

Yanks, Dodgers Reach Memorial Day Signpost in Grand Fashion

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
It looked like 1953 all over again today with the New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers in command of the major league pennant races at the Memorial Day milestone.

The Yankees and Dodgers met in the 1953 World Series and they'll do it again this year if the old baseball axiom that the Memorial Day leaders will win the pennant holds true. It's an axiom that's proved correct more than half the time and it's rarely looked sounder than it does for the Yankees and Dodgers this year.

The Yankees rode the crest of a six-game winning streak, 13 games and a three-game first place lead over the Cleveland Indians. All this, and Bob Grim, too.

The Dodgers were fresh from taking a series from the New York Giants, 2-1, had won five of their last seven games and held a six-game lead over the second-place Chicago Cubs. All this, and relief pitching, too.

Both reached the Memorial Day signpost in grand style Sunday, the Yankees edging out the Baltimore Orioles, 1-0, and the Dodgers defeating the Giants, 8-5. The victory gave the Yankees a 29-12 record compared to their 26-11 mark on Memorial Day, 1953, while the Dodgers' current 30-10 record is far better than their 23-14 pace of two years ago.

Grim, A. L. "Rookie of the Year" in 1954, "joined the team" Sunday when he limited the Orioles to five hits in pitching his first complete game of the year. A 20-game winner last year, Grim had failed to go the distance in seven previous starts this year and had Manager Casey Stengel walling that he needed another starting pitcher.

Art Schallock, purchased from the Yankees on May 12, matched Grim until the ninth when Mickey Mantle singled with one out, moved to second base on Hank Bauer's infield out and scored on rookie Elston Howard's single.

Good Relief Aid
Manager Walt Alton called for bullpen aid for the second straight day and got it when Jim Hughes pitched two scoreless frames to close out the Dodgers' second straight victory over the Giants. Only the day before, Alton had received a brilliant relief performance from Ed Roebuck in squeezing out a 4-3 verdict over the world champions.

Junior Gilliam, Jackie Robinson and Duke Snider all hit homers for the Dodgers, who routed southpaw Johnny Antonelli, the Giant's "desperation starter," in the second inning. Al Dark and Willie Mays hit homers for the Giants, who never could make up an early 5-0 deficit.

Larry Doby's 500-foot home run featured the Indians' 4-2 verdict over the Kansas City

Athletics and helped Herb Score notch his fifth win. Doby's blast cleared the right field wall, which stands 50 feet high, at a point 405 feet from home plate—only the fourth time the feat was accomplished. It came off Bobby Shantz, who suffered his fifth loss.

Williams Triples, Doubles
Ted Williams had a triple and double and Jackie Jensen hit two homers and drove in five runs to lead the Boston Red Sox to a 12-7 win over the Washington Senators while Mike Fornieles scattered nine hits in pitching the Chicago White Sox to a 9-3 win over the Detroit Tigers in other A.L. games.

The St. Louis Cardinals presented new Manager Harry Walker with his first victory when Stan Musial's three-run homer paced them to a 7-2 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs. Tom Poholsky received credit for his first win.

In the other N.L. games, Hal Jeffcoat received credit for his sixth win of the year in relief as the Chicago Cubs downed the Milwaukee Braves 9-6 for their 13th triumph in 16 games and Robin Roberts won his seventh game as the Philadelphia Phillies toppled the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-2, for their seventh straight verdict. The second Philadelphia-Pittsburgh game was suspended in the seventh with the Pirates leading, 8-3.

CONTROL PLAY WINS TOGA FOR KALAPUS; TORNADO CO-CHAMP

A deliberate, control style of game which kept his opposition off balance and played it into his hands enabled Medford's Jerry Kalapus to battle his way past four foes, including a favored Portlander, to capture the Oregon state high school tennis singles championship in tournament contention Friday and Saturday at Corvallis.

