MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—FIFTEEN

Rock Point Cemetery Cleanup Day Saturday

Gold Hill — Those who have relatives buried in the old Rock Point cemetery near here are asked to attend a cleanup day at the burial grounds Saturday, May 28, to help identify graves and stake out lots where their relatives are buried, according to trustees of the cemetery.
Those attending are asked to bring their lunch, and tools for cleanup work. Coffee will be served.
A joint meeting of Rock Point and IOOF cemetery trustees was held here recently, and plans were made for future cooperation in the control and betterment of the two cemeteries.
The meeting was harmonious, it was reported, and both groups agreed to do their part so the community could take pride in an organized and well-kept cemetery.
