses and their wristlets were of pink carnations. The flower girls wore pastel yellow gowns and carried baskets of petals.

Pews were marked with white flowers and baskets of pastel flowers decorated the altar. Mrs. Lyle Schoppert sang accompanied by Mrs. Paul Evensen at the organ.

The reception was held in the church rooms which were decorated with pastel carnations. Table decorations were carnations and gardenias.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue and white crepe dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of grey. Both had white accessories and corsages of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. May Klepper, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a grey summer suit with black accessories and her corsage also was of pink rosebuds.

Sisters of the bride assisted at the reception. Mrs. Jack Ammons serving the punch, Mrs. Ward Gardner, the cake, and Mrs. Ralph Brock had charge of the guest book.

Summer Band, Orchestra Program To Open June 7 for City Schools

The summer band and orchestra program for Medford city schools will open June 7 at Medford High school, according to I. A. Mirick, instrumental supervisor. Orchestra classes will be taught by John Drysdale and will run from June 7 until July 8.

Mr. Mirick will teach all the band classes beginning June 7 for the first session, which will last for three weeks. Following a three-week vacation for the students, band classes will resume July 18 and end July 28. All band classes will be held in room 32 and all orchestra classes in room 34 at the high school.

Instruction offered includes string, woodwind, brass and percussion classes for beginning and advanced students from the grades through high school. There will also be full band and orchestra experience for all categories.

During the last week in July, the junior high band and grade school band will each present one concert. The orchestra will close their season with a recital indoors and the concert band will present two concerts, one at the end of each session.

Parents of grade school pupils wishing to enroll in the summer band program are invited to attend the organizational meetings in the various grade schools. Following is the schedule of meetings: Monday, May 23, Jackson school at 1 p.m., Washington school at 1 p.m. and Lincoln school at 3 p.m. Roosevelt school will have a meeting Tuesday, May 24 at 1 p.m.

Meeting Announced By Mistletoe Club
Mistletoe club will meet at Girls Community club Wednesday, May 23. A covered dish luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Former Resident Now at Amherst Given Promotion

Amherst, Mass. — Among the 14 promotions on the Amherst college faculty recently announced by the board of trustees is that of Wendell V. Clausen, former resident of Medford, Ore., to the rank of associate professor in the classics department. Professor Clausen graduated from St. Mary's High school in Medford in 1941 and received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of Washington (Seattle) in 1945. He earned his doctorate at the University of Chicago in 1948 and came to Amherst that same year as an instructor in the classics, and was promoted to assistant professor in 1950.

The Amherst professor is a member of the American Philological association, the Medieval Academy of America, the New England Classical association, and Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic society. He was a William Rainey Harper Fellow in Humanities at the University of Chicago 1946-47 and 1947-48, and a fellow of the American Academy in Rome, 1952-53. His articles have appeared in a number of publications.

Mr. Clausen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Griffin, formerly of Medford and now of Grants Pass, and a brother of Mrs. Dan Hull, 1505 Wilson place.

Union Sponsors Speech Contest Thursday Night