The 6-foot 5-inch netter, whose retrieving and court coverage ability make him a player of stonewall stature on the court, brought to Medford its first high honors in many years in a sport which has scant following on the local scene. With Kalapus's singles title also came a portion of the state team co-championship. Bob Wulf and Phil Burkland nabbed the double crown to give South Salem a share of the crown. Each school picked up five points for its championship.

Kalapus bounced Wayne Henninger, Roseburg in the singles finale Saturday. He drew a first round bye on Saturday then scored a comparatively easy double over Allan Crisp, Sheridan. In the third round the Black Tornado star disposed of Gary Ambrose, Jefferson of Portland, who had been picked to win the championship. Semifinal action saw Kalapus beat Ken Rayburn, Grant of Portland.

Fine Morale Victory
Medford's doubles team of Bill Isaacs and Jim Gordon were eliminated in the second round but the two Tornados tabulated a fine morale victory as they came within match point of scoring centers which would have given the Pear city sole possession of the team trophy. One point away from a triumph over Klamath Falls' Bechen and Hayden, the Medfordites yielded to a replay of a disputed Klamath serve and the Pelican went on to win the tussle.

An Isaacs-Gordon win in the round would have given Medford two points and, with the five by Kalapus, a total of seven for the tourney.

Kalapus, whose mode of action contrasted to the flashier, more spectacular play of Portland entries in the meet, nevertheless, produced the desired results with his deliberate game. He frustrated his rivals by keeping them deep in their back courts. The tactics gave the Tornado better advantage at the net and in the finale he turned in a great net game.

The Medford star breezed by Crisp 6-0, 6-1. His toughest scrap was with Ambrose. Experimenting in the first set, Kalapus lost 2-6 but he took the next two 6-1, 6-3. He was a master in this third round mix at covering the court and he set up Ambrose with high deep backhand shots and the Portlander missed many of them. Rayburn proved another comparatively easy mark and Kalapus won 6-2, 6-2.

For the two finalists it was a grudge match. Kalapus had beat Henninger this year after losing last year to the Roseburg player. But the Medford youth just overpowered the tiring Indian. His high bouncing lobs fell close inside the base line, so close that it was hard for Henninger to judge whether they would be in or out. Balls that the Roseburg boy returned Kalapus adeptly blasted back. Set scores were 6-1, 6-3.

Isaacs and Gordon won their first set with Bechen and Hayden 6-4. They were leading 5-4 and love-40 in the second set when the questioned play arose. It was Klamath's serve. The first ball was out and Isaacs called the second one out too. Spectators agreed but a Klamath man said it was in.

No Line Officials
There were no line calling officials in the second round. After several minutes discussion and after the players had shaken hands, the gesture at the end of a match, it was decided to serve over. The Klamath duo went on to win the set 7-5 and took the match with a 6-2 third set.

Henninger downed Ron Guenther, North Bend to reach the finale with Kalapus. Wulf and Burkland won the doubles with 9-7 and 10-8 sets over Ed Grover and Merv Montney, Cleveland of Portland.

Diane Peterson, McMinnville, defeated Patti Miller, Washington of Portland, 6-2, 1-6, 6-3, to successfully defend her girls' crown. Barbara and Carol Olson, Jefferson, beat Kris Hellis and Patty White, Lake Oswego, 6-3, 11-9 for their third straight doubles toga.

Cudd Wins, Yost Beaten In Britain

The first major upset of the tournament saw James Mahon, a one-time professional who is now a market bardner, beat Dick Yost, a member of the Walker Cup team from Portland, Ore., 1 up in 21 holes.

Another U. S. Walker cup per from Portland advanced, however, when Bruce Cudd eliminated Seymour Martin of Brazil, 7 and 6.

St. Anne's, England—(U.P.)—Jim McHale Jr., former U. S. Walker Cup golfer from Wynnewood, Pa., began his sixth bid for the British amateur championship with an easy 7 to 5 triumph over England's Eric Taylor as the six-day match play grind started in perfect weather.

