Applegate School Sets Graduation Thursday

Applegate — The Applegate eighth grade graduation exercises will be held Thursday, May 26, at 8 p.m. in the Applegate school gymnasium. The guest speaker will be Dr. Arthur Kreisman of Southern Oregon college.

J. Robert Tolle, chairman of the school board, will award the diplomas to the following graduates: Joyce Bourland, Julia Brown, Donald Davidson, Truman Elmore, Miriam Gopin, Marvin Gibson, Roger Hanson, James Lampert, Douglas McKay, Leo Pearson, Jerry Rowden, Lorene Stephenson, and Leorane Teske.

There will be music by the Applegate school chorus and band.

YOUNGSTER KILLED

Portland — (U.P.) — Multnomah county outside of Portland recorded its fifth traffic death of 1955 today. Allen Lowell Brown, 8, was struck and killed by a car near his home late yesterday. Police said he apparently ran into the street into the path of the vehicle.

Measles Again Lead List of Diseases

Forty-two cases of measles topped the list of 72 cases of communicable disease listed with the county health department last week.

Other illnesses include 13 cases of influenza, four each of chicken pox and German measles, three each of strep throat and pneumonia, two of mumps and one of rheumatic fever.

Meat Packers To Hear Details of Pilot Plan

Southern Oregon Meat Packers association will meet Friday, May 27, at 7:30 p.m., in the Jackson hotel, when a representative of the state agriculture department will be there to discuss the meat inspection pilot bill recently passed by the state legislature.

The dinner meeting will be attended by representatives from about 14 packers from Jackson, Klamath, Josephine and Douglas counties.

How the pilot program will be administered will be the topic of the meeting.
