

Plan Dinner For Class At West Side

West Side—The first eighth grade class to graduate from the new modern West Side school on Ross Lane will be honored at a potluck dinner Friday, May 27 at 6 p.m., in the school gymnasium. All West Side residents are cordially invited and are asked to bring their own table service, desired drink for children in their family and a thermos of coffee if they wish it. Rolls and butter will be furnished by the Mothers' club.

West Side Cub Scouts will start the evening with presentation of the flag, followed by greetings from the principal, Mrs. Bertha Haskins. A short program will follow dinner with athletic awards given by the coach and upper grades teacher, George Marsters, who will also introduce his eighth grade graduates who are Jim Clark, Dudley Durant, Jim Frohnmayer and Gary Winetrot.

Walter Graf, chairman of the school board, will award the diplomas.

Pupils of Edward Root will furnish special musical numbers and will also direct the school band. The school chorus and symphonette band, directed by Mrs. Corrine Robbins, will present a few numbers.

Following the program, patrons of the school and visitors are invited to visit the school rooms and view the work of the pupils which will be on display. Mrs. Haskins states that this will mark the closing of the school year for West Side school. The students will receive their report cards Friday afternoon.

St. Mary's Classes To Hold Reunion

Former students of the classes of 1933, 1934 and 1935 of St. Mary's school will meet at the school Sunday May 29th, between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. for a reunion of their classes. There will be a program, by present St. Mary's students, and refreshments will be served.

A social hour is planned in order that those attending may have an opportunity for reminiscences and to renew friendships.