St. Anne's, England—(U.P.)—Big Bill Campbell, captain of the triumphant United States Walker Cup team, led a power-packed array of 46 Americans into the British Amateur golf championship today with experts predicting the sixth U.S. triumph in the last 10 years.

Attendance for today's 88 first-round matches at the Royal Lytham and St. Anne's course was expected to be cut by the railway strike, but local bus and coach services were trying to fill the gap.

Today's 88 man-against-man matches on the 6,657-yard par 71 course represented about three-fourths of the first-round

Chiefs Sweep Series With Medford Studs

Roseburg, new entry in the Southern Oregon Baseball league made its bow into the semi-pro circuit at the expense of the Cheney Studs, sweeping its two-game week end series with the Medford aggregation at the fairgrounds ball park here.

With both clubs fielding somewhat makeshift line-ups, the Chiefs bounced the Studs 4 to 1 Sunday after handing them a 5 to 2 pasting on Saturday.

Four-hit pitching by Jerry Droscher, up from Roseburg high school, and a three-run fourth inning were the big factors in the Chiefs' decision yesterday but they had to choke off a ninth inning bid by the Studs in order to wrap up their sweep. Medford loaded the bags with none away in the final frame and pushed in its lone run of the afternoon before it could be stopped.

Six-Hitters Saturday
Six-hit jobs were turned in on Saturday by the rival pitchers, Don White of Roseburg and Warren Noyes of Medford. But Noyes issued five bases on balls to White's two and the Chiefs made better use of hits, passes and rival errors than Medford was able to make. Medford was charged with four muffs and Roseburg with three.

The Studs had men on bases in six innings on Saturday but couldn't muster scoring punch in four of the frames. White struck out 13 batters in turning back the Studs. Noyes whiffed nine.

A triple by Les Winders, a single by Joe Niro, a sacrifice by George Sanders and two Medford misplays in fielding contributed to Roseburg's fourth-frame score-making yesterday. The other run for the Chiefs came in on a double steal try. Dan Luby singled and was sacrificed to second base by Winders. White got on base on an error and Luby went to third. Luby slipped home while White was being run down between second and third base.

Droscher weakened in the ninth frame and issued a base on balls to Bill McLean of Medford, gave up a single to Jack Cooney and yielded another walk to John Niles. Clarence Melby drilled the ball to shortstop, forcing out Niles at second base but driving McLean home for the Medford marker. Harvey Tonn struck out and Howard Morris fled to shortstop to conclude the inning and the game.

Roseburg made threats in both the second and eighth innings, getting men on third base. The Studs got men as far as second in the same stanzas.

Heavy hitters for the Chiefs were Niro with three bingles in four times up and Hal Zurcher and Luby each with two for four. A high fly ball by Pitcher Marv Scherpf, which Centerfielder Zucher lost in the sun, was Medford's long blast of the day. It went for a double.

Fielding Gem
While Droscher was giving up four hits, fanning five and walking four, Scherpf was yielding more hits but striking out more and walking fewer. He was tagged for eight wallops while recording nine KO's and just one base on balls.

Fielding gem Sunday was on a smash into left field by Niles. It appeared to be a sure hit but Zurcher snagged the ball after a long run.

On Saturday Medford did not score until the bottom of the seventh inning and by that time Roseburg had four runs in.

For two markers in the third inning Roseburg used a base on balls, a bunt sacrifice by White, a single by Bill Harper and two throwing errors which allow Harper to make the circuit on hits hit. In the sixth the Chiefs got a counter on an error, two walks and two flyouts, one of which was a sacrifice by Sanders.

Miscues Aid
A two-base miscue and Zurcher's single gave Roseburg a run in the seventh canto. The Studs came back for a singleton in schedule, which will be completed Tuesday. Of the American delegation, a total of 34 players were scheduled today with the other 12 beginning Tuesday.

