

Officers Elected By DAR Chapter; Memorial Held

Mrs. John W. Harbison is the new regent of Crater Lake Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. She was named to the office at a meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. George R. Carter.

Other new officers are Mrs. C. O. Lovejoy, vice-regent; Mrs. O. H. Brennehan, chaplain; Mrs. Carl Oestreich, recording secretary; Mrs. G. O. Taylor, corresponding secretary; Mrs. T. J. Gifford, treasurer; Mrs. J. L. Houck, registrar; Mrs. Volney Dixon, historian; Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini, custodian; Mrs. Stanley Chirgwin, Mrs. W. W. P. Holt and Mrs. D. O. Hood, directors.

These women will hold office until next February in accordance with the newly revised charter of the state chapter.

The local chapter concluded its program for the year on the theme "Foster True Patriotism" with this meeting. Mrs. Houck showed slides of colonial churches and Mrs. W. W. P. Holt talked on colonial tableware.

A memorial service was held for Mrs. A. H. Hansen, charter member who recently died.

Arrangements were made for presentation of history awards to Medford Junior High school students Wednesday, and for a group of DAR members to attend a district meeting in Grants Pass Thursday.

Assisting Mrs. Carter in serving refreshments were Mesdames D'Albini, R. G. Beach and H. E. Marsh. Mrs. O. E. G. Meyers and Mrs. Hazel Dickson poured.

Rogue-Elk Unit Installs Officers

Rogue-Elk—Installation of officers was held at the last meeting of Rogue-Elk Extension unit. Miss Eula Wintemote, county home demonstration agent, conducted the ceremony.

The new officers are Mrs. Randall Axtell, chairman; Mrs. Alma Mallory, vice-chairman; Mrs. Audrey Collier, treasurer; Mrs. Glen Anderson, recording secretary.

Each new officer, the retiring chairman and Miss Wintemote were all presented corsages made by Mrs. Chester Willson.

Mrs. Harry Casebier, Azalea house chairman, reported on the progress of furnishings for the house, and the unit voted to send $10 to be used as needed.

A picnic was planned for June 19 and will be held at the Axtell home. A potluck dinner will be served at 4 p.m.

Miss Wintemote presented the project, "Living Within 24 Hours a Day."

One guest and 24 members attended. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Henry Rogers, Mrs. Royal Greenman and Mrs. Henry Schuler.

Student Receives College Honor

Fresno, Calif.—Bob Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hall of 139 Highland drive, received a scholarship ribbon Thursday for being in the top 10 per cent of the Air Force Reserve Officers Training corps third-year class at Fresno State College.

The award was made by Lt. Col. Oliver M. Legg, commander, at the annual FSC ceremony.

He also won the Convoir aviation award as an outstanding cadet. Young Hall, an accounting major, is junior class president and narrowly missed being elected student body president for 1955-56 earlier this month.

Students who complete four years of the AFROTC course at Fresno State are commissioned second lieutenant in the Air Force Reserve.

Medford Student To Be Graduated; Family to Attend

Portland—Miss Priscilla West of Medford will be among 170 candidates for degrees at the 88th commencement exercises of Lewis and Clark college here at 4 p.m. June 5.

The program, which will be held for the first time in Griswold stadium, will feature an address by Dr. A. L. Strand, president of Oregon State college. His topic will be "The Great American Expedition."

Miss West is a music major and will receive a bachelor of arts degree. She has been active in music, dramatic, religious, student government and service activities, receiving a Gold Key award for her leadership, and will be graduated with honors. She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. D. Kirkland West of 52 Ross court.

Miss West's mother and grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Fraser, Pittsburgh, Pa., and her brother, Bruce West, will leave here Saturday for Portland by car to attend the graduation ceremonies. Dr. West will fly up Sunday.

Mrs. Fraser arrived yesterday from the east coast to visit the Wests.

Miss West will return home with her parents and will direct the music for First Presbyterian church here this summer. In the fall she will enroll at Princeton Choir school, New Jersey.

Reception Honors Graduating Class

Applegate—A reception was given May 26 for members of the eighth grade of Applegate school after graduation exercises.

Debbie Reynolds Denies Breakup

Honolulu—(U.P.)—Actress Debbie Reynolds said today rumors that she and crooner Eddie Fisher have broken their engagement are "ridiculous" and "completely unfounded."

"We are very happy," the pert actress said yesterday after her return from a USO tour of the Far East. "We have a small problem about our careers."

"We may have to live in New York, but that's all we have to figure out."

Debbie said she and Eddie have set no date for their wedding because he has TV commitments and she has to make a picture when she returns to Hollywood.

During her tour of the Far East, she said she did 22 shows in nine days in Formosa, Korea and Japan.
