

GOLF DAY MEDALS—Pictured above are the medals linkmen throughout the country will receive if they beat Ed Furgol and Babe Zaharias, national open champions, in National Golf day competition. Other golfers will match their net scores against the gross totals of the champs. National Golf day is Saturday, June 4, but Rogue Valley Country club linksters may play their 18-hole rounds starting Saturday, May 28.

TALENT BULLDOGS HEAD FOR B BASEBALL SCRAP

Talent — A squad of 14 Talent high players was to leave here today to contend in the state B baseball tournament at Echo. The Bulldogs, state co-champions in 1954 when the finals were rained out, encounter Echo in the 9 p.m. game of the first round on Friday. Their tilt follows the scuffle between Gaston and Glide at 7 p.m. Friday winners vie in the championship game on Saturday night with the Friday losers to compete for Third place.

Weinhold .368. McAbee has a .350 mark. Coghill was the leading pitcher with nine victories while Walter was credited with three. McAbee, whose regular position is catcher, was on the mound for three innings of Talent's losing cause against Ashland. He was charged with the defeat.

To reach the state tournament, Talent won the Jackson County B championship with five wins and no losses, trimmed Malin for the District 5B mantle and laced Moro in the interdistrict play-off.

Holly Mims Beats Green

St. Louis, Mo. — (U.P.) — Middleweight Holly Mims, as dangerous moving backward as a runaway trailer on a hill, demanded a title shot today.

That is to say his manager and spokesman, Nick Trotta, did the demanding. Holly, a solidly-built Negro from Washington, D.C., was as sparing with words as he was generous with punches Wednesday night in handing Charley Green a convincing defeat on points.

Mims, outweighed 154½ to 160, thrilled a scant crowd of 1,272 and an uncoupled national television audience by coming back from a near knockout in the ninth round to hammer out the unanimous verdict. "They can hardly turn him down for a shot at the title after that one," Trotta said as Mims nodded agreement.

Rogue Valley To Open Play For Golf Day

No particular tournament action is planned at Rogue Valley Country club over the Memorial holiday week end but members of the club will begin their National Golf day competition.

Club Pro Al Williams said that RVCC linksters may play their golf day rounds starting Saturday, May 28, and continuing through June 4. Men will try to beat Ed Furgol, U. S. Open champion, and women will try to better Babe Zaharias, national women's open titlist. The two champions will play at the Olympic club course at San Francisco on Saturday, June 4, which is actually National Golf day.

Golfers throughout the country will participate. If their net scores better the gross scores of the champs, they will get medals signifying the fact. Last year men competed against Ben Hogan with Tom MacLeod the only RV player to better the champ's total.

Harrington Defends Life Magazine and the Professional Golfers association are sponsors with the United States Golf association cooperating. Golf day dollar entry fees are turned over to worthwhile causes through the National Golf fund and this year to the American Red Cross.

A number of local golfers are expected to participate in tournaments elsewhere over this week end. George Harrington will defend his title Saturday, Sunday and Monday in the Roseburg invitational. His son, Gary, and his brother, Ivan, will also compete. A Medford team of four is to play Saturday and Sunday in the Alderwood invitational at Portland. Clayton Lewis and Bob Rector may be members of the team. Other RVCC linkmen may enter the medal play meet at Grants Pass on Sunday and Monday.

Williams reported that the annual Southern Oregon Junior championships will be staged here only June 6 and 7 with 36-hole medal play in all divisions. Young men will vie in the pee wee group for 11 years of age and under, boys group 12 to 15 years, and juniors 16 and 17. There will be a girls group for ages through 14 and a junior girls group for 15 through 17.

Harry Matthews Training Again

Seattle — (U.P.) — Harry (Kid) Matthews, Seattle heavyweight, said today he has resumed training and will again campaign actively in the heavyweight ranks. Matthews retired from boxing last year. He said motion pictures of the Marciano-Cockell fight influenced him in making his decision.

"Marciano looked so crude and awkward, against Cockell, I decided the champion is slipping," Matthews said. "I think a good boxer can beat him." Matthews' manager, Jack Hurley, was to meet with the fighter today to talk over future bouts. One possibility was a fight with the winner of the Pat McMurry-Bob Albright heavyweight fight here June 7. Matthews will continue to operate his fuel business in West Seattle.

Drivers Conduct Last Test Runs

Indianapolis — (U.P.) — Indianapolis Speedway purred with activity today for the last time before the big Memorial Day race as most of the 33 starters planned to take their racers out for final shakedown and carburetion tests.

The successful cars were torn down after Sunday's qualifications for careful chemical inspections designed to turn up any flaws which might cause an engine breakdown during the grueling 300-mile race.

After today's practice, the 2½ mile brick and asphalt oval again will be closed and cleaned before the cars line up at 11 a.m. Monday for the race itself.

Sao Paulo, mushrooming at the rate of 35 new buildings a day, now is challenging Brazil's largest city, Rio de Janeiro, home of 2,650,000 people. It hopes eventually to surpass Buenos Aires, Argentine capital and South America's largest city.

