Don Newcombe Pitches, Bats Brooklynites to 6-2 Triumph

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Big Don Newcombe of Brooklyn has fallen into the most miserable kind of rut imaginable—he keeps winning games but losing money.

No one is hitting the huge, righthanded fastballer much on the mound these days but he sure is getting belted hard in the pocketbook.

Take his six-hit 6-2 victory over Pittsburgh Thursday, for example. Newcombe figured he had put in a pretty profitable day. After all, he tripled home two runs in the ninth and even stole home standing up to nail down his seventh victory without a loss.

Upon returning to his hotel however, he learned he had been fined $40 for arguing with umpire Frank Secory last Tuesday night. Of course, that fine doesn't compare with the $400 one taken out of his last salary check for refusing to pitch batting practice earlier this month, but every little bit hurts.

Newcombe, who hopes he'll get all that money back, and then some, in the form of a World Series cut, enabled the pace-setting Dodgers to retain their six-game lead over the rampaging Cubs, who beat the Cardinals, 3-0.

The victory, turned in by veteran Howie Pollet, marked the Cubs' seventh in their last eight games. Rookie Bob Speake continued his spirited hitting with a homer and a single that accounted for two of Chicago's runs.

Rookie Marv Blaylock's 11th inning double drove in Roy Smalley from second base and gave the Phillies a four-game sweep over the Giants, 3-2. Bob Miller relieved starter Bob Kuzava in the sixth, pitched three-hit ball the rest of the way and was rewarded with his second triumph. Hoyt Wilhelm, third Giant pitcher, was the loser.

Cincinnati nipped Milwaukee, 5-4, in the first of two scheduled games but the nightcap was postponed because of rain. The Redlegs won the game with four runs in the fifth inning, Gus Bell singling home two runs and Wally Post another two. Ted Kluszewski became the major league home run leader when he blasted his 12th four-bagger off loser Lew Burdette in the second inning.

The Yankees increased their American League lead to 2½ games by capturing both ends of a doubleheader from the Senators, 8-4 and 7-3.

Ed Robinson Homers
Eddie Robinson's three-run homer was the big blow among the Yankees' 11 hits in the opener which was credited to rookie Johnny Kucks even though he was nicked for homers by Jim Busby and Mickey Vernon. In the nightcap, Yogi Berra hit his 10th homer with two on off Dean Stone in the first inning to give the Yankees a lead they never lost. Elston Howard also homered. Lefty Bob Wiesler started for New York but was relieved in the fifth by Jim Konstanty, who was credited with the victory.

Beaten by the White Sox, 3-1, in the first game of a doubleheader, Bob Lemon came back with an eight-inning pinch single to give the Indians a 10-9 triumph in the nightcap. Lemon forced across the winning runs in the sixth inning of the opener when he walked winning pitcher Jack Harshman and Chico Carrasquel with the bases loaded. In the second game, Nellie Fox of Chicago hit homers in the seventh and eighth innings to tie the score at 9-9, but Lemon dissolved the deadlock in the last of the eighth when he singled home Dave Philley. Reliever Art Heuteman was the winner.

Jim Wilson hurled a four-hitter and drove in a run himself to lead the Orioles to a 2-0 victory over the Red Sox. Leo Kieley was the loser.

Rain postponed the Detroit-Kansas City game.

NAIA Tussle On Saturday In Portland

Portland — Eighty-three of Oregon's finest small-college track and field athletes have qualified for the state's National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics' sponsored cinder meet this Saturday in Lewis and Clark's Griswold stadium on Palatine hill in Portland.

All nine member colleges in the Oregon district of the NAIA will have representatives in the meet, the first of its kind ever held in the state.

Ed Fiene's University of Portland thinclads lead the list of qualifiers with 12. The Pilots are the only independent college in the nine-school district.

SOC Enters Nine
Lewis and Clark, runner-up to Whitman for the Northwest Conference track championship, is next with 11. Willamette and Linfield, who tied for third spot in the NW conference race, both place 10.

Southern Oregon, Eastern Oregon and Oregon College placed 9 men each. SOCE won the Oregon collegiate conference crown with Eastern second and OCE third. Pacific University placed 8 and Portland State 6 to round out the field.

In addition to these figures, seven schools have entered relay teams in the event. Outstanding performers in the Portland meet will be eligible for the National NAIA meet to be held in Abilene, Tex., June 4 and 5.

BOWLING

President Buzz Green and Secretary - Treasurer Bob Lane were reelected by the Medford Bowling association last night.

Vice presidents named were Bill Meyers, Jake Olsen, Ray Wise and Hugh Shaw.

The foregoing officers and presidents of the various men's leagues will make up the board of directors of the MBA.

It was decided to make the Commercial League into a non-handicap circuit on Wednesday night. Team events in the city association tourney will replace league play the first full week in January.

Members of three Medford women's evening bowling leagues were hostesses to their sponsors and team trophies and individual award were presented for four circuits Wednesday night at a dinner and dance at the Dardanelle near Gold Hill. A total of 139 men and women attended the event.

Awards were presented by Irene Schroeder for the Classic League, Pat Gardner for the Victory League and Vivian Knox for the Rogue Rollers and Sunday mixed leagues.

Trophies in the Classic loop went to Rose Barr for high series scratch (621) and high average (169); Vera Cummings for high game scratch (274); Eloda Ludwig for high game with handicap (263); Kathy Jennings for high series with handicap (648), and Vera Blunt for most improved bowler (24 pin boost in average).

In the Victory circuit awards were to Alice Harris for high series scratch and high average. Pat Gardner for high game scratch; Irene Schroeder for high series with handicap; Nola Keith for high game with handicap, and Dora Pfaff for most improved bowler.

Among the Rogue Rollers Claudia Lowd had high average and high series with handicap; Gertie Riggs high game scratch. Frances Clave was most improved.

In the 6 p.m. mixed league Vivian Knox and Frank Knox had high averages; Dell Christianson and Frank Knox high games scratch; Leona Ericson and Lewis Jantzer high games with handicap; Vivian Knox and Ralph Doty high series scratch and Ann Higinbotham and John Shama, high series with handicap.

For the 8 p.m. loop Nina Hollenbeck, Eleanor Lenz, Ray Speer and HARRY GOODE had high averages; Eleanor Lenz and Bob St. Hillair, high schatch games; Marilyn Gast and Harry Goode high games with handicap; Teddie Farrar and Ray Speer high series scratch and Nina Hollenbeck and Earl Lenz high series with handicap.

Perfect attendance awards also were made.
