

Dr. D. K. West To Report On General Assembly Sessions

At the First Presbyterian church on Sunday Dr. D. Kirkland West will report on the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church U.S.A. Among other subjects he will tell about the proposition to admit women to the ministry of the Presbyterian church, as well as action taken for changing the form of government.

The First Presbyterian Church of Medford was honored when Dr. West was chosen to tell of its record of benevolence giving before the General Assembly. This was the only church so honored of the more than 8,000 churches.

The music Sunday, directed by Allen Lehl, will include anthems by the Westminster and Chancel choirs. No evening services will be held because of cooperation with high school baccalaureate service.

Methodists To Vote For Favorite Sermon

Members of the congregation of the First Methodist church will have the opportunity on Sunday, May 29, to vote on the sermons preached since last June which was most helpful to them. The sermon selected will be preached again by the minister, Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb, in June.

New officers of the Senior High Methodist Youth fellowship will be installed by Dr. Balcomb on Sunday at the 9:30 a.m. service of Holy communion. The children's choir, under the direction of Mrs. George Sloniger, will sing. Dr. Balcomb's communion sermon theme at 9:30 and 11 o'clock will be, "The Human Face of God." The Chancel choir, under the direction of Mrs. C. R. Adamson will sing at the 11 service and Mrs. Howard Bush will be the soloist at both services.

Dr. Balcomb will give the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of high school seniors at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. His subject will be "The Rules of Checkers."

Rehabilitation Meet Slated in Portland

The Pacific regional conference of the National Rehabilitation association will meet jointly with the regional President's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped in Portland June 8-10. Clarence A. Guderian, chairman of the Jacksonville chapter employ the physically handicapped committee, announced today.

Purpose of the three-day session, to be held in the Multnomah hotel, is to focus community attention on problems involving the physically handicapped, and to permit neighboring state committees to exchange ideas, Guderian said. Local NEPH committee workers are being invited to the conference as are others interested in rehabilitation.

Theme of the conference is "you and rehabilitation," and the keynote address will be given by Gov. Paul L. Patterson. The session will attract leaders from the fields of vocational rehabilitation and handicapped employment in five western states and Washington, D.C.

"RETURN

Unto Thy Rest,
O My Soul"

So wrote the Psalmist when in distress of heart or mind he remembered—
"There is a place of quiet rest
Near to the heart of God.
A place where sin cannot molest
Near to the heart of God."
HAD HE LIVED THIS SIDE OF THE CROSS, he could have sung on:
"O Jesus, blest Redeemer,
Sent from the heart of God,
Hold us who wait before Thee
Near to the heart of God!"
Is your heart at rest in your Redeemer (for He died for you)? It may be!

Assembly Officers Elected This Week

Church officers were elected this week at the Medford Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st. Evan Rasmussen and Carl Cook were elected to the board of deacons for a three-year term. Present members who still have additional time to serve are Earl Hef, William H. McKinley, Alfred Bendickson and Clinton Horton.

Mr. McKinley also was elected secretary-treasurer of the church. Recognition was given to Earl Hef who has served the church as secretary-treasurer for nearly 10 years.

The Sunday school officers elected are James Nilsen, superintendent, and Mrs. John Gibson, assistant superintendent.

The young people's organization, the Christ's ambassadors, also elected officers. They are, president, Pat Wiest; vice-president, Ross Baker; secretary, Sunny Wiest; treasurer, Betty Cook.

Medford Assembly To Honor Students

High school seniors will be given recognition Sunday at the 11 a.m. service at the Medford Assembly of God church, 1108 West Main st., the Rev. F. Wilton Colbaugh, pastor, announced.

New officers will be installed and new members will be received during the same service. An all-church picnic is planned for Monday at 11 a.m. at TouVelle state park. Those needing transportation should be at the church by 11 o'clock when the church bus will leave.

The Ambassador choir from Bethany Bible college at Santa Cruz, Calif., will be presented in a service Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. The speaker will be the Rev. Leland R. Keys, president of the college.

Next Sunday during church school the boys' chorus will sing and the final day in a Loyalty campaign will be observed.

All-Day Session Set For CE Adult Leaders

An all-day meeting of instruction for adult leaders in Child Evangelism work will be conducted Tuesday, May 31, beginning at 9:30 a.m., at the Girls Community club. The meeting is open to the public and Sunday school teachers are particularly invited.