Carmichael Hurls Padres To 13th Straight Victory; Seals Shut Out Portland

By PETER HAYES United Press Sports Writer John Carmichael hurred San Diego to its 13th consecutive victory last night as all visiting teams used brilliant pitching to defeat their Pacific Coast League hosts.

Carmichael tossed a six-hit shutout as the league-leading Padres edged Los Angeles, 1-0, in the 11th inning on Buddy Peterson's double with Al Federoff aboard. It was the Pads' 23rd win in their last 24 games.

Hollywood's Red Mungler pitched the best game, however, blanking Seattle on two hits, 7-0, to drop the second place Rainiers 6½ games behind San Diego.

Bearden Wins 7th In Portland, San Francisco's Gene Bearden became the first PCL pitcher to win seven games when he shut out the Beavers, 2-0, to lift the climbing Seals into third place ahead of Los Angeles. Bearden is undefeated.

And Johnny Briggs allowed just five hits as Sacramento overwhelmed Oakland, 16-3, to snap a nine-game losing streak. Bearden, the league's leading pitcher, spaced eight hits while his mates reached Portland starter Royce Lint (1-4) for a run in the first inning. Jim Moran doubled and Bob DiPietro brought him home with a single to run his consecutive game hitting streak to 16.

The Bevos collected two hits in the ninth inning but Bearden closed the gate to give the Seals a 2-1 series lead.

LINESCORES: Sacramento .001 052 322—16 19 0 Oakland .000 000 021—3 5 1 Briggs (4-4) and Baich; Cain, Ferrarese (5), Benana (6), Van Cuyk (7), Drews (9) and Neal.

San Francisco 100 001 000—2 7 1 Portland .000 000 009—0 8 0 Bearden (7-1) and Tornay; Ritchey (6); Lint, Waibel (6), Scheib (9) and Calderone.

Hollywood .000 200 302—7 13 1 Seattle .000 000 000—0 2 2 Mungler (4-3) and Hall; Dren, Oldham (7), Brenner (9) and Ginsberg.

(11 Innings) L. Angeles 000 000 000—0 1 7 1 Carmichael (5-1) and Bailey; Hillman, Lown (10) and Fanning.

Benson To Enter NCAA Track Test

Salem — (U.P.) — Dean Benson of Bend, Willamette's top hurdler, will compete June 17 and 18 in the annual NCAA track and field tournament in Los Angeles, school officials said today.

Benson's time of 14.4 in the high hurdles is one of the best in the nation.

This Saturday Benson and two teammates, Larry Thompson and Dale Hartman, will take part in the NAIA district meet in Portland to try to qualify for the NAIA meet at Abilene, Tex., June 3 and 4.

FIRE SPOTTER

International Falls, Minn. — (U.P.) — Cleve Costley, South International Falls fire chief, doesn't forget his job even during flying lessons. While taking a lesson, Costley spotted flames licking the roof of the Thomas Cobey home. Costley landed his plane, rapped on Cobey's door, and informed him his house was afire.

The first free diagnostic cancer clinic in the United States was opened in Columbus, O., in 1921.

Mile Could Be Feature Of PC Meet

University of Oregon, Eugene — Who will win the mile run? The competition between Oregon's Bill Dellinger, UCLA's Bob Seaman, and USC's Sid Wing and Marty Montgomery is expected to be one of the highlights of the 25th annual PCC track championship at Hayward Field next Saturday at 3:30 p.m.

Dellinger is the defending champion while Seaman, Montgomery and Wing are all considered excellent prospects to succeed the Webfoot junior as the PCC four-lap king. All of Dellinger's chief competitors have run the mile slightly faster this season, with Seaman's 4:10.7 the best, than he has, but his backers say the Duck ace can upset the dope sheet again this season.

Seaman has been sensational in his sophomore year and he has been tabbed as one of the future stars of American distance running. Montgomery and Wing are both veterans and if either Seaman or Dellinger falter could turn the race into a USC show.

Pressure Possible These four should be the class of the field, but UCLA's Pat Delgado, USC's Dick Adams and Washington's Gene Hammermaster, along with WSC's Neil Rader, will put pressure on the leaders.

The two mile and the 880-yard run won't be far off the mile in fan interest and both races could develop into wide-open affairs. In the long run, USC's Fernando Ledesma, who has run under 9:10 this season, UCLA's rapidly improving Bob Hunt, Ken Reiser of Oregon, Chuck Strong and Will King of Stanford, and Lou Courley of Idaho should stage a brilliant race. Ledesma and Hunt will be the favorites, but Reiser, running on his own rack, could make it a three-way scramble with his best effort.

In the 880, Oregon's Australian sophomore, Jim Bailey, has the best of it on the basis of best times by a full second, but if Seaman elects to double up the Duck would face the stiffest kind of competition. UCLA will also have Bob Carne as a threat and the ever-powerful Trojans can count on a good effort from Marshall Clark. Add to this field Bill Link of Washington State, Gary Gayton of Washington and Bill Taylor of USC and the race looks like one of the meet's best.
