Dick Mayer Kansas City Open Victor

Kansas City, Mo. — (U.P.) — Dick Mayer of St. Petersburg, Fla., who got better as the pressure mounted, more than doubled his yearly golf earnings in four days as he took top money of $4,000 in the Kansas City open Sunday.

The handsome blond swinger shot a five-under-par 67 Sunday for a 271 total, six strokes in front of Texas Billy Maxwell and veteran Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., who tied at 277 and collected $1,950 apiece.

Rosburg Fourth — Mayer had rounds of 69, 67, 68 and 67—17 under par for 72 holes — for his winning total.

Bob Rosburg, young professional from San Francisco, was alone in fourth place with 278, good for $1,200 and a three-way tie for fifth knotted Henry Ransom, St. Andrews, Ill., Eric Monti, Los Angeles, and Bud Holscher, San Francisco. All had 279 totals and got $1,000 each. Ransom was the first day leader with a 65.

The pre-tourney favorites, Dr. Cary Middlecoff of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., and Gene Littler of Palm Springs, Calif., tied with Douglas Higgins of Midland, Tex., for eighth place with 280 totals.

Bout Hearing Resumed by Commission

By RUSS GREEN

Philadelphia — (U.P.) — Roly-poly Clarence (Skinny) Davidson, trainer for boxer Harold Johnson, returned to the witness stand today as the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission resumed its investigation of Johnson's drug-induced blackout during his bout with Julio Mederos two weeks ago.

Davidson, a postal employee for 31 years and Johnson's trainer from the time of his first bout, was to be followed by Joe Rowland and Lou Gross, seconds for Johnson during the bout; Tommy Loughrey, Johnson's manager of record; and Pete Moran, matchmaker for Herman Taylor who is charged by the commission with having a financial interest in Johnson.

Hearing Completion Near — The commission said it hoped to complete the hearing by Tuesday afternoon, but gave no indication of when any verdict could be reached.

Rowland was on the stand when the hearing recessed last Thursday. He followed Johnson after the light-heavyweight contender spent seven hours testifying during the first three days of the investigation.

Testimony during the opening days came from two commission doctors who stated that medical tests showed there was a barbiturate in Johnson's system before his weird collapse between the second and third rounds of the nationally televised bout.

Johnson said he did not take any drug willingly, nor had anyone approached him and asked him to throw the fight.

But, he testified, "someone took it upon themselves to see that I didn't fight my best."

The Mysterious Orange — Much of the testimony evolved about an orange given to Johnson by a "kind gentleman" after the noon weigh-in and carried about by the boxer until he ate it about 90 minutes before the fight.

It was held the orange might have been the agent to put the drug in Johnson's system, but the fine timing to make his collapse come just at the start of the fight is questioned.

Johnson also said he saw ex-convict Louis Saccharoma, of Miami, Fla., before the fight. Saccharoma is a co-manager with former middleweight champion Jake Lamotta of the Cuban Mederos.

Davidson said he didn't see Saccharoma in the dressing room, and Saccharoma denied in Florida that he was in Philadelphia the night of the fight.

Virgil Akins Picked To Defeat Joe Miceli

New York — (U.P.) — Welterweight Virgil Akins of St. Louis is a slight favorite at 6:25 to turn the tables on Joe Miceli of New York in their TV 10-rounder tonight at St. Nicholas arena.

Miceli, whose best punch is the rare left uppercut, won a decision over Virgil at Milwaukee on Sept. 30, 1952.

Since then Akins improved much under the new management of Eddie Yawitz, a St. Louis druggist.

Dead line Sunday. Classified is at noon Saturday, 1 p.m. Monday for Monday; other days 5:30 previous day.