In addition to Campbell, other U.S. Walker Cup players here are Billy Joe Patton of Morgantown, N.C., Jim Jackson of St. Louis, Don Cherry of Wichita Falls, Tex., Dick Yost of Portland, Ore., Dale Morey of Indianapolis, Ind., Joe Conrad of San Antonio, Tex., and Bruce Cudd of Portland, Ore.

Indians Nab State Flag In Baseball

Albany, Ore. —(U.P.)— The Dalles Indians won their first state high school baseball championship Saturday night by beating Columbia Prep 8-3 behind the pitching of Denny Peterson.

Peterson struck out nine batters and allowed eight hits to cap his second win of the tourney. A six-run fourth inning did the rest for The Dalles nine.

The march to the championship started with a 1-0 victory over Albany led by Peterson and continued with a 14-10 victory over Oregon City.

Oregon City took third place with a 2-1 extra inning victory

Padres Hold 8½-Fray Lead in Coast Loop

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer

Lefty O'Doul, who managed San Diego to a Pacific Coast League pennant last season, gets a chance to look down the other end of the Padres' guns this week, starting with a double-barreled Memorial Day squint.

The Pads have been terrorizing the league for the past month and have built up a fat eight-and-a-half game cushion. O'Doul professes not to be impressed.

Yesterday the Padres would have pulled out farther in front if it had not been for Steve Bilko of the Los Angeles Angels. After Earl Rapp homered to give San Diego the first game 7-5 in 10 frames, the Pads took a two-run lead at 3-1 in the seventh of the short game. But Bilko hit a game-winning three-run homer in the bottom of the frame for a 4-3 Angel victory.

Nevertheless San Diego picked up a whole game on second place Seattle at Hollywood produced the day's only two-time win with 7-5 and 5-0 victories. Oakland lost to Sacramento 9-4 and then won easily 10-1. San Francisco ended up on the wrong end of a 7-1 score with Portland and then got a two-hit 2-0 triumph.

Rapp, who leads the league in homers and is almost double his nearest rival in runs batted over Central Catholic. Peterson's teammate, catcher Irwin Fandrey, was named the tournament's most valuable player in a close race with Peterson in, added his 16th four-bagger and his 72nd RBI with a 10th inning clout that won the game for Al Lyons, San Diego relief pitcher.

Earlier Los Angeles had come from behind with three runs in the bottom of the ninth to send the game into overtime.

In the second game, Bilko hit his blast with two aboard and the Angel cause looked pretty dim.

Glenn Elliott gave Portland a fine job of relief pitching in the first game and Luis Marquez hammered a two-run homer for the Beaver win.

But in the second game Jim Walsh held the Bevos to a pair of hits and blanked them over the seven inning session. Bob DiPietro hit safely in both contests to prolong his hitting streak to 21 straight games.

Ed Mickelson and Frankie Austin each doubled for the only Portland safeties.

2 in Same Race Smash 2-Mile Mark

London—(U.P.)—Two men in the same race today broke the world's record for the two-mile run.

They were Sandor Iharos of Hungary and Ken Wood of Britain.

Iharos won the race and Wood ran second. The race was run at London's White City Stadium track, where three men broke the four-minute mile in the same race Saturday.

Iharos, a 25-year-old Hungarian clerk, and Britain's Wood both smashed the old record of 8:40 set by Belgium's Gaston Reiff at Paris in August, 1952.

8:33.4 TIME
Iharos' time was eight minutes, 33.4 seconds. Wood's time was 8:34.8.

Third was Britain's B. T. Barratt. His time was 8:45.8. Another starter in the two-mile contest was Iharos' Hungarian teammate, László Tabori, who won the fantastic Saturday mile in which he, Chris Cathaway and Brian Hewson all broke the four-minute barrier.

But Tabori didn't even finish the two-mile run. He dropped out with two laps to go.