The morning session will include reports on a recent international meeting of the group held recently at Oakland, Calif., attended by Medford delegates.

The afternoon will be devoted to object lessons and songs. Time will be allowed so those attending may copy desired materials. Child care will be provided at the First Baptist church annex. Those attending the meeting should take sack lunches.

Evangelist Accepts Crusade Challenge

Kaiserslautern, Germany—(U.P.)—American evangelist Billy Graham has accepted a crusade challenge at this vast soldier "valley of sin," the U.S. Army announced today.

The North Carolina preacher, who just completed crusades in Scotland and London, has agreed to preach here June 22 before an expected 10,000 American soldiers and their dependents, the Army said.

Army chaplains invited Graham for a one-night campaign at the largest American armed forces community outside the United States. He will hold his service in the huge Vogelweh Sports Stadium.

Graham's scheduled appearance here was regarded as one of the biggest challenges in his current tour of Britain and Europe. Until recently, this built-up military area west of the Rhine River was reputed to be one of the most crime and vice infested sections in Europe.

Conduct Services Here
Miss Thelma Quinn, who has spent 15 years in the Christian ministry, will be guest speaker at the First Church of God, Haven and Holly sts., Sunday, May 29, at 6 p.m.

Miss Quinn is now completing her formal education at Pacific Bible college in Portland.

Miss Mabel Collett, a college senior, will accompany Miss Quinn to Medford, and will direct congregational singing.

James Barrie wrote several plays especially for Maude Adams. Did you know he wrote one especially for Gaby Deslys? It was titled "Rosy Rapture." Sounds like a good box office title. Perhaps it should be revived with some present day "oomph girl" starred. Consider the eye attracting possibilities of a billboard reading "Marilyn Monroe in 'Rosy Rapture' by Sir James Barrie."

Horses & Women

At the age of 30, Elsie De Wolfe, later Lady Mendil, began growing beautiful. Before that she has been described as having been "plain." As time went by Elsie grew better and better looking. She was still beautiful when over 80! She didn't marry for the first time until she was 56. In the preservation and achievement of glamour, Miss De Wolfe considered diet of major importance. Also, her rather unusual system of exercises which called for not only standing on her head for brief periods but of turning somersaults. How about it, sir? Can you your stand on her head? How is she in turning somersaults? If she is clever at both these exercises, you may be able to train her to win a Mrs. America beauty contest!

Asking

Queries from clients. Q. Has there ever been a really celebrated woman named Mildred? A. Indeed there has. It is Mildred Didrikson Zaharias, better known as "Babe" Didrikson, the most versatile feminine athlete of all time. . . . Q. Isn't Pasadena, Calif., known as "The City of Roses"? No, sir. That is what they call Portland, Ore. Pasadena is "The Home of the Rose Bowl Football Game."

Briefly

Brides objecting to "obey" in the marriage ceremony don't have to worry about it in Nevada. Phrase used there is "to love, honor and cherish." . . . There certainly is a wide variety of ways of making a living. In Baltimore, Md., for example, there is a firm described as being "wholesale dealers in unclaimed laundry."

Forgotten Fact

"Babe" Ruth's great record as a home run hitter has caused some of his remarkable achievements as a pitcher to be forgotten. "Babe," when pitching for the Boston Red Sox, once struck out Ty Cobb, Sam Crawford and Bobby Veach in succession. That was when the trio of heavy hitters was known as "Murderers' Row."

Sidelights

Men wear engagement rings in Sweden. When his proposal is accepted, the Swedish bachelor buys two engagement rings, one for his fiancée and one for himself. . . . Clem McCarthy's favorite dinner is cold sliced lobster with mustard sauce, spaghetti, steak with hashed brown potatoes and, for dessert, a chocolate sundae.

So They Say

Men born under Cancer (June 21-July 22) are usually successful financially and live to be a ripe old age. Or, so say the stargazers. Incidentally, Matt Winn, John Wanamaker, John W. Rockefeller, Dan Parker, Rube Goldberg and Jack Dempsey were all born under Cancer.

Down the Stretch

What was the greatest finish you ever saw in a horse race? Ever hear of a thoroughbred named The Tetrarch. A remarkable animal. A gray horse that never lost a race. In one race The Tetrarch became tangled up in the starting equipment. When he got off the rest of the horses had gone a furlong. Nevertheless, The Tetrarch won the race! It was a five furlong race.
